
Take a Tip From the Farmer

Those who have failed to catch the business cloud, may well profit by the first gleams of the silver lining in the farmer's example.

He is going ahead with his fall work, confidently facing the future.

This bank welcomes the opportunity to help the farmer. We admire his backbone.

A WATCH

There's an attachment for a watch which only a man understands. And as a gift from those near and dear—an added touch is felt.

Every member of the family always expects much when dad or big brother start buying Christmas gifts —and there usually are few disappointments.

Why not surprise one or both this year with a handsome gift of a watch?

The Hamilton watch has been the gift supreme for many years now.

See our new shipment of these.

MARY SUE THAWLEY

Little Mary Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Thawley, aged 1 year, 11 months and 13 days, died at midnight Tuesday, December the thirteenth if a complication of diseases. She had been ill just one week when she died. During that time she suffered greatly, yet no one realized that she was so ill, and her dtath came as a great shock to her many friends.

During her short stay here, her lovable dispositiin had endeared her to all whom she met. To know her was to love her.

The heart-broken parents and many friends have the sympathy of the community.

Funeral services were held Friday at Wesley M. E. Church at 1 o'clock, in charge of Rev. W. E. Forrest and A. W. Betts. Interment in Wesley Cemetery.

Mrs. Ethel Collison and children spent the week end with the former's sister, Mrs. John Carroll, of Goldsboro.

Mrs. Fred Powell of Harrington spent part of last week with her grandfather, Mr. Tilghman Harvey.

Mrs. Charles Murphy of Denton has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Houston Thawley.
