Whereupon the said Kinelm by Phillip Clark his Attorney complaineth that whereas the said Richard the first day of April 1689 at the City of St. Mary's Stood indebted to him the said Kinelm in the full sum of two thousand eight hundred pounds of tobacco for labour performed due to him the said Kinelm for being Attorney for him the said Richard in the Provincial Court of this Province and by a particular account thereunto annexed may more at large appear and being so indebted the said Richard did then and there assume upon himself and to him the said Kinelm did faithfully promise that the said sum of two thousand eight hundred pounds of tobacco would well and truly content and pay to him the said Kinelm when thereunto required Nevertheless the said Richard his promise and assumpsion therein little regarding but plotting and fraudulently intending intending him the said Kinelm of the said sum of two thousand eight hundred pounds of tobacco craftily and subtilly to defraud hath not paid though often thereunto required but the same wholly hath refused and still doth refuse to the damage of the said Kinelm five thousand pounds of tobacco and therefore he brings his suit.
