Mr. George Plater } Did the usuall Oaths of Allegiance and
Mr. Richard Sewell } Attorneys, and were admitted and Sworne
Mr. William Evans }
Mr. Samuel Walker } Attorneys of this Court.
Mr. Stanley Clark }

Upon motion of the said Attorneys made to this Court concerning Attorneys fees It is ordered that all Attorneys fees be limitted according to law, and the usuall Rates for it have been payd.

Henry Lawrence having taken the usuall Oaths of Allegiance and Attorney was admitted and Sworne Clerk of this Court:

Came the Sheriff of Kent County and in open Court turned over his Prisoner Rebecca Saunders into the custody of the Sheriff of St. Marys County

Came the Sheriff of Baltimore County and in open Court turned over his prisoner Jeffe Gulston into the custody of the Sheriff of St. Marys County

Came the Sheriff of Anne Arundell County and in open Court turned over this Prisoner James Pindt into the custody of the Sheriff of St. Marys County

George Thompson according to Recognizance made his personall appearance and is ordered to attend this Court.

Mr. Robert Mason One of the Reps. Justices of this Court came and took the Oaths of Allegiance and Attorney, and being likewise Justice of this Court sworne took his place accordingly:

The Grand Jury for the body of this Province, being called came into Court and the Oaths of Allegiance and Attorney being administred unto them severally, who were in number viz.

Philip Lynch Foreman:	Richard Dunham:	Henry Drake:
William Webb:	Ralph Smith:	Richard Brightwell
Matthew Lewis:	William Foster:	Gourney Throw:
John Bowles:	Lyman Sperind:	Jonathan Smithson:
Jeremy Hooke:	John Smoots:	John Silman
	Wm Imes

Which Grand Inquest for the body of the province being impannelled summoned and Sworne and their charge given them in writing, they withdrew themselves to Consider thereof:

Edward Blackstone of Calvert County Nicholas Fountaine of the same County Jasper Hall of Talbott County, Francis Smith of Baltimore County Mathew Smith of Kent County John Smith of Cecill County Daniel Clowry of the same County John Strawbridge of Somerset County George Horton of Cecill County, Roger Mallard of Dorchester County, Edward Pollard and Isaac Tilghman of Talbott County and Charles Jones of Kent County, being summoned and impannelled by the Sheriff of Kent to attend this Court as Grand and petit Jury men, were severally and solemnly called came not but made default in Contempt. They are therefore by the Court severally fined according to law:

Fine 5000 lbs.

Soon after came into Court the said Edward Jones, Edward Pollard and Isaac Tilghman, who submitted themselves to the Court and humbly prayed their fine might be remitted, them, which being taken into Consideration for that they having shewed some Reason alegded, by the Court the Court have remitted them their fine and prayed.

Came Mr. George Plater One of the Attorneys of this Court and brought into Court One Hugh Battersby, and prayed Judgment for his runaway time: But the said Battersby shewing his willingness in making Satisfaction for such his runaway time: the said George Plater did agree with the said Servant, that if he would work and honestly serve him or his Assigns One whole year from this day, that then he would give him at the expiration of the said time One hat coate, and accept of such service in full Satisfaction of this runaway time aforesaid, which agreement the said Battersby readily & willingly consented, and bound himself in open Court to do and faithfully to performe the same.

Abell Browne high Sheriff of Anne Arundell County being in open Court solemnly called to make return of this Writt, Came not by himself nor Deputy, therefore it is by the Consideration of this Court fined One thousand pounds of tobacco for his neglect and not attending the Court, and make return of this Writt aforesaid

Fine 1000 lbs.

Ordered that Abell Browne aforesaid forthwith make return of this Writt to the Clerk of this Court, who is by the Court therunto empowered to receive the same: and is likewise ordered, that if any failing happen, then presently to issue out further direction.

The last Court the Sheriff of Talbott County turned over in open Court the body of One Daniel Collins into the custody of the Sheriff of St. Marys County, he being accused of Murder in whose custody he remained to this day, who being now brought to the Bar and proclamation made non prosequi came to prosecute the said Daniel Collins, he was thereupon acquitted by the Court paying his fees: for which he was again committed to custody: