Now here at this day to wit the Eighth day of October Anno Dni 1693 came the said Robert Smith by Samuel Walkind his Attorney and sayth that the plaintiffe his action aforesaid against him the ought-not to have for that he sayth that he hath well and truely payd and satisfied the said summe of two thousand pounds of tobacco in the above mentioned Declaration according to the tenor of the above-entitled bill, and this he is ready to aver, and prays Judgment &c: Whereupon the said Richard was called into Court to prosecute his said Writt but the said Richard came not by him selfe or his Attorny to follow the same but made default — It is therefore considered by the Justices here that the said Richard Roylston take nothing by his said Writt but be in Mercy for his false clamour and that the said Robert Smith go thereof without day. It is likewise considered that the said Robert Smith recover against the said Richard Roylston the summe of pounds of tobacco adjudged him by the Court here for his costs and charges in this behalfe layd out and expended according to the forme of the Statute &c.

Amos Nicholls, of Maryland ffr.
agt
John Molls

John Moll of Worcester County stands attached to answer unto Amos Nicholls in a plea of trespass upon the Case: And whereupon the said Amos Nicholls by Griffith Jones his Attorny complaineth that whereas the said Amos Nicholls the Fifth day of September in the yeare of our Lord 1691: at Chappquiminy was possessed of some Cattell viz: of the value of fifty pounds sterling and of his own proper goods and Chattels and being thereof so possess-the goods and Chattels aforesaid out of his hands and possession casually did loose which goods and Chattels aforesaid afterwards at Chappquiminy aforesaid to the hands and possession of the said John Moll by finding came — Nevertheless the said John Moll well knowing the goods and Chattels aforesaid to be the proper goods and Chattels of him the said Amos Nicholls and to him the said Amos of right to belong and appertain: But contriving and fraudulently intending him the said Amos Nicholls of his goods and Chattels aforesaid to defraud, the goods and Chattels aforesaid although the said John hath been by the said Amos oftentimes thereunto required hath not delivered but the goods and Chattels aforesaid afterwards viz: the Fifth day of October in the yeare aforesaid at Bohemia aforesaid in the Jurisdiction of this Court to his the said John —

(Molls

Molls proper use and behoofe did convert and dispose to the damage of the said Amos Nicholls One hundred pounds sterling and thereupon brings his Suite — And the said John Moll by Kinsman Scarfe his Attorny came and defends the force and injury when &c: and prays leave to imparle thereunto until next Court and it is granted unto him — the same day is given the Plaintiffe likewise.
Att which said next Court came the said parties by their Attorneys aforesaid and the said John Moll by his said Attorny sayth that he is in no wise Guilty of the matter offered in manner and forme by the plaintiffe above in his Declaration laid to his charge against him and of this he puts himselfe upon the Country, And the plaintiffe likewise — Command is therefore given to the Sheriffe of St Mary's County that he cause to come here on the &c: by whome &c: and who neither &c — to testify what he shall &c: to recognize &c Now here at this day to wit the Eighth day of October in the fifth year of their Majtys reign &c: Anno Dni 1693: came the said John Moll by his said Attorny but the said Amos Nicholls came not by his said Attorny nor himselfe to prosecute his said Writt, but made default — Whereupon It is considered by the Justices here that the said Amos Nicholls take nothing by his said Writt, but be in Mercy for his false clamour and that the said John Moll go thereof without day. And it is likewise considered by the Justices aforesaid that the said John Moll recover against the said Amos Nicholls the summe of pounds of tobacco adjudged him by the Court here for his costs and charges in this behalfe layd out and expended according to the forme
of the Statute &c.
