TOWN & COUNTY
Personalographs

Miss Martha Beck is on the sick list again.

Mr. Charles Porter spent Thursday in Elkton.

Mr. Nelson Trice was on the sick list last week.

Mr. L. Strong spent Sunday at his home in Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Butler spent Tuesday evening at Dover.

Miss Gladys Adler of Cambridge is visiting Miss Grace Hubbard.

Miss Bessie Spafford spent Saturday and Sunday in Wilmington.

Miss Carlotta Kinnamon spent the week end at her home in Easton.

Miss Eleanor Willis spent the week end at her home in Church Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cawley spent Sunday motoring through Virginia.

Mr. Louis Knotts of Washington visited his family here last week.

Mr. Joseph Gilbert of Harrington is now manager of the A. & P. store.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Brown, Jr. spent Sunday with Mrs. Sallie Covey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Steele of Washington, were visitors in Denton Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Ellwanger of Baltimore is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sallie Covey.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley spent last week end in Salisbury and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Greaves and family spent Sunday afternoon in Centreville.

Miss Mary Deweese of Montrose, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owens over the week end.

Dr. C. A. Whisler is in Washington attending the Middle States Osteopathic convention.

Miss Lottie Fletcher of Laurel, Del. visited Miss Martha Beck the latter part of last week.

Miss Willifred Deweese of Philadelphia spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Owens.

Mr. and Mrs.Edward Nuttle of Federalsburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Nuttle.

Mrs. Nellie R. Stephens of Baltimore is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brittingham and family spent Sunday in Lewes, Del., visiting relaitves.

Mr. and Mrs. Boone Beauchamp and Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Hooker were Baltimore visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cawley of Scranton, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cawley last week.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. W. O. Lednum, who has been on the sick list, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Darby of Farnhurst, Del., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walston and children, Emory and Blanche, were Hurlock visitors Monday evening.

150 bushels Western Rye, suitable for seeding, $1.50 bushel. Phone 97, Nuttle Milling Co., Denton, Md. ad

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blake and the Misses Esther Dunham and Florence Morgan were Easton visitors Sunday.

Mr. Samuel Nowell began the erection of a new home for Mr. Austin R. Murphy Wednesday on Fifth avenue.

Miss Rosella Cohee of Marcus Hook spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cohee, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Eaton and daughter Marie spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Cannon in Tuckahoe Neck.

Miss Mary V. Redden and Mrs. Jane R. Denny of Baltimore spent the week end with their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Redden.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nichols of Worton and Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols of Greensboro visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Colgain Sunday.

Mrs. Lottie Satterfield and Miss Elsie Tribbett of Swarthmore spent a few days recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edden Tribbett.

Mr. Walter Rutter spent the week end in Washington and Baltimore visiting his son, Mr. John Rutter, and his daughter, Miss Grace Rutter.

Mrs. W. W. Newcomer and son left Saturday for their home in Burbank, Ca. Mrs. Willoughby Nowell accompanied them as far as Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley E. Thawley and family and Miss Louise Gray spent Sunday with Miss Gray's brother, Mr. Robert Gray, of Goldsboro.

Mr. Bateman Draper of Baltimore was in Denton the fore part of this week on account of the illness and death of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Downes.

Hon. T. Alan Goldsborough was in Ocean City Tuesday, when he was one of the committee to present the proposed site for a permanent camp for the State Guard to Gen. Milton A. Reckord.

Mrs. Joseph Parker of Bridgeville and Mr. and Mrs. William Parker of Federalsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Cooper of Denton were entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rue motored to Wilmington Monday afternoon to attend the dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce in honor of the editors of the Wilmington trade territory They returned Tuesday afternoon.

The following attended a teacher training class at Chestertown Tuesday evening: Mrs. Emily Swiss, Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Wheatley, Mrs. Howard Sullivan, Mr. William Norris, Mr. S. G. Bye, Mr. Ferdinand Baynard, Miss Myrtle Dukes and Hrs. Alda Whitby.

Mrs. Fred Towns had the misfortune to fall down the stairway at her home in West Denton Saturday night and break her collarbone. At this writing she is not much improved. Her daughter, Mrs. Leroy Longfellow, of Galestown, is with her.

RIDGELY

The program for the anniversary social held in the church house by the finance committee included the singing of America, prayer by pastor, a duet, "Whispering Hope," by Misses Leona and Nellie Jackson, with Miss Margaret Swing as accompanist, recitation "What Makes a Home," by Miss Irma Nichols; History of the Church House, written by Miss Elsie Matthews. Cocoa and cakes were served. Mrs. T. W. Smith was chairman of this committee.

Mrs. George Fitz is spending the week with her relatives at Waynesboro Pa.

Mrs. Harry Fink and two daughters of Linkwood have been visiting her father, Mr. Daniel Ritchey.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Baker and two daughters of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Breeding while in Ridgely.

Mr. Carlton Lord, who has been playing ball in South Carolina, has been visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrson Holsinger and son, Paul, motored to Baltimore Mrs. Holsinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, who had been making a visit at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smith have returned from a visit with their daughters, Mrs. George Dutton, Newark, and Mrs. Walter Carmine, of Dundalk, Md.

Mr. J. F. Elliott has purchased from Mrs. Emma Jackson a house on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flounders motored to Baltimore and Hagerstown this week.

At the health clinic held in Ridgely last Friday afternoon, 22 children were examined by Dr. Wells of Baltimore.

The recent violent wind storm that visited this section lifted most of the roof from the barn of Mr. J. A. Mitchell.

Mrs. Henry Wilkinson went to Philadelphia this week and took her little niece Irene Burton, who has been with her several weeks, to her home.

The congregation of the Methodist church has donated and packed two barrels of vegetables and canned goods one of which was sent to the Methodist hospital, Philadelphia, and the other to the Deaconess Home in Wilmington.

Mrs. James Wright Garton, of Denton, was a guest of Mrs. H. L. Holsinger last Thursday.

Mrs. Emerson and son, Wilmer, of Baltimore, are visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Alice Bennington. Mrs. Bennington motored, with her guests, to Chincoteague for a week end visit.

Mr .and Mrs. August Koeneman, daughter, Miss Emily, and son, Fred, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Koeneman attended the funeral of their son and brother, Harry Koeneman in Philadelphia last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Swing and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Swing mootred to Niagara Falls last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Holsinger, Mrs. Frances Pennington and Mr. and Mrs. Houston Pennington motored to Wilmington Sunday to visit Miss Lydia Pennington.

Rev. George Fitz is conducting a series of lectures in the Reformed church, Friday evening of each week on Bible, Missions and Church History

Mr. Lewis, of New York, was a visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Burton Wilkinson, last week.

Mr. Harvey Holsinger made a business trip to Philadelphia Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Frank Taylor is at home again after a visit with her mother at Clarksville.

Rev. L. S. Matthews is improving his residence with fresh paint.

Mrs. C. W. Jackson has returned from a few days' stay with relatives in Greensboro.

Mr. Fred H. Flounders, Jr., an instructor in the McDonough School of near Baltimore, was at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Flounders, for the week end.

Mr. Valentine Mancha, from San Francisco, is visiting at the home of his cousin, Mrs. J. H. Hemmons.

Mrs. Alice Bennington, Mrs. Lee Bennington and daughter Alice, lately visited Mr. Lee Bennington in Washington.

Prizes awarded last spring by the Community Club for the best gardens grown by children of the fifth and the sixth grades have been awarded as follows: First prize, for vegetable garden to Charles White; second, to Caroline Ebling; third to Naomi Lynch prize for flower garden, Allan Temple. The awarding committee was Miss Elsie Matthews and Mrs. Harvey Sewell.

Mrs. Elmer Cole has been spending a few days in Baltimore.

Mrs. Thompson Swing and Miss Elthe Federation executive board held in Denton last week.

Mr .and Mrs. William Snyder and two grandsons of Allentown, Pa., have been visiting at the homes of Messrs. James and Frank Simons.

Mr. Frank Matthews of Linwood Heights has been visiting at the home of his father, Rev. L. S. Matthews.

Mrs. George Fitz has been elected secretary of the Community Club to succeed Mrs. Paul Sewell, resigned.

The card parties held for the benefit of the high school janitor have been very successful and well attended

Mrs. Ruth Perry is again in her place at the post office after a visit with Baltimore friends.

Mrs. Harry Wood and daughter, Miss Grace, and Mrs. John Hammer were entertained lately at the home of Mr. William Dulin and family, Cordova.

Mr. James P. Swing, who has been operating a factory at Price, has returned home.

Miss Elizabeth Fleckenstein and [illegible]ge, have secured positions in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long have been entertaining his parents and brother, Mr. Max Long and wife, of Selbyville.

The L. T. S., a society of children in the community, directed by Mrs. Providence Richardson and Mrs. F. B. Barton, held a picnic Saturday afternoon.

Mr. H. M. Morgan of the Jump Hard ware Company has been confined to his home for several days but is much improved.

Mrs. Kirk of Baltimore met with the Woman's Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. J. E. Morgan. Mrs. Kirk is the district secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Mr. Turner, our popular station agent, has been indisposed for several days.

Dr. J. Howard Wells will preach at Harris Chapel this Sunday at 3 p. m. and hold the third quarterly conference.

Rev. C. R. Curtis preached at Harris chapel last week and will preach every night this present week except Saturday.

been entertaining their daughter and son-in-law.

Miss Ida May Seed has been ill for several days but is improving.

Mrs. Jennie Moore has been the guest of Mrs. Charles Dean.

There was no service in St. Paul's Church Sunday night on account of the pastor holding revival services at Harris Chapel. The services will be as usual next Sunday.

Mr. William Stevens and friend spent the week end in New York, and the previous week end in Atlantic City

Sam Sned, John Emory and Charles Covey spent Sunday in town.

Prof. Bordner of Tri-County High spent the week end in Baltimore.

Sermon for Children

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. Arnold will again give an object sermon especially for children. He promises, however, that it shall have a mesage for older folks as well. Come and hear it.

TIMELY TALKS

* * *

FLOOR COVERINGS and FURNITURE

Time again to clean house and—what is quite as important—make it fresh, cosy and attractive for the approaching winter. That means floor coverings, curtains, draperies and furniture must be right. One or more rooms may need a new rug or perhaps a new linoleum is needed. We have a variety of floor coverings, with new additions to stock constantly, so it is always interesting to make a visit to our second floor where everything for furnishing a home is awaiting you.

OUR FURNITURE FOR EVERY ROOM IN THE HOUSE draws customers from a large area, who invariably return when in need of these things. They have found from experience that they cannot do better elsewhere. You, too, will find, no matter what your house may need, that homes may be artistically as well as reasonably furnished at

LONG & SHORT'S
FEDERALSBURG

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

☞Representative wanted at once to sell lingerie and hosiery in Caroline county. $25 to $35 weekly. Mrs. Geo. H. Rook, Hurlock, Md. ad

SPECIAL SALE
PART WOOL BLANKETS
$3.95
Tuesday, Oct. 27 ONLY

We are offering these Splendid Blankets which are for a full size double bed on

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27TH ONLY, at $3.95

These Blankets are Part Wool, the popular Plaids in all the attractive colors—Pink, Blue, Tan, etc., all Edges bound in Sateen.
Remember the date and come early. No phone orders.

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

THE WOMEN'S SHOP
FEDERALSBURG, MD.

Offers the widest range of Styles, Fabrics and Colors in new COATS AND DRESSES to be had anywhere.

NO WOMAN WANTS A CHEAP COAT ,BUT NEARLY EVERY WOMAN WANTS A GOOD COAT CHEAP

Our unusual low prices for good Coats this season have already brought us many new customers.

They come because the word has been passed that our prices mean big savings, and because of the wonderful variety from which to choose.

THE LOWER PRICE IS NOT A PROMISE
IT'S A GUARANTEE

THE WOMEN'S SHOP
FEDERALSBURG, MD.

The Kennard-Pyle Co.
617-619-621-623 MARKET ST.
"Wilmington's Most Reliable Store"

Shoppers' Harvest Week
Begins Monday, October 26th

THIS STORE HAS CO-OPERATED IN A MOST EXTENSIVE MANNER TO MAKE THIS EVENT OF GREAT INTEREST AND BENEFIT TO YOU

THROUGHOUT THE WEEK EACH DEPARTMENT WILL FEATURE UNUSUAL VALUES

An entire week of intensive and co-operative merchandising activity in which every Wilmington merchant will take part. A week particularly given over to further demonstrate Wilmington as your logical shopping center. A week during which every new, novel and practical style will be exploited; a week of special offerings and distinct savings. It is to your advantage to support this big co-operative event.

An Index to Some of the Offerings
Women's Fur-Trimmed Coats
WORTH TO $89.75 $58.00 ALL SIZES

FULL-FASHIONED PURE SILK HOSE In New Fall Shades	$1.29	BOY'S $5.00 WOOL JERSEY SUITS Middy and Oliver Twist Styles	$3.95
WOMEN'S VESTS OF PURE GLOVE SILK Pretty Pastel Shades	$1.00	STEP-INS OF CREPE DECHINE Lace Trimmed	$1.95
NEW IMPORTED FABRIC GLOVES	$1.00	NEW IMPORTED FRENCH KID GLOVES	$2.95

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3548-0337.jpg