FEDERALSBURG

Reception to Returing Pastor

Rev. G. E. McDorman, who has just been returned as pastor of the Christ Methodist Protestant Church for his third year, was with his wife, tendered a reception by the members and friends of the church on Wednesday evening of last week.

This reception, which was a delightful affair and largely attended, was held in the lecture room of the church, and was attractivly decorated for the occasion. A well-planned enjoyable program was rendered including address of welcome and filling responses by the pastor and his wife. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served later.

Town Primary Election

The Town Commissioners have given notice of the primary election meeting on the evening of April 26 for the purpose of nomination two or more citizens, two of whom are to be elected on April 28 each to serve for a term of three years.

The judges of election will be: Mrs. H. H. Long, Mr. T. R. Hackett and Mr. Henry Morris.

Womans' Club Aspirs to Club House

Members of the Woman's Club are agitating the question of owning a club house and a number of plans have been proposed looking toward this end. At the last meeting, April 9, ballots bearing several different propositions were distributed to be returned April 16.

At that meeting the program was in charge of the Floral Committee, composed of Mesdames H. M. Carroll, F. L. Williams, W. A. Wheatley, Jr., H. N. Hackett and Alonzo Elliott. The nature of the program was in keeping with National Grain Week, and included several papers on the culture of flowers, bulbs, shrubs, etc. Most attractive little programs, fashioned like a tulip blossom, bore the events of the afternoon, which included three charming vocal solos. Each person was presented with a small nosegay of violets and fern, while the club room itself was beautifully decorated with blooming plants.

"American Writers' Day" will be the program subject for Wednesday, April 16, and April 23 will be Children's Day. The club year terminates on May 7, when election of officers takes place.

The following local delegates were elected to the state federation of clubs at Frederick next week: Mrs. Fernandes Dons, Mrs. Herman Noble, Mrs. J. W. Stowell, with Mrs. F. T. Brooks alternate.

Parent Teacher Association

The regular April meeting of the Parent Teacher Association was held Monday evening in the school auditorium, the president, Mrs. Philelus Jefferson, presiding. Reports were heard from ojcers and chairmen of standing committees, friends being lured in by Mr. F. S. Williams, chairman of the finance committee.

A resolution relating to demotion of pupils, pending from the last meeting, was discussed at some length by members of the association, a motion being finally made and passed to postpone action indefinitely. A number of matters touching school events were spoken of by the president, among which being the proposed course in parent teacher work at the Normal School this summer. The president named as a committee to nominate officers for next year's work the following: Mrs. F. T. Brooks, Mrs. J. H. Noble and Mrs. T. . Holt. She requested that the final meeting in May take the form of a "pound party," for the social part of the evening.

Your Easter Plans?

Think twice before making plans and agreeing to trips or visits on Easter Sunday. Your Christian duty is to be in attendance at your church on this most Holy day. You owe it to yourself—your family—and your own happiness to let nothing interfere.

Every Sunday makes the same call upon you—but Easter Sunday in particular. All nature now in its awakening is a living proof of Him who demonstrated the triumph of Life over Death.

Inspiration is here for you. It will guide and direct you and yours to a more peaceful and happier life—if you will come out and join your neighbors in acknowledging Him who gives all Life.

INAUGURATE HEAD AT KENT COLLEGE

Chestertown, Md., April 11.—William Smith Hall, at Washington College, was the scene this afternoon of an unusual occasion. More representatives of educational institutions were gathered on the platform than had ever been seen in this community.

The occasion was the inauguration of Paul Emerson Titsworth as president of Washington College. The program opened with invocation by Dr. Boothe C. Davis, president of Alfred University.

Chairman Speaks

This was followed by the introductory address of Col. Hiram S. Brown, chairman of the board of trustees. Greeting followed from the faculty. Dr. William R. Howell; from the alumni, Dr. James W. Chapman; from the colleges, Dr. A. Norman Ward, president of Western Maryland College;from the universities, Walter Hullihen, president of the University of Delaware: from the secondary schools, Dr. W. J. Hadway, assistant supervisor of high schools.

The inaugural address of Dr. Titsworth covered the scope of the college field of usefulness and detailed what his plans for the college were.

The Rev. Omar E. Jones, superintendent of Middletown District of Methodist Conference pronounced the benediction. There were representatives from colleges and universities.

It was announced that the endowment campaign had gone over the top with a total of nearly $27,000 subscribed from Kent, which is $2,000 above its quota.

In addition to this nearly already suscribed in the county, the Kent county men and women who are students at the college suscribed $2,635 as part of the $10,205 pledged by the student body.

Medical Society Meets

The Caroline County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Dr. Dawson O. George on Tuesday evening, April 8, at 7 p. m., and was entertained at a sumptuous dinner by Dr. and Mrs. George.

After dinner the meeting was called to order by the president. Minutes of previous meetings were read and approved. Dr. John M. Nicklas, medical consultant of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, was then introduced and outlined what he hoped to do for the county by way of monthly clinics.

The society endorsed the project of holding the T. B. clinics, and pledged its moral and physical support to the effort.

Dr. D. O. George is president of the society, Dr. F. N. Nichols vice president, and Dr. J. R. Downes secretary-treasurer.

HOBBS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry were the guests of Mrs. Henry's sister, Mrs. Charles Finkbiner, of near Harrington Del., on Sunday last.

Mr. Roland Starkey, of Atlantic City, is spending some time with his sister Catherine.
