[illegible] considerac[illegible] before that time by the said James paid and delivered to the said Henry at his request the sum of [illegible] in the sum of [illegible] pounds good & lawfull money of England according to the effect of [illegible] and delivered into the said James the three bills of Exchange that is to say the first second & third all of one tenor and date with the hand of the said Henry subscribed and to Mr Samuell Gerrard merch.
[illegible] in the first & second bills the said Henry did require the said Samuell Gerrard to pay unto James Remnd or order the sum of Eleven pounds of good & lawfull money of England at three days sight of the said first bill of Ex. the second & third of the same tenor & date not being paid in the space of the said bills the said Henry did require by said Samuell Gerrard to pay unto James Remnd or order the sum of Eleven pounds good & lawfull money of England at three days sight of the said second bill of Ex. the first & second of the same tenor & date not being paid the said Henry afterwards the day and year aforesaid in the said action of the present bill did assume upon himself & to the said James Henry Clerk faithfully promise that if the said Samuell the said bill of Ex. or any one of them did not accept and pay to the said James or his order according to the tenor of the said bills that then the said Henry would after sight and of the said three days in the said bill mentioned & should be thereunto requested the said [illegible] the sum of Eleven pounds sterling to the said James Remnd & will & truly content and pay did the said James in the said sight that afterwards that is to say the 27 day of October anno 1693 at London or aforesaid the said James by his order & appointment did then & there offer unto the said Samuell Gerrard the first of the said bills the second & third not being paid & then there to require the said Samuell Gerrard to accept & pay the said James according to the tenor & effect of the said Samuell Gerrard the said bills of Ex. to him tendred & thereof to accept & pay according to the tenor & effect of did then & there absolutely refuse & deny wherupon the said James Remnd the said bills of Ex. for dishonoured & refused afterwards the day & place aforesaid in presence of Thomas Lawrence Notary & Scrivener public dwelling in London in due form of law according to the use of Merchants did protest & by the same protest declare ready ready in Court to be produced, more at large may appear and afterwards that is to say on the 27 day of February in the year of our Lord 1693 being after the end of the said three days of the same to the said Henry Gerrard did give notice that the said bills of Ex. were refused & not accepted or paid by the said Samuell Gerrard according to the contents thereof and thereon in that manner according to the [illegible] of Merchants protest & that the said Henry had promised & assumed upon & concerning the premises according & fraudulently intending thereby the said James to defraud in that behalf unlawfully & subtilly to deprive & defraud the said James of Eleven pounds or any part thereof to the said James & that notwithstanding after the said Henry to the said James by the said James & the said & plaintiff has [illegible] & required that the said bills to be refused & the said refusal to the said [illegible] may appear of the said James of 20 s. sterling and the said refusal being [illegible] the said [illegible] NOW there at this day to wit the fourteenth day of October in the eighth year of the reign of King Charles William the third [illegible] the said James [illegible] by his Attorney by James that the said Attorney his wife came and says he cannot gainsay the [illegible] of the said brought against for that the said sum [illegible] offered in right the said by the said Henry to the said James in manner & form [illegible] [illegible] it is considered by the Court here that the said James [illegible] against the said Henry Milbrook [illegible] the sum of Eleven pounds sterling [illegible] in the said bills of Ex. mentioned & two pounds sterling damages upon the protest aforesaid according to the [illegible] the sum of six hundred [illegible] pounds of tobacco cost of suit and the defendant may go [illegible]

Richard Marsham
agt
Robert Perry

Maryland:
Robert Pe[illegible] late of Summerset County otherwise called Robert [illegible] appeared of Summerset County Merchant and [illegible] unto the said Marsham [illegible] plaintiff that he render unto him the just & [illegible] quantity of three thousand five hundred [illegible] pounds of good & merchantable way well [illegible] pork & [illegible] to be delivered [illegible] yearly [illegible] and whereupon the said Richard by William [illegible] his Attorney saith that the said Robert [illegible] the 2d day of November in the year aforesaid Anno Domini 1687 at Calvert County by his certain bill or writing obligatory acknowledged himself to be bound to the said Richard at the aforesaid dwelling house in the said [illegible]