To the Honourable Walter Dulany Esquire Commissary General of Maryland. The Humble Petition of Samuel Chase of Ann Arundel County Sheweth That a certain James Dixon late of the aforesaid County deceased made his last will and Testament in writing, and thereby constituted and appointed a certain Robert Dixon Executor thereof, That Administration of his Estate was committed to the said Robert Dixon, That the said James Dixon being indebted in his Life Time to your petitioner in the Sum of Forty Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Ten pence Current money, your petitioner

for the Recovery thereof prosecuted an Action in the Provincial Court against the said Robert Dixon as Executor of the said James Dixon and obtained Judgment against him for the aforesaid Sum of Forty pounds Seventeen Shillings and Ten pence Current Money and Costs of Suit, That after the obtention of the said Judgment your petitioner prosecuted out of the said Court his Lordships writ of Fieri Facias to effect the Estate of the said James Dixon in the Hands of Robert Dixon his Executor on the Judgment aforesaid and the said writ was returned Nulla Bona by the Sheriff of Dorchester wherein the said Robert Dixon lives and resides — your petitioner therefore humbly prays an assignment of the said Administration Bond, thereby to enable him to Commence Suits at Law thereon against the said Robert Dixon and his Sureties for the Recovery of the aforesaid Sum of Money due to your Petitioner —

And your petitioner will pray &c.
