BLANKET TIME

Could anything be more welcome this time of year than soft cosy, warm blankets for your bed? For Comfort, Beauty and Utility, the are best. Their double weave construction with air spaces between insures greater warmth without excessive weight, than does the usual single strand weave, and, too, it greatly increases the wearing qualities. The beauty of coloring and design of these nationally advertised blankets are generally recognized as unusual. They look so lovely in their soft, woolly finish and in such pretty, dainty colors—Rose, Blue, Gray, Tan, Gold, Lavendar—plain with borders, plaid, striped, in floral designs as well as in nursery animal designs, for the tots. The Indian and Sports Blankets, sturdy in their heavy weave and in gay and glowing colors, are very popular for general utility, for out-of-doors, for sleeping porches or motor rugs. AND THE CROWNING JOY IN ALL THESE BLANKETS IS THAT THEY WASH PERFECTLY AND EASILY!

You should see in our window the interesting demonstration of the making of an Esmond Blanket, from start to finish, then see our lovely array of these service-giving blankets awaiting you.

Yours for Comfortable sleeping,
