Personalographs

Miss Mildred Collison was an Ocean City visitor Sunday.

Little Miss Marie Kitchen has returned from Chester, Pa.

Mrs. H. E. Ramsdell was a recent guest of relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Maude Stewart, of Baltimore, spent the week end with her parents.

Mr. Joseph Swartz left Thursday for Blue Ridge College at New Windsor.

Mrs. Joseph Larmore was the guest of her son Carroll Larmore Wednesday.

Mrs. Ralph Cover of Baltimore is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Fisher.

Mrs. Kelple Barnett of Queen Anne is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Anderson.

Miss Margaret Cooper of Wilmington, was with West Denton relatives over the week end.

Mrs. J. F. Swartz and son Wilson have returned from a three weeks' visit at New Windsor.

Miss Sadie Layton of Blue Ridge Summit was a week end guest of her cousin, Miss Pearl Taylor.

Mr. Ted Norris left Wednesday afternoon for Chestertown where he will attend Washington College.

Miss Elsie Tribbitt has returned to her work at Swarthmore, Pa., after spending some time with her parents.

The Misses Addie Nuttle, Esther Kauffman, and Mr. Phillip Nuttle left this morning for Washington College.

Miss Katherine Wright returned on Sunday from Braddock Heights where she spent the summer with Mrs. McCreery.

Mrs. R. C. Tell, of Doylestown, Pa., gave a miscellaneous shower for her cousin, Mrs. Laurent Redfield, Monday evening.

The new manual training teacher, Mr. Smith, and family are occupying the home of the Rev. Mr. Smoot, on 2d street.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sullivane and Miss Clara Meredith were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Finley of Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Baxter of Chestertown is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. John Emerson and attended the carnival Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Woodrow, of Canada, is spending some time with the former's brother, Mr. John Woodrow in West Denton.

Mr. Alphonso Dunham and family and Mr. Jay Kitchen and family of Marcus Hook, spent Saturday and Sunday, in West Denton.

The Misses Adeline and Louise Fisher will return this evening after attending a conference of chautauqua workers at Swarthmore, Pa.

Mr. T. Alan Goldsborough, Jr., left Wednesday to enter the Episcopalian school at Alexandria, Vat, and his smiling face will surely be missed.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Frank Stewart of New York, were guests of their sister, Mrs. Ida S. Hollingsworth Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Finley of Philadelphia were guests last week of relatives in town. On their return they were accompanied by little Miss Bettie Sullivane.

Miss Myra Ramsdell, of Guilford, Conn., attended a nurses' reunion in Long Branch, N. J., last week. Later she spent several days in Doylestown, Pa., as the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. C. Tell.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Murphy, of Newark, Del., are receiving congraulations on the birth of a baby boy at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, last Saturday morning.

Miss Mary Redden has gone to Baltimore to continue her studies at the Johns Hopkins University. Her sister, Mrs. William Denny will also attend the same college and expects to leave the first of next week.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Dudley, of Baltimore, are rejoicing over the arrival last Saturday of an 8 pound baby boy. Mother and child are reported as doing nicely. Mr. Dudley was formerly pastor of the Denton M. P. Church.

Mrs. Bessie Hubbard and Mr. Thomas Pollard, both of Denton, were quietly married at the Mission parsonage by the Rev. Lewis Adams Thursday of last week. They spent some time with relatives in New Jersey, returning on Wednesday.

The Rev. J. A. Dudley, who was formerly pastor of the Denton M P. Church, but who moved to Alexandria, Va., in April, 1924, has been transferred to Eutaw M. P. Church, Baltimore. He moved to Baltimore this week and will take charge of his new church this Sunday.

Miss Louise Fisher will leave Monday for New Hampshire where she will engage in chautaqua work as junior superintendent for the fall work of the Swarthmore Chautauqua. Miss Adeline Fisher will leave about the middle of the week for the same state and will be chautauqua superintendent this season.

Our generous merchant, Mr. Keating of the 5c to $1.00 Store will treat all the children to a merry-go-round ride on Friday evening. "Make the kiddies happy" seems to be Mr. Keating's slogan. When the ride is over, don't forget three cheers and a rising big tiger for Mr. Keating. Many thanks also from the Firemen!

HOBBS

Mrs. C. Elwood Bright was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Benton, near Harmony, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hurlock and children visited Hurlock friends, Sunday last.

Mr. Clinton Williamson and daughter, Mary, were the guests of Mrs. Joseph Raymond, Easton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Billings, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Chester Moore, of Newark, Del., were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Sunday.

Mr. J. R. Starkey and Mr. Lee Collins and son William, of Salisbury, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill visited relatives in Friendship, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roe and children, of near Preston, and Misses Margaret and Louise Roe, of Denton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jopp entertained Miss Addie Brownie, Messrs. Leonard Yost, Edward Kreimer and Henry Ruppersburger, of Baltimore, part of last week.

Mr. Bertrum Gelston, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rickards last week, returned to his home in Washington, Monday.

A coincident carrying a moral, was the suspending of "Babe" Ruth from baseball and a fine of $5,000 for failure to observe training rules—the same week in which Detroit citizens staged a great celebration for Ty Cobb, marking his 20 years there—the greatest player the game has ever produced. Presents and cash amounting to $10,000 were showered upon him

Mr. and Mrs. Rickards and Mrs. O. J. Chaffinch spent Tuesday in Bridgeville with relatives and friends.

HILLSBORO

Mr. Daniel L. Stewart, of Philadelphia, who has been a recent guest of Mr. W. B. Sparks, has returned to his home.

Miss Roberta Rowe, left Monday morning for Western Maryland College. Misses Francis Fisher and Katherine Jarrell will leave in a few days for the same school.

Mr. Cornelius Taylor and Miss Dorothy Knotts will enter Washington College Thursday.

Mr. Francis Beaven left Monday to take up his duties as teacher in the Hurlock high school.

Mrs. John Sharp is still seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Russum have returned to their home in Baltimore after a visit with Mr. Russum's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cahall.

Mrs. W. P. Taylor and son Cornelius have returned home from a visit with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sparks and Mr. Daniel L. Stewart were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher Sparks, of Sudlersville, on Sunday.

TIMELY TALKS

• • •

PREPAREDNESS

Anticipating an unprecedented demand this fall for women's ready-made apparel, this store's buyers—the proprietor and two leading saleswomen in the women's wear department—are this week in New York City selecting not merely the NEWEST OF FROCKS and COATS for winter wear, but the BEST adaptations of the mode. It is unusual for a store of this size to send three buyers at one time, yet so enlarged is our trade, so discriminating in tatse are the women we serve, that in order to assure our patrons of the REALLY GOOD IN STYLES, IN TASTE, IN VARIETY, we deemed it best to use the combined efforts of three experienced buyers.

Therefore, when we announce in a short while that our women's ready-to-wear department is ready to serve you with large, complete stocks, you may feel assured they have been personally selected by those who are qualified to choose the best that the wholesalers have to offer.

NEW STYLE, GOOD TASTE AND REASONABLE PRICES are outstanding features of the COATS AND DRESSES offered by

LONG & SHORT'S
FEDERALSBURG

last week.

Miss Louise Fleming entertained Miss Dorothy Beaumont last week. Miss Fleming left on Sunday to take up her school work at Bladensburg on Monday.

Mrs. Mary E. Diggans delightfully entertained the Ladies Aid Society on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Wilmer Brashears and little daughter left on Monday for their home in St. Augustine, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Olin Hunter and little son and Miss Dora Morris, of Centreville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Covell Sunday.

BURRSVILLE

Mr. Hebron Outten

Mr. Hebron Outten, the oldest citizen of this village died at his home on Monday evening, September 7, after an illness of a few days. His funeral was held at Wesley M. E. church on Thursday morning, Rev. E. N. Wright officiating. Interment was made in Wesley cemetery.

Mr. Fred Parker has erected a cannery on his farm, near here, and is operating same.

Mrs. A. T. Garrett and two sons, Robert and Crawford, visited Mrs. Garrett's sister, Mrs. Walter Meyers, and family at Millington, Sunday.

The cannery here is running on full time, with hundreds of baskets of fruit in the yard.

TUCKAHOE NECK

Rev. and Mrs. Marshall visited Mr. Philip Downes and family on Sunday.

Mrs. Covington will lead the Christian Endeavor next Sunday night at 7:30.

Mrs. Frank Rickards and Mrs. Ralph Meredith entertained the Ladies' Mite Society at the hall last week.

Mr. James Kelly and family visited Mrs. Jessie Whitby and family Sunday

Mr. Clayton Roe and wife and Mr. Raymond Fifield and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Clark on Sunday.

School opened Monday with a happy bunch of children from this section.

Rally Day service will be held at Thawley's on Sunday, September 27th at 10:30 a. m.

QUEEN ANNE

Rev. J. Herndon Billingsley, of Trinity M. E. Church, South, Easton, delivered a strong sermon in St. Paul's Church Monday night and will preach every night, except Saturday. Mr. Louis Carroll accompanied Mr. Billingsley and sang several selections. He will sing at the Sunday night service at 7.30. These services are expected to continue next week.

Miss Mary Morgan and Mr. C. C. Wilson of Cordova, were married Saturday in Easton.

Mrs. J. E. Morgan returned Monday from a visit to her daughter in Hebron.

Mrs. Finch and Miss Florence returned from Baltimore where they were visiting. Miss Elowise returned to Towson Normal.

Miss Catherine Skinner left Monday for Towson Normal.

Miss Grace Colline has returned from her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner, who have been visiting friends in Delaware, are at home.

"The Gospel"

Bessie M. Randell, 22, of Ft. Worth, Tex., grew tired of "the pace" and was converted. At Santa Anna, Calif., she organized and built a church — and took to the pulpit. So great was her success that now she is on world tour as an evangelist.

The Easton Canning Co. put up a very large corn pack. This factory was formerly owned by Stewart and Jarrell.

PRESTON

Mr. Louis Brightman, of Washington, spent the week end at the home of Mrs. J. A. Cox.

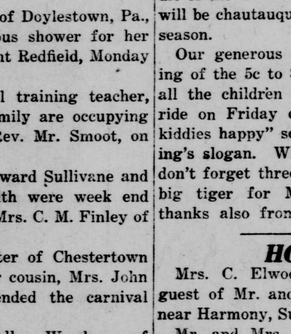

Miss Iris Messick, of Tyaskin, Md., Mr. Frank Wilkens, of Cape Charles, is occupying the barber shop recently vacated by Mr. Roland Fluharty. Mr. Fluharty is working in Centreville.

GET YOUR TRESSPASS NOTICES AT THIS OFFICE

Wreck of the Shenandoah

Above, a nose view of the ill-fated Shenandoah, in the field where it fell near Ava, Ohio. This picture was taken after souvenir hunters had almost stripped the craft. Only a great mass of twisted steel remains of America's "Queen of the Air." • Below—fourteen bodies of those who died in the crash.

SLEEP THE IDEAL WAY

Spend the important third of your life comfortably. When you sleep on a Foster Ideal Spring you get up in the morning rested and refreshed because there is no sagging and each coil fits each curve of you body.

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

Advance Showing

WOMEN'S AND MISSES

WINTER COATS

At The Womens Shop

FEDERALSBURG, MD.

Anticipating the desire of those wishing to purchase their winter coats early in the season, we have arranged this advanced showing of smart cloth coats—forerunners of the coming season. Many are exact reproductions of coats that will sell for almost double the price we have marked them.

Fashioned of the most beautiful materials, only the new and accepted style features are included. Many of the coats have fur trimming—of the very best quality—collars, cuffs, or scarfs that may be worn in any number of attractive ways. Others are simply tailored—their charm depending, wisely, upon the exquisite details and perfect workmanship. $15.75 to $49.50.

Due to the excessive heat Saturday and Monday, we have decided to continue the sale of WINTER COATS as advertised last week until Wednesday, September 23d. These are all wonderful values, prices from $4.95 to $15.75.

THE WOMEN'S SHOP
Federalsburg, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3548-0296.jpg