ROBBERS BREAK IN LEDNUMS' STORE

Smash Side Window—Take Tobacco and Candy Supplies

HUNTED FOR DRINKABLES

Robbers are at work in Denton.

Last night they committed the second robbery on stores in the town within ten days, when they entered Lednum's Pharmacy, by smashing out a complete sash at the side of the store.

They probably climbed on the roof of the back part of Pitts' Barber Shop and from there smashed the whole frame out, pieces of the wooden frame being found halfway across the room this morning.

During their visit, the burglars removed several thousand cigarettes, hundreds of cigars, and boxes of candy. Many other articles were probably taken, but it would be very hard to estimate what they were. Many boxes of patent medicines were taken from the shelves and left on the show cases, showing that the robbers were trying to find something that could be used as a beverage.

The cash register was opened, but Mr. Lednum always empties the register before leaving at night.

Burnt pieces of paper strewn over the floor, tell the tale of the hunt for the patent medicines and other desired articles. The burglars were evidently afraid to turn on the light, or were so crude as not to have flash lights.

When Mr. Lednum opened the door to his store this morning he knew immediately that something was wrong as several chairs were lying on the floor and upon entering he found the broken glass and frame work of the window on the floor. Investigation showed that the robbers made their exit througt the rear door, leaving it wide open.

RED CROSS MAKES REPORT FOR YEAR

The American Red Cross, by its Congressional Charter, is officially designated to do four things, namely:

To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war in accordance with the Conventions of Geneva:—

To act in matters of voluntary relief and in accord with the military and naval authorities as a medium of communication between the American people and their Army and Navy.

To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other great national calamitjes: and

To devise and carry on measures for preventing the same.

Our own Caroline County chapter works mostly through its Home Service Section. This section has the responsibility of the activities among the men who served in the World War, and their families. Although men and women say repeatedly that there is very little for the Red Cross to do now that the war is over, yet during the past year about 45 ex-service men have come to the Red Cross office in Denton for information and aid. Most of these have received assistance in straightening out complications or delay in government compensation, and the majority have been helped to obtain medical or hospital treatment and vocational training. A number have received financial aid to tide them over a time of need.

In most cases the financial aid has been in the form of loans. And here I must add that Caroline County should feel very proud of her service men, for not one of them has yet failed to repay the loans of the Red Cross as soon as it has been possible, although bound by verbal promise only.

The Home Service work has been extended to civiljan families, but many pitiful and worthy cases have had to be refused aid for lack of funds. A number of our storekeepers over the county have courteousdly furnished food and clothing at cost when purchased by the Red Cross, and a few of our best physicians have given medical attention free in distressing cases, and one of our Denton lawyers has given much time and advice without fee in cases where there were points of law to be considered.

The Officers of our regular Army and Navy have appealed to our Home Service in behalf of enlisted men, when these men have been worried almost to the point of desertion by reports from home. Two men have received their discharge where the investigations have shown that the need was extreme, and in other cases, relief of some sort has been furnished.

Our chanter has kept a balance on hand to use for relief, should any great disaster befall any part of the county, as we are well aware that fire or disease might ravage any district without warning, but the amount on hand would be inadequate for a large disaster. The chapter sent $50.00 to the relief of the sufferers in the Pueblo floods.

Many an interesting and heart rending story could be told of our Red Cross work here at home, but the reason is obvious why this work must go on quietly. Every case from its nature must be confidentially dealt with.

The chapter financed the work done by the Clean-up squad in the county last September. Twenty-two men came before it, asking for medical treatment, hospitalization, or vocational training. The expeness paid, including the U. S. Army pictures of the Signal Corps, were $52.42.

The only expense the chapter has to bear for administrative purposes are the rent of the office, and stationery, postage, telephone and telegraph bills. It is very necessary to have a permanent office where the people from every part of the county can meet the secretary, so this office in the Law Bujlding has been rented

FORCEFUL SERMON AT BRETHREN CHURCH

In spite of the rather dreary and threatening evening on Wednesday, a large audience heard and appreciated the strong message by Evangelist Garst at the Church of The Brethren on "Going the Limit." The appeal in his message was both forceful and sensible. The following is a digest of his discourse:

Going the Limit—Luke 15:24

"And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want."

The primary teaching in this chapter is to show Jewish inconsistency and interest in material things and at the same time Christ's love for lost humanity.

The Master makes a direct stroke at their sin and indifference and neglect of lost men. They went after lost sheep "until they found them," and they found fault with Christ for seeking lost souls.

The found fault when He healed the cripple on the Sabbath. They found fault when He cast out the evil spirit, and they lost a few razor-back hogs by the operation, so much so that they asked Him to depart from their coasts.

His mission was to save men rather than hogs.

Some years ago there was a great mine explosion in West Virginia. Hundreds of men were entombed, crushed and strangled, dying in the pit. One of the mine operators hearing of it rushed immediately to the scene, pushed his way through the crowd of weeping, shrieking women and children lamenting the loss of husbands and fathers, sons and brothers. The first question asked by this covetous, grasping, hard-hearted sinner was, "Did you get the mules out?" Some one said "No, we are trying to get the men out." His reply was "Oh, darn the men—get the mules. Mules cost money, and we can get a bunch of 'hunkeys' and 'dagoes' any time."

Such are the straits to which lust, covetousness and greed for material gain will lead men. He ignored the groans and struggles of dying men and the weeping and wailing of heart-broken wives, mothers and children that he might have material gain.

The text tells us of one who had gone the limit, spent all and came to want.

There are a lot more birds in this old world who have been flying higher than they can afford to roost, and will sooner or later come to want, wasting their substance mentally, morally and financially.

Given plenty of money and a free rein, a young man will beat the speed limit to eternal destruction.

This young man was on the toboggan slide to hell, but stopped to feed hogs and meditate just before passing the last redemption point. This son devoured his substance with harlots, Luke 15: 30, and came to want.

The social evil and the double standard of morals is gnawing at the vitals of our national life today. It overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, Rome, Greece, Russia, and is threatening our Republic today.

Destroy the sanctity of home life, and national decay begins.

What is the trouble? One is our double standard of morals, another is our loose marriage laws.

One standard of morals for men and another for women. A young man may chew, smoke, lie, drink, gamble and consort woth lewd women of the red light districts of our cities and then keep company with pure girls.

Boys, you would not be caught dead in the woods with girls of this stripe. Yea, a man may rob the innocent of their virtue and good name, and when the mute evidence of their illict affecton can no longer be hid, she slips quietly away, destroys her own life or lives a life of seciusion, obscurity or prostituton. The young man may come back and be received with open arms by modern society.

Jesus Christ set up no such standard as this; it emanates from the devil.

Fathers, mothers, girls, it is high time we stop temporizing with the world and the devil on this question and demand the same standard of morals from the young man who sekks your daughter's hand in marriage that he demands of you.

But someone objects, "There would not be enough men to go around." What of it? Girls, you had better go single all the days of your life than to hitch up with these moral lepers of modern society who will lead you a life of sorrow, shame, disease and poverty the rest of your days.

Some men deplore the independence of modern women and their invasion of our fields of activit-- I don't. The moral depravity of man is fast unfitting him for the responsible positions of life and legalized slavery and prostitution is drawng womankind to a life of independence and self-support.

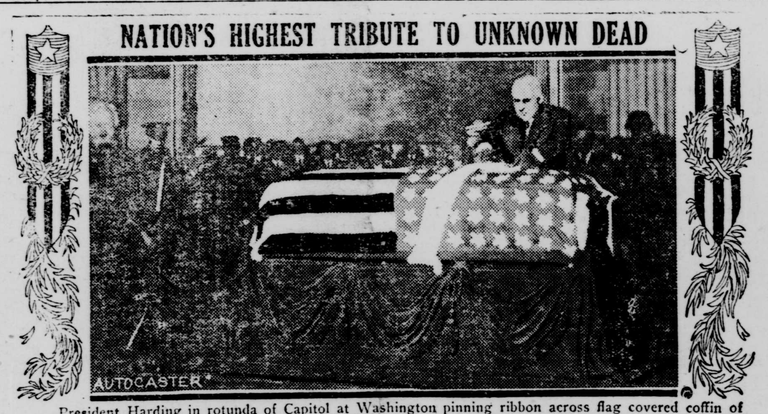

Young men, go straight. Live clean lives. Don't waste your substance on the devil. Stay in the Sunday School and church. Don't ignore religion." It's the ballast that will hold your boat steady when you get out on the sea of life.

The world's need is a challenge for the best that is in you. Almighty God hasn't given you the heritage of godly fathers and mothers for nothing. He is expecting something from you.

A word to women. Perhaps the greatest single sin of woman is her inordinate desire for dress, or rather undress in these latter days. Woman is the crowning piece of God's creation. He wants you to be beautiful and made you so. It was He who put the gold, the raven, the flax, the curls in your tresses, the diamonds in your eyes, the dimples and roses in your cheeks, the ruby on your lips, the pearl in your teeth, and the love for the true, the good and beautiful in your heart. The man who won't be attracted by the charms and graces the Almighty has given you isn't worth attracting. Men of good sense are not looking for artificial doll babies and playthings.

Let me implore you as women professing godliness that you abstain from shocking, immodest, indecent, extravagant dress, dancing, card playing and kindred vices. These dissipations bring men and women to want. Repent and come back to God.

COUNTY EXHIBIT FOR DEC. 1, 2, & 3

When people think of exhibits and premiums, I wonder how many have a thought as to the source of all this money. Last year the County Exhibit cost over $300.00 in actual cash. Who paid the bill? Who paid for the hundreds of little 50 and 25 cent premiums and numerous expenses?

Here is where a large part of it came from: cash donations, Hillsboro-Queen Anne Bank $5.00; Greensboro Community Club $34.00; Denton Community Club $36.00; Denton National Bank $25.00; Caroline County Bank $25.00; individuals at Preston $10.00; Eastern Shore Trust Co., (Federalsburg) $10.00 State Horticultural Society $100.00; numerous business men in Denton contributed toward the use of the building in which the exhibit was held.

This year it is planned to give ribbons as awards, for, after all, it is only the honor of winning a premium which really counts. Exhibits never can be put on a money-making basis. Most people are ashamed to accept a check made out for only 25 cents.

However, we will try to collect various articles of merchandise to be awarded as special prizes. These will probably be very acceptable to the winner and should be good advertising for the donator. Business men may likewise offer cash prizes for special exhibits if they desire to.

As a suggestion as well as for the amusement offered in such a conglomeration of articles, the following list is given of premiums offered at the Talbot County Exhibit: ivory comb, brush and mirror $18.00; Nemo corstes $7.00; 1 dozen ladies photos $7.50; 1 pair ladies shoes $6.00; rug $3.50; case mixed sodas $1.50; Roman striped sash $5.00; case coca cola $1.50; traveling bag $5.00; ironing board $4.00; iridescent bowl $5.00; fern $2.50; combination of toilet creams $1.50; ½ ton nut coal $7.00; cloth for one pair trousers $5.00; one pair men's shoes $6.00 2 inner tubes $7.00; 1 box collars $3.00; 1 parking light $3.50; 1 pair pants $1.00; hot water bottle $2.50; bag holder $8.00 coffee pot $1.00; machine oil $3.75; 100-lb. laying mash $3.50; 2 buckets Pratts poultry feed $3.60; penknife $1; writing paper $1; 12 jars and sealer $5; toilet box $2; fertilizer $5; 50 pounds sulphat of ammonia; 2 years subscription to Easton Gazette $3.00; 6 bottles Cod Liver Elixer $6; 2 men's shirts $2; 1 zinc stove board $1.75; 62 bottles flavor extract; $5 in extract; ladies' hose $3.50; 12 boxes candy $10; horse blanket $8; auto robe $8.75; 10 shaves; 4 hair cuts; 12 jars vanishing cream; 12 jars cold cream; 4 jars peroxide cream; 9 jars witch hazel cream; 6 records; $5 in records; handkerchiefs $2; $1,000 accident policy; 1 tub silk shirt, $5.20; merchandise amounting to $68.64.

The exhibit will be held in the new store of the Nuttle Hardware Company (Parkers Theatre), December 1, 2 and 3.

County Agent

IT'S DISCOURAGING, BUT THE THIRSTY WILL HAVE TO PAY TEN A CASE—"MEDICINE"

The Philadelphia North American of October 29 says that it is predicted that the price of medicinal beer wll probably reach five dollars a carton of 12 bottles and more than ten dollars for a case of 24 bottles. These estimates are based upon compilations by brewers and include the cost of prescription, the retail price of the beer at a drug store, and the manufacturer's cost at the brewery.

The Adam Sheit brewery of Philadelphia is the first brewery to make application for a permit to manufacture medicinal beer. Philadelphia brewers have sent out circular letters to the retail druggists stating that they are ready to serve them with medicinal beer in cartons of 12 and 24 botties.

Ambrose Hunsberger, president of the Philadelphia Retail Druggists Association, has informed Federal Prohibiton Drector Rutter that more than 500 druggists in Philadelphia stand pat in refusing to handle beer.

The Poultry Industry in Maryland

The importance of the poultry industry in Maryland is shown by a slight study of very interesting figures. Last year we produced over 14,328,483 dozens of eggs, raised over 4,597,291 chickens and the value of chickens and eggs produced was over $10,800,000.

And our poultry products are marketed aimlessly. What could we do if we who are interested in poultry co-operated our marketing efforts? A poultry association is being started in the state now. Get behind it.

Town farmers are now beginning to harvest next year's crops.

CANDYLAND AND RESTAURANT HERE

Will Open Saturday in Store Next to Everngam's—Good Things to Eat

SWEETS ARE READY

Denton is at last to have a restaurant and candy store. On Saturday, November 19th, "Denton Candyland and Restaurant" will be opened for business in the store room formerly occupied by Mr. Dyer.

The building has been remodeled and redecorated to suit the needs of the present occupants, and presents an attractive appearance with its clean, white paint, shining showcases and mirrors and new furnishings.

The owners of the store, Bergey, Pappas & Co., operate a similar place in Harrington, and are ready to serve the people of Denton and her visitors, to their satisfaction and pleasure.

The Baltmore Poultry Show

Maryland Poultry Pigeon and Small Stock Association will hold its annual show, December 6-10th, 1921, at the 5th Regiment Armory, Baltimore. So far approximately 2000 chickens,1500 pigeons and 2000 rabbits and cavies have been entered. The extraordinary entry is not surprising when it is learned that the association is offerng this year hundreds of dollars in regular prizes, besides many valuable specialties and a long list of cups.

Have You Joined?

Armistice Day began the annual roll call of the Red Cross. Have you added your name to it yet? There is little need to go into the worthiness of this movement—it speaks for itself. It is little enough to do by way of encouragement and help for such a great cause to hand over a dollar to the chapter, as represented here by Mrs. J. Spencer Lapham. Get busy; don't let another day pass without Your name being on that roll.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

The evangelistic services at The Church of the Brethren on Seventh Street will likely close on Sunday night. Considering the weather conditions, the interest and attendance has been very commendable. On Sunday, Sunday School at 10 o'clock, sermon at 11 o'clock, Christian Worker's meeting at 7 o'clock (Thanksgiving program), and sermon at 7:45 o'clock.

Land of the Shoshonis

An illustrated lecture, "The Land of the Shoshonis" will be delivered this evening in the Methodist Protestant Church by Miss Dorothy Elderdice. This is a very interesting and instructive lecture and will pease those who attend.

POLAND CHINAS ATTRACTED NOTICE

Pure bred Poland China hogs were the attraction at the sale at Springfield Farms, Kent County, near Rock Hall, last Friday, when 74 lots of hogs were sold at auction by Messrs Funk, Cooper and Wood.

The day was fair and over 150 persons were present, most of them prospective buyers, wheih encouraged the owners very much. The hogs sold at a good price, considering the tightness of money and taken all in all, it was very satisfactory for the first sale.

This hog farm was just started recently and the quality of the stock offered was very exceptional. These gentlemen are planning to hold a sale each year. They still have a number of hogs which can be purchased at private sale.

TEACHERS ASSO. TO MEET NEXT WEEK

There will be a meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association Friday, and Saturday, November 25 and 26, at the West High School, Lafayette and McCullough streets, Baltimore.

The opening session, which convenes at 1:30 p. m. Friday, will be addressed by Mayor Broening, of Baltimore.

This will be followed by department meetings at 2:30 p. m.

In the evening, the convention will hear Governor Ritchie, Professor Albert S. Cook, State Superintendent of Education, and Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, of Teachers College, Columbia University.

Saturday morning there will be a general meeting, addressed by Miss Lida Lee Tall, of the State Normal School and Dr. P. P. Claxton.

One of the features of the convention will be the discussion of Dr. Cook's new state educational program.

Parcel Post Sale

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Protestant Church will hold a parcel post sale and bake on Saturday afternoon and evening in the showroom of the Den-Mar Mobile Co. A sale of notions will be included.

Hog Cholera Warning

The government ,through the Department of Africulture, gives warning that hog cholera is reported to exist on the premises of Henry Wilkinson, near Ridgely.

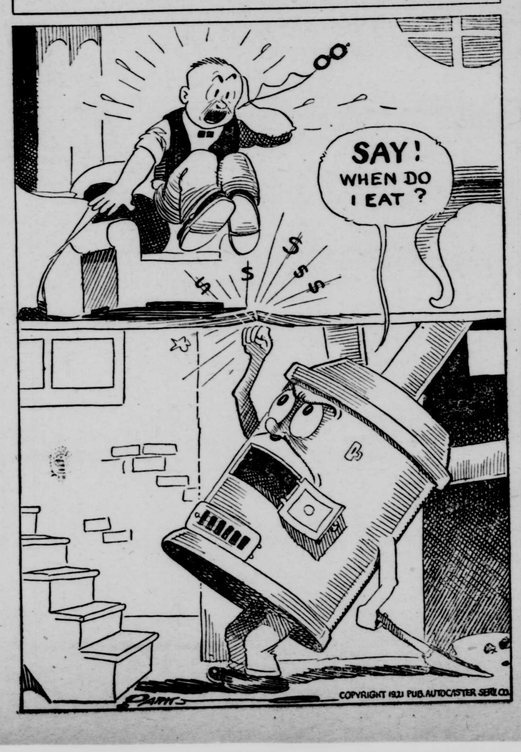

Shipping Durocs

Mr. F. B. Pickering, of near Denton, shipped three Duroc hogs last week to the Philadelphia market. The three weighed 1500 pounds when they arrived. This is a large breed and Mr. Pickering's herd is of very good quality.

Working in Post Office

Mr. Neal Richardson is assisting in the local post office during the rush season at Christmas time.

GETTING HUNGRY

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

President Harding issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 24th, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer. The proclamation follows:

"That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes, it is proper that the President should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for blessings bestowed and of prayer for guidance in modes of life that may deserve continuance of Divine favor.

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace, and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all natiins, after a long period of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness therefore we may well unite in the hope that Providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aims which have guided us, the aspirations which have inspired us. We shall be prospered as we shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things, but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying to help others;; asking before all else the privilege of service. As we render thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority, in the tasks they must discharge. Their hands will be steadied, purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers.

"Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored, and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks we will do well to pledge, in humility and all sincerity, our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question. Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the Providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterward; to all mankind in God's own justice.

"Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November to be observed by the people as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer; urging that at their hearth-sides and their altars, they will give thanks for all that has been rendered unto them, and will pray for a continuance of the Divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the United States of America.

the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-one and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and forty-sixth.

"WARREN G. HARDING,
"By the President.
CHARLES E. HUGHES,
"Secretary of State."

HOT SHOTS FROM EVANGELIST GARST'S SERMONS

If you are a Christian, don't have a face as long as three rainy days.

God has created us in His image—intellectually, morally and volitionally.

God has created us in His image—verse, except over man's will. He never crosses its threshold.

The price of glory is sacrifice, service, fruitbearing, death.

Some people take their prejudices for their religion.

Most of you youngsters have parents that have forgotten more than you ever knew. You can afford to take advice from them.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord." "Parents, provoke not your children to wrath."

The Christian home is the hope and bulwark of the nation.

Men who have gone to the fountain of pleasure, fame, wealth, and honor for satisfaction have not found it.

Jesus is the light and life of men.

"Search the scriptures"—the Bible, THE BOOK—"for in them ye think ye have eternal life and they are they which testify of me."

There are two appointments we must keep. The one is death, the other is the judgment.

Evolution builds upon the achievements of the past. Revolution annihilates them.

All achievement is a process of destruction and construction. God destroys the works of sin in the life of man and builds out of the chaos the works of righteousness.

The home is the first divine institution.

There is a great deal of obedience in our American homes, but it is on the part of the parents.

If you have a case of spiritual blues go to the fountain of life and be renewed.

God saves no one against his will. God does all he can to save, the devil does all he can to prevent it, and you must cast the deciding vote.

We will have either disarmament or social revolution.

The struggle between Cain and Abel is the record of the first war.

Jesus Christ came into the world to destroy the works of the devil—sin and all its by-products.

BELIEVED STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

William N. Coates Dies Without Telling How He Received Injuries on Road

WALKED TO HIS HOME

Preston, Md., Nov. 16.—William N. Coates, 52 years old, living one mile from Preston, died at the Cambridge Hospital this morning as a result of injuries received in a manner undetermined.

Coates on Friday night left Preston at 10 o'clock for the house of J. T. Williams at Linchester, one mile from Preston, where he lived. He was afoot and did not arrive at the Williams home until about 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

He was not seen by any members of the family however until about 6 o'clock Saturday morning. Then he staggered out of his room, and it was seen that he had a deep cut in his head and cuts and bruises on his side and leg. He seemed in a dazed condition and was unable to give any account of how he came by his inpuries.

Coates was immediately rushed to the Cambridge Hospital. There doctors and nurses worked until this morning trying to save his life, and also trying to get out of him some account of his injuries. His mind, however, never cleared enough to enable hm to give any coherent account. It is believed that he was struck by an automobile.

Surviving are a grown son and daughter. His wife died some years ago. Surviving also are three brothers and three sisters, as follows: Raymond Coates, Baltimore, John and Thomas Coates, Wilmington; Mrs. Lacy Butler, Denton; Mrs. Luther Poole, Georgetown, Del., and Mrs. William B. Guthrie.

S. S. CONVENTION MUCH ENJOYED

The seventy-ninth annual convention of the Maryland Sunday School Association convened in Baltimore last week, the opening session being held on Tuesday. The Seventh Baptist Church, North Avenue and St. Paul Street was convention headquarters and St. Marks Lutheran, Northminster Presbyterian and St. Michaels and All Angeis Episcopal churches were used by the convention for congresses and committee meetings.

The attendance was the largest in the history of the association, there being nearly one thousand delegates and visitors from the counties and considerably more than that number from the city churches. The staff of instructors included Dr. O. F. Bartholow, of New York, Rev. E. H. Bonsall, Jr., of Pennsylvania, Rev. W. S. Bovard of Illinois, Rev. E. W. Halfpenny Superintendent of National Adult Department, W. C. Pearce, associate general Secretary, World's Sunday School Association, Professor James A. McElwee, musical director, Washington, D. C. In addition to these were the members of the staff of the State Association and G. W. Crabbe, Superintendent of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League. Rev. W. W. Davis, superintendent of the Lord's Day Alliance and several ministers of the various Baltimore churches.

The subjects discussed covered every department of Sunday School work, there being at times as many as nine congresses in session simultaneously in different parts of the four churches. Probably more stress was laid upon the Adult and Bible Class work and the children's division than on the other departments, but all were very fully considered by the various speakers.

Every delegate and visitor was entertained without charge for lodging and breakfast in the homes of the hospitable people of the city. Luncheon, about 12:30 and dinner about 6:30 were served in the social hall of the church at a charge of 35 and 50 cents respectively. More elaborate dinners were served under the auspices of the convention at the Hotel Chateau. These banquets cost $1.00 per plate and were followed by a splendid program of after dinner speeches bby the leading orators of the convention.

Throughout the convention was one of the most inspiring and instructive that it seems possible to arrange. Every day and every session of each day was completely filled with practical instruction of the utmost value to all Sunday School workers, while the social intercourse with the splendid people by whom the delegates and visitors were entertained was a no less pleasing feature.

Nearly all of the counties of the state were represented, from Crisfield to Oakland. There were eight delegates from Caroline, four from Denton and four from Ridgely.

Mr. Stevens Home Redecorated

The home of Mr. J. Kemp Stevens on Franklin Street is dressing up for the winter. There have been some interior alterations and redecorating, and the house is being painted now.

Baptismal Service

A baptismal service will be held tomorrow evening at the Church of the Brethren at 7:30 p. m. just prior to the regular service. This will give an opportunity for those desiring to join the church to be baptised.

Poultry Association Being Farmed

At Westminster this week there is being held the Maryland Mid-State Poultry Show from the 15th to 19th. During this show it has been rumored a state poultry association would be formed.

Spring Here

Dentonians were very much pleased this morning when they awakened to find that the shower of last evening left a clear day, so warm that it felt like spring. The weather for the last couple weeks has been very cool with heavy frosts each night and the sudden change is welcome.
