Whereas at the Court held for the County of St Mary's the [illegible] day of [illegible] in the year of our Lord [illegible] the said Michael Clark did recover against the said Samuel Hill by the Judgment of the Court aforesaid to the value and performance of the said Samuel Hill by fourteen years Servant standing in the said Samuel's stead and service, and to be the proper servant of him the said Michael Clark in the said Mr Clark's right to appertain and belong, notwithstanding he did intending him the said Michael unto to depart and go away, the said Servant aforesaid to the said Michael unto to depart and go away, the said Servant aforesaid to the said Michael Clark after the Judgment aforesaid and contrary to the said Servant aforesaid, the said Michael Clark the day of the year of our Lord as aforesaid and at divers other days and times since in the year of our Lord aforesaid to the day of the year of our Lord aforesaid in the County aforesaid in the said County of St Mary's County aforesaid in the said County of St Mary's County aforesaid in the said County of St Mary's