MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

TEN COMMANDMENTS
For Attendants of Any Church

1. Thou shalt not come to service late; nor for the Amen, refuse to wait.
2. Thy noisy tongue thou shalt restrain, when speaks the organ it's refrain.
3. But when the hymns are sounded out, thou shalt lift up thy voice and shout.
4. The endmost seat thou shalt leave free, for more must share the pew with thee.
5. The offering plate thou shalt not fear, but give thine uttermost with cheer.
6. Thou shalt this periodical peruse, and look for all the church's news.
7. Thou shalt the minister heed, nor blame him when thou art disagreed.
8. Unto thy neighbor thou shalt bend, and if a stranger, make a friend.
9. Thou shalt in every way be kind, compassionate, of tender mind.
10. And so, by thy spirit's grace, thou shalt show God within this place.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Hugh Craft Brown, Seaford, one of the oldest citizens of lower Delaware, celebrated his 91st birthday anniversary last Saturday. Up until a few weeks ago Mr. Brown has been enjoying good health. Recent illness has reduced him in weight about 35 pounds, but he is still able to get around without the use of a cane and reads the daily paper without the use of glasses. Mr. Brown spent part of his birthday anniversary at Federalsburg where he owns property. While there he visited his nephews, J. Fred and Jacob Brown.

Wicomico sweet potatoes will be more plenteous this year than in either 1924 or 1923 in the opinion of buyers and raisers and may equal in quantity of production the "bumper" crop of 1922 when all of the local storage houses were filled to their capacity with the vegetables.

Digging in that county was started about August 10th, and during the remainder of the month 30 cars, or three times as many as last season during the same period, were shipped from West Main street where 90 per cent of the "sweets" rolling from Wicomico are manifested. Veteran buyers say it was the heaviest August shipment ever recorded here.

The splendid price of $2.00 per bushel was paid to the growers whose product was first on the market. The prices steadily declined until the $1.00 mark was reached after which they toned up a bit.

Georgetown, Del., Sept. 11—Who has the legal right to administer on the estate of the late Joseph James Carey, reputed wealthy farmer, who on July 17 was murdered near Whaleyville, Md., is the question now being thrashed out before Register of Wills, Isaac E. Jones.

Forty witnesses have been called. The battle is for the right to administer on the estate valued at $20,000; whether or not Carey was a resident of Maryland or Delaware, and whether or not Mrs. Mamie H. Baker, a daughter, who claims the right of settling the estate, is the one entitled to do so.

Automobile thieves continue to operate unmolested in Seaford, notwithstanding the vigilance of the authorities. Early last Friday morning they forced an entrance into the garage of Morriss Brothers, in North Seaford and stole a new car from Edgar Morris. The car, a Ford runabout, was purchased by Mr. Morris only a few days ago and he had placed $100 worth of equipment on his machine. The car was stolen between 1 o'clock and the morning, as Mr. Morris did not put his car in the garage until after 1 o'clock. This is the fourth car stolen in Seaford within the past few weeks, and the seventh garage to be entered.

Seaford, Del., Sept. 11—Tomatoes dropped to 4 cents per basket in the Seaford market today, and in some instances the growers gave the tomatoes to the canners, only asking for their baskets back.

The canners are running their plants night and day, but are unable to keep up with picking, it being so large.

The contract price is 30 cents and the canners have to take care of what they have contracted.

It is thought there will be many hundreds of baskets dumped. The acreage this year is three times grearter than ever.

The contracts for the annex to the State House, Dover, having been signed at a meeting of the annex commission in Wilmington, Tuesday, the formal breaking of ground for the new building took place at 1 Wednesday afternoon in the rear of the State House, the main feature of the exercise being the turning of the sod by Governor Robert P. Robinson.

With Governor Robinson at the time of his putting the shovel in the ground were Secretary of State William G. Taylor, Arley B. Magee, both members of the annex commission, and the architects, Messrs. Brown and Whiteside, of Wilmington. Several of the State House employees also witnessed the turning of the sod.

Dover, Sept. 5—Cleaveland Justice, aged about 38 years, employed as a resident engineer on construction by the State Highway Department, was instantly killed this morning when a north bound passenger train on the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad struck the automobile in which he was riding as he attempted to cross the tracks at Saxon's crossing which is a short distance south of Wyoming.

He was driving a Ford coupe and was riding alone at the time. The machine was completely demolished. The wheels of the train passed over the body, which, when picked up, was found to be horribly mangled. An arm and a leg were cut off, the top of his head was crushed and the body was otherwise cut up. It was evident Mr. Justice had died instantly. The body was brought to the Wyoming station on the train that killed him and later was removed to his home in Dover.

At the regular monthly meeting of the "Second Alarmers," an organization for the purpose of taking care of financial problems of the Good Will Fire Company, Centreville, it was decided to hold an indoor carnival sometime around the middle of November.

Seaford, Del., Sept. 5—While standing guard over a still in operation with a shot gun in the woods a short distance from here, Al Williams, negro locally known as "Shotgun William," was captured this afternoon after Federal prohibition agents and members of the State highway police had surrounded his camp in a thicket and attacked him from all sides. Two of them leaped upon his back while the others rushed at him from the front and knocked the shot gun from his hands.

Two other men, who are said to have been with him, ran when they caught sight of the officers, but Williams stood his ground and would probably have made serious trouble if it had not been for the sudden attack of James and Knox. One of the men is said to have kicked over a container of alleged liquor before he ran.

Hemsley Wright, of Queen Anne county, was arrested last Sunday after noon at Ridgely, while on a drunken rampage. It is said he visited the Baltimore help at the Swing Brothers' canning house, who occupy headquarters at the Armor Plant and drank a good deal of liquor, and made every effort to break up the camp. He displayed his pistol and threatened lives of several members of his race. The revolver was finally taken from him, but he later obtained a shot gun which was said to have been not loaded.

The negro became so enraged that he ran colored women in all direction. One woman was kicked in the abdomen, and is said to have been badly injured. Sheriff Temple, of Denton, arrested the man, and at the hearing last Monday he was sentenced to one year in the Maryland House of Correction by Justice Wilkinson, of Ridgely. He was also fined for being drunk and disorderly.

To Parents

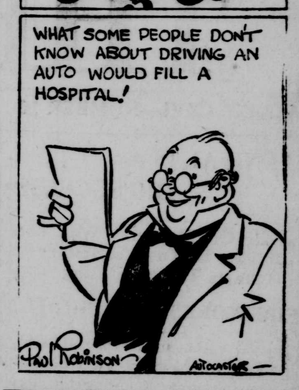

If there is any doubt in your mind regarding the perfect vision of your child you should take immediate action for a thorough and complete examination.

You do your child an injustice in starting a long school term when vision is impaired. It is a handicap for the child. If you expect your child to bring home a good card every month—then give that child an equal chance.

Quite often a slight defect in vision can be overcome by taking a step in time. If in doubt—bring in your child this week for an examination. If glasses are not needed, we will be happy to tell you so.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years.

Is your boy's eyesight normal?

Bob's parents knew the tremendous importance of normal eyesight to children. So they had Bob's eyes examined. The slight defect revealed was corrected easily (and in time), by the eyeglasses prescribed.

Hence Bob's quick answer—his better report cards.

Wellsworth Windsor spectacles are sturdy and good looking.
