Senior Play a Success

Senior class of F. H. S. presented a most enjoyable play "Much Ado About Betty" at the Temple last Thursday night to a house literally overflowing with delighted spectators. So many people were turned away for lack of seats that the class decided to repeat the play on Friday night.

The play was three acts of pure amusement in which complicated situations followed thick and fast; the youthful actors proving themselves quite equal to the occasion. It was one of the very best local talent ever presented here and the class, together with the principal, Mr. Hillis, who coached them, deserve great credit, for producing such a splended play in such a short time. The receipts amounted to about $144.00.

Masonic Banquet

The annual banquet of Nanticoke Lodge, No. 172, A. F. and A. M., was held in the Masonic Temple on Thursday evening, January 8, with a large number of Mason's accompanied by their wives, and with numerous out-of-town guests and speakers.

The evening's program opened with the singing in unison of the "Welcome Song" to the melody of "Auld Lang Syne", followed by the invocation by Rev. F. C. MacSorley when the supper was served. The menu embraced: grapefruit, turkey, chicken salad, ham, Maryland biscuit, rolls, celery, cranberries, olives, pickles, ice cream, and cake.

During the enjoyment of this delightful repast, music was discoursed by the Easton orchestra upon the stage which was beautified by quantities of evergreens and softly shaded lamps. The orchestra music was interspersed with addresses. The speakers being Mr. Oliver C. Short, of Baltimore, Mr. John S. Sweeney, and Mr. John L. Sanford. A delightful reading by Mrs. W. H. Carson.

Merriment and good cheer prevailed until the banquetter disbanded with the parting song "Good Night Ladies".

BRIGHT—JARMAN

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Saturday, December 22d, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Ward Jarman, when their sister, Miss Elva Jarman, a popular teacher of Kent county, Del., became the bride of William Edward Bright, of Henderson, Md.

The home was most beautifully decorated for the occasion with pine, cedar, holly wreaths, and mistletoe.

Miss Helen Gould Comegys, a niece of the bride was the bridesmaid and Mr. Clinton Guthrie was best man.

They preceded the bride and groom to the parlor to the strains of "Lohengrin's" wedding march, where the ring service was performed by Rev. S. L. Hanby, under an arch of cedar, holly and mistletoe. During the ceremony "O Promise Me" was very softly sung.

The bride's dress was white ivory satin trimmed with silk braid and she wore a necklace of pearls. Her veil was silk elusion with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Comegys, was gowned in pink georgette over silk, and she carried a boquet of pink and white dahlias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and the guests were bountifully served with refreshments of various kinds of the season.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Moore, Dover; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Remaley, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ford and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bell, Mr. John Remley, Kenton, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jarman and son Furman, Woodside Del.; Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider and sons, George and Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Comegys and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Hubbard, Mrs. Emma Teat, Mr. and Mrs. Allie Seward, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teat, Messrs Wesley and Louis Teat, Hartly, Del.; Miss Viola Purnell, Mr. Harvey Purnell, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Jarman, Masters Noble, Clinton, Franklin Jarman; Misses Cora Hester and Dorcas Elizabeth Jarman, Marydel.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bright, Hobbs Mr. and Mrs. Alda Montague, Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Hanby, Henderson; Mr. Clinton Guthrie, Lambson, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Remley, Cheswold, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. William Gooden, Wyoming, Del.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome presents. They left Sunday aftrenoon on the 4:35 train for Baltimore and Washington on their wedding tour. The bride's traveling dress was blue satin canton crepe, her coat was taupe with gray fur collar and cuffs with hat to match.

After spending a week away they returned to his home in Henderson. Mr. Bright is in the mercantile business there and also telegraph operator at Kenton, Del.

Mrs. Bright resumed her duties on January 2d at Westville school where she has been teaching for the past seven years.
