TOWN & COUNTY Personalographs

Mr. Amos Crouse has entered Blue Ridge College.

Mrs. Lottie Satterfield has returned to Swarthmore, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldie Statum spent Sunday in Philadelphia.

Mr. Goldie Statum made a business trip to Baltimore, Monday.

Miss Florence Morgan spent a few days last week in Ocean City.

Miss Lucille Bailey spent last week end in Baltimore visiting friends.

Miss Eunity Cooper is spending this week with relatvies in Marcus Hook.

Mr. George Arthur McDaniel left Monday to enter Blue Ridge College.

Messrs. Chris Bergey and Lester Kauffman spent Monday in Philadelphia.

Miss Ella Carter has returned form Atlantic City where she spent some time.

Mr. Joe Reed, of Philadelphia, was a recent guest of West Denton relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Taylor and son, Frank, are spending this week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Beauchamp, of Norwood, Pa., is visiting her son, Mr. Will Beauchamp.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Alfather announce the birth of a baby girl on Wednesday.

Mr. Mervin Pentz spent the week end in Atlantic City, making the trip by automobile.

Miss Margaret Thawley was taken to the hospital Sunday to have her tonsils removed.

Mrs. George T. Redden, who has been visiting her sister in Richmond, has returned home.

Miss Carlotta Kinnamon, of Easton, was in Denton, Wednesday, attending the teachers' meeting.

Mr. Stanley Deakyne is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Deakyne.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beck are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on September 6.

Miss Mary Catherine Wright, of Milford, is visiting her cousin, Miss Esther Rairigh, this week.

Rev. J. A. Dudley, of Alexandria, Va., former pastor of the M. P. Church is visiting friends in town.

Mr. Ridge Satterfield, of Wilmington, recently spent a few days with his parents in West Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son weighing 12 pounds.

Mrs. Sargent Wells and son spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Everngam.

Rev. V. E. Hills, of Wilmington, former pastor of the M. E. Church, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. Johnny Corkran, of Wilmington, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Corkran, recently.

Mr. Willard Hynson, of Newark, N. J., spent Tuesday with his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Morris, in West Denton.

Miss Ann Anthony is spending some time in Baltimore visiting friends and is expecting to return Sunday.

Mrs. Harriet Anderson of Church Hill is spending some time with her daughter Mrs. J. Kemp Stevens.

Miss Esther Rairigh spent a few days of last week in Milford with her cousin, Mary Catherine Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, of Newark, Del., have been spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilhelm and Mrs. George Rairigh, of Baltimore, are visiting friends in and near Denton.

Misses Louise and Adeline Fisher are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Fisher.

Miss Virginia Harwood has returned from her vacation and is back at her duty as County Supervisor of Schools.

Mrs. Wharaven and family, of Ingleside, were Wednesday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Larimore.

Mr. John Culver and sister, Miss Florence, of Newark, Del., are spending some time in Denton visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jester, of Newark, Del., visited friends and relatives in and near Denton over the holidays.

Mrs. Asbury Greaves entertained at cards Friday evening in honor of her aunt Miss Annabel Moore, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Thomas R. Green has gone to Virginia Beach to spend the month of September with her son, Woodall Green.

Miss Elizabeth Flowers left for Pasadena, Saturday, where she will teach this year. Her school opened Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Trice, of Geneva, N. Y., visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Trice, last Sunday.

Miss Veda Hoffman, of Washington, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoffman, near town.

Mrs. McGinnie and her mother, Mrs. Pippin, of Ridgely, were callers at the home of the Misses Pippin, 2d street, on Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Cooper, who is attending business school in Wilmington, spent the week end with her parents in West Denton.

Mrs. Twilley and daughter, of Cambridge, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradley, in West Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kitchen, Mr. and Mrs. William Staffard and two children, of Marcus Hook, were recent visitors in West Denton.

Miss Pearl Mitchell will leave the latter part of this week to take up her duties as commercial instructor in the Port Deposit high school.

Mr. G. H. Rue motored to Waynesboro, Pa., Saturday afternoon to visit his mother, Mrs. S. J. Rue, and returned Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roe and daughter, Pauline, and Miss Lillian St. James spent Monday afternoon and evening at Oyster Shell Point.

Mr. Irving McGrew has resigned his rectorship of the Christ Episcopal Church and will preach his farewell sermon the first part of October.

Little Junior Pentz, who was taken to Cambridge Hospital to have his tonsils removed, returned the first of last week and is getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson visited Solomon's Island Sunday afternoon and called on the Rev. M. Gant, former pastor of the Christ Episcopal Church.

Little Lelia Andrews was taken to Easton hospital last Friday and was operated upon immediately for appendicitis. The latest reports are that she is as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Bessie Hubbard had as guests over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Kitchen and two children, Elva Jane and Bessie May, of Marcus Hook, and Mr. Alphonso Gallo, of Wilmington.

Mr. George Cohee was painfull injured last Friday when he slipped and fell in the caning factory of Mr. L. D. Towers, in West Denton, striking his side against some machinery. He is out again, but is still unable to work.

Long & Short (Federalsburg) have this week sent to New York, three buyers—one man and two ladies—to select the best of winter styles offered in ladies' coats and dresses. Their women's wear department is strictly up-to-date. adv

Misses Lillian Timmons and Esther Statum will leave Friday morning to take a course in teaching at the Maryland State Normal School. The Misses Edith Straughn, Ruth Beauchamp and Evelyn Towers will also go to normal school for the second year course.

Mrs. J. Kemp Stevens entertained at a picnic supper Monday evening. Her guests were: Mrs. Sophia Kerr Underwood, of New York; Miss Mary J. Fisher, of Cornell University; Mrs. T .Clayton Horsey, of Greensboro, and Miss Louise Dukes.

HILLSBORO

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Sparks, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sparks.

Misses Florence and Frances Covell have returned to Centreville after spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Covell.

Mrs. Elizabteh Evans is spending a few days with friends in Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clark were in Philadelphia, Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. John Sharp is seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brant, of Camden, Del., spent the week end with Mrs. Brant's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Sparklin. Mrs. Brant will be remembered as Miss Blanch Smith.

Mr. Henry Fisher left on Monday morning for Pomeroy, O., where he has accepted a position in a high school.

The funeral services of Mrs. S. N. Pilchard were held at her late home on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The community has suffered a severe loss. Another great woman has been taken, a great woman because a good woman. The funeral service were in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. P. Taylor. Other clergymen who attended were District Superintendent, Rev. O. E. Jones; W. T. McGuire, of Odessa; W. H. Revelle, Rock Hall; W. P. Sard, Chestertown; O. T. Baynard, Galena; D. W. Jacobs, Milford, and H. M. Hanby, Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Russum, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cahall.

Mrs. T. R. Seward and children spent part of last week with relatives near Roe and Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline and little daughter, Nancy Jane, were in Philadelphia the first of the week.

Miss Belle Connolly, of Easton, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Harry Fleming.

Mr. W. Thawley Sparks, U. S. N., is spending some time with his family.

The re-opening of Ebenezer M. E. church at Ruthsburg will take place September 20. The church has recently been put in first class condition, and is a credit to those who worship there.

PRESTON

Mr. and Mrs. William Cannon entertained for the week end two of Mrs. Cannon's sisters, Mrs. J. H. Swann, of Greensboro, and Mrs. C. C. Prettyman, of Philadelphia. On Sunday they motored to Ocean City for the day.

Miss Marion Bush, of Kingston, Pa., has returned to her home after spending several weeks with Miss Ann E. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Deen, of Baltimore, spent Labor Day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Deen, at Fowling Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Cox and little son, of Hyattsville, Md., visited Mrs. J. A. Cox over the week end.

Mrs. Clara Payne and daughters, Rachel and Patty spent several days in Baltimore last week. From Baltimore Miss Payne went to Hampton, N. J., where she will teach in the high school.

Mrs. A. K. Wrightson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Sowling, in Washington.

Mr. Edgar Wrightson, of Baltimore, spent the week end at his home in town.

Mr. Robert Downes, a student of the Naval Academy in Annapolis, spent several days with Mrs. H. B. Wright.

Mr. Irvin Fooks, who has been spending the summer months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Fooks, has returned to West Point, where he is a student.

Miss Lillian Cox has returned from an extended trip in the New England States.

Mrs. George Twilley and daughter, Mary, of Cambridge, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Twilley.

Mr. Carroll Dalton, of Baltimore, visited Mr. Calvin Twilley last week.

Miss Lois Therman, of Baltimore, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schmick.

Mrs. Theodore Fletcher and son, are spending the week in Ocean City.

Miss Hilda Covey, of Federalsburg, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Garris last week.

Mr. George Chambers, of High Point, N. C., is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Max Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burlingham, of Providence, R. I., visited Mr. and Mrs. Wright last week.

Miss Louise Wright spent the week end at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Noble and family, of Quantico, Pa., visited Mrs. H. B. Wright last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Wright entertained Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Garrison, of Baltimore, last week.

Mr. Will Tufft, who was operated upon at the Church Home and Infirmary in Baltimore, last Thursday, is reported improving.

Miss Addie Mae Dowell, of Washington, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. H. F. Whiteley.

Miss Bertha Shull, of Greensboro, and Miss Mabel Owens, of Baltimore, have been visiting Miss Nellie Harris.

Miss Mamie Gallagher has returned to Philadelphia after visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Joseph L. Gallagher.

Mrs. Ruth H. Dowding visited friends in New York City last week.

Miss Inez Noble left Monday for Haddon Heights, N. J., where she will teach in the high school.

Miss Mary Richardson, of Claiborne, spent last week with Miss Nina Wrightson.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Whiteley, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Fluharty and Mrs. Celia Kelley attended the funeral of their nephew, Mr. Henry Barrow, in Baltimore last Monday.

Miss Sarah B. Reynolds, of Washington, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Reynolds.

TIMELY TALKS

* * *

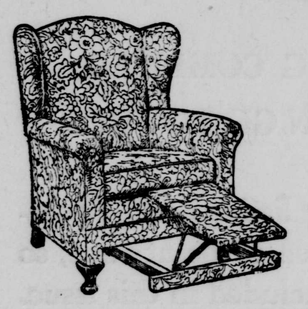

PREPAREDNESS

Anticipating an unprecedented demand this fall for women's ready-made apparel, this store's buyers—the proprietor and two leading saleswomen in the women's wear department—are this week in New York City selecting not merely the NEWEST OF FROCKS and COATS for winter wear, but the BEST adaptations of the mode. It is unusual for a store of this size to send three buyers at one time, yet so enlarged is our trade, so discriminating in tatse are the women we serve, that in order to assure our patrons of the REALLY GOOD IN STYLES, IN TASTE, IN VARIETY, we deemed it best to use the combined efforts of three experienced buyers.

Therefore, when we announce in a short while that our women's ready-to-wear department is ready to serve you with large, complete stocks, you may feel assured they have been personally selected by those who are qualified to choose the best that the wholesalers have to offer.

NEW STYLE, GOOD TASTE AND REASONABLE PRICES are outstanding features of the COATS AND DRESSES offered by

LONG & SHORT'S
FEDERALSBURG

Be sure you get an EASY CHAIR this fall. Itwill be a great pleasure and comfort during the long winter months.

Wing Back, disappearing foot rests, reclining Back—All sounds good, doesn't it? Come in and look them over.

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

Mrs. Ida Hollingsworth

ANNOUNCES

Her stock of Fall and Winter Millinery is complete.

Original Model Trimmed Hats and Millinery Merchandise will be shown on and after September 11th.

The Trade is Cordially Invited

4th ANNUAL CARNIVAL

Denton Volunteer Fire Co.

September 10th to 19th

Fireman's Day, Thursday, Sept. 10th

Fire Companies From All Neighboring Towns With Apparatus and Bands

FERRIS WHEEL

For the first time in the history of Caroline county, a Ferris Wheel will be in operation. It will be found on the Carnival grounds at Denton. Be sure to take a ride on it.

There will also be a Merry-Go-Round as in former years. Both amusements will be running several days before the carnival opens.

DON'T FORGET YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS

Every Day A Big Day

A TWO DAY SALE

Women's and Children's Fall and Winter

COATS

Dresses and Millinery AT

FEDERALSBURG'S WOMENS SHOP

TWO DAYS ONLY AT THESE PRICES

Sat. Sept. 12-Mon. Sept. 14

QUALITY AT THESE PRICES TELL THE STORY

200 COATS—ANY SIZE

WOMEN'S COATS—NEW COLORS

$5.95 $7.95 $9.75 $10.75

MISSES COATS, Sizes 10 to 14 at $5.75-$7.75

CHILD'S COATS, Sizes 3 to 9 at $3.75-$5.75

A lucky purchase of these fine Coats allows us to give every one an unusual opportunity to save on good Coats, just at the start of the new Fall Season. For no other reason than we want to get a quick turnover on our investment, are we placing these on sale at this time.

THE WOMENS SHOP

FEDERALSBURG, MD.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3548-0288.jpg