FACTS FROM FEDERALSBURG

ARMISTICE DAY SERVICES AT HIGH SCHOOL

The community joined with the high school in commemorative services of Armistice Day, last Friday afternoon on the school campus.

A flag-decked speakers' stand and seats for the band had been placed on the northwest corner of the grounds, and here gathered a large body of people to rejoice in the anniversary of war-cessation as well as to pay homage to all sldiers, living and dead.

The program included community singing of famous wartime songs, brief addresses by Rev. F.C.MacSorley and Rev. J. L. Nichols, the latter a chaplain with the A. E. F., and spirited playing by the Federalsburg band. The final feature was the planting of a tree to the memory of our soldiers. This tree, an oak, was presented by the Woman's Club of Federalsburg to the American Legion, Mrs. J. W. Stowell, as president of the club, making the presentation with a few aptly-chosen remarks as to the part woman played in the war. Robert Eadington, as spokesman for the American Legion, acknowledged the gift. Mr. T. H. Chambers as president of the Town Board, added his expression that the tree might flourish and become a novelty memento of the brave boys it was planted to honor.

Band Serenades Successful Candidate

Mr. J. R. Charles, resently elected Democratic legislator, received on Thursday evening following his election congratulations upon his victory through the medium of the Federalsburg band, which, standing in front of Mr. Charles' homo, rendered a serenade which fittingly bespoke the good will of his fellow townsmen.

This band, which under the able tutorship of Mr. Clarence Brower, has been steadily improving and developing, had furnished the musical accompaniment to the verbal appeals of Mr. Charles and his colleagues during the campaign massmeetings throughout the county, and had doubtless aided in their success as well as won esteem for the band, and, incidentally, advertisement for the town.

Twelve members compose the band, and when the new instruments ordered arrive, the director, who deserves the highest commendation for his earnest work, hopes to enlarge the present repertoire as well as to improve the technique.

Underwear Factory Enlarged

The present plant of the Topkis Brothers underwear factory here has proved too small for the volume of business, the building is being enlarged by the construction of a concrete annex, 30x40 feet, which will accommodate 25 new machines and as many operators. When the additional machines are in operation, the total number will be 63. Mr. A. R. Messick, manager of the plant, has done much toward the success and growth of the business. Topkis Bros. are now erecting a similar factory at Ridgely.

Sensational Sale

An auction sade of building lots, much-heralded and uniquely advertised, by the United Realty Company whoc onducted it, took place here Monday morning. The district sold, situated on the north side of the state road in the vicinity of the high school, was designated as "Homeland," and the sale attracted a large attendance of people, a number of whom became the proud, or disappointed possessors of lots, according as their purchase proved a bargain or not. Some were decidedly not bargains.

The Federalsburg band enlivened the occasion, and 'twas well, for the day was rainy; but despite the gloom of he weaher, he public, guilible as ever, was on hand. Doubtless the advertised donating of pieces of silverware(?) attracted many. These premiums and one free building lot were secured through the drawing of cards. Mr. W. H. Johnson was the fortunate one who drew the lot.

Soccer Team Entertained

Mr. Ralph Collins, a member of the Federalsburg High School Soccer team, entertained the team at his country home on Wednesday evening. The boys, a merry lot, enjoyed themselves in characteristic fashion. A speech by Mr. MacIntosh, their coach, and most delectable "eats" were the chief features of the evening's pleasures..

Miss Eva Wright, accompanied by her small niece, Jane Allen, spent from Thursday to Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright. Miss Wright is now engaged in teaching in the public schools of Wilmington.

Members of the Naumkeag Tribe of Red Men enjoyed a social on Wednesday evening. Coffee and doughnuts added zest to the sociability of the hour.

Mr. Elisha Todd of Philadelphia, formerly of Federalsburg, is visiting this week wth his brothers, Messrs. Thomas and Howard Todd. Mr. Todd is accompanied by four friends of Philadelphia and the party daily enjoys the jojupal sport of the hour—gunning for Brer Rabbit and Bob White.

The stock of merchandise of Long & Beall, who last week made an assignment, has been invoiced by Messrs. Calvert Merriken and J. Frank Short.

THANKSGIVING DAY

offers all of us a concrete day for the realization of many things.

First of all of course is our true thankfulness for all good that has come to us and ours. The expressions of those thanks are varied—but we know of no more sincere way than the putting forth of all our best—a respect which speaks for itself.

Both father and the boys are going to have new clothes this fall. Can there be a more opportune day for the donning of such apparel than on Thanksgiving Day? We think not. Our offerings in suits, overcoats, hats, shoes and furnishings are not only new, but priced surprisingly low.

Suits $18.50 to $35.00

Overcoats $15.00 to $35.00

PLANNING TO TEACH CAUTION SCHOOLS

National Safety Council Begins Campaign Aganst Accdental Deaths

A national educational campaign, designed to decrease the number of accidental deaths, will be begun immediately by the Education Section of the Natonal Safety Council, it was announced at headquarters of the section here today.

Asserting 15,000 children and 8,000 adults were killed annually in the United States through accidents, the majority of whch are due to carelessness, Arthur T. Morey, charman of the section, said the campaign would be carried on in every educational institution n the country.

It is planned to make teaching of cautousness a part of the curriculum of every school, it was explained, and a questionnaire is to be sent every teacher in the country to get their views on the proposal. The questionnaire follows:

1. Do you teach accident prevention in your schools?
2. Is the instruction carried on as a regular part of the subjects taught?
3. To what extent do you rely upon the lecture method?
4. Do you have a minimum of time each week devoted to accident prevention?
5. Do the children have the opportunity of organizing themselves under the direction of teachers for safety work in the school and community?
6. If you are not teaching safety, do you expect to?
7. Would you like to know more of how safety instruction may be given as a part of the curriculum?
8. Are you aware of the value of the safety motive in stimulating interest in school work?

The first fall harvest of the Pilgrim fathers, just three centuries ago, typified THRIFT.

Golden grain and fat turkeys meant more to them then, than bags of gold, as they faced the long New England winters.

Time moved on and our nation prospered. Our definiton of harvest has broadened but we are none the less thankful for our stored-up thrift.

Today it is often the growing BANK ACCOUNT that we are thankful for. Many folks have had occasion to thank the intelligence which prompted a savings account.

After all, MONEY is the real harvest—the ultimate return on our labors—bringing us the comforts and joys of living.

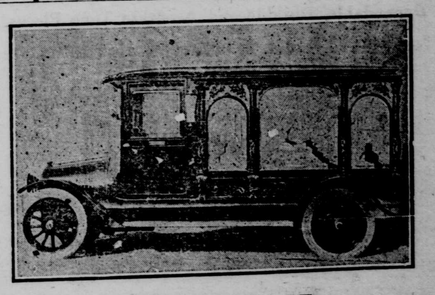

This bank HELPS you save—by adding 4 per cent interest. $5 a week will mean more than $260 to your account before NEXT Thanksgiving Day.
