Personalographs

Mrs. Fred Towns is improving.

ss Blanche Schaubb is visiting lisbury.

ss Lelia Mudd is spending a few in Wilmington.

Red Rabbit Gift Shop is now getting ready to open.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl White were visitors in Lewes on Sunday.

Mr. Russell Bell and Miss Ruth, spent Sunday in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Johnson, Jr. spent Sunday in Baltimore.

Mr. Leonard Layton left this week to join his sister at Blue Ridge Summit.

Mr. Fred Johnson who has been in Wilmington visiting, has returned home.

Mr. G. M. McIntyre, of Salisbury, spent last week end with Denton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Plummer of Cambridge were visitors in Denton on Sunday.

Miss Jane Truitt, of Salisbury, was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blake.

Mrs. Mary M. Mowbray has returned after a three weeks' visit in Centreville.

Miss Grace Jarman, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Colgain.

Mr. Gilbert Cooper has returned from Wilmington.

Miss Lelia Lucas and little niece Rachel Ann Smith are spending some time in Baltimore.

Miss Lucille Bailey spent most of last week in Centreville, due to the illness of her sister.

Little Samuel Baxter, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mason Baxter is ill with scarlet fever.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Merritt Woodward is home from the hospital and is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Alda Reed are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son weighing 8 pounds.

Mr. George W. King and daughter, Mrs. M. E. Wilson of Salisbury, visited Denton friends today.

Mrs. F. T. Willoughby of Washington spent last week end with her niece, Mrs. O. C. Bowdle.

Mrs. G. J. Hooker spent last week end in Salisbury and Washington, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Frank Woodrow, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting his brother, Mr. John Woodrow in West Denton.

Mrs. Thomas Bradley entertained her sister, Miss Josephine Twilley of Cambridge, over the week end.

Mrs. John Blake, of Greenwood, is now employed by the Eastern Shore Gas & Electric Company, here.

Mrs. F. J. Wright and daughter Elsie who have been in Baltimore since last Friday returned home Sunday.

Miss Edna Shipman has returned after a week's visit in Virginia with her two brothers, Stephen and Williard.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blake and the Misses Beatrice Tull and Florence Morgan spent last Friday in Salisbury.

The Rev. G. J. Hooker will spend next week in Seaford, assisting in revival services at the M. P. church at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunham spent most of last week in Chester, due to the accident and death of their son-in-law, Mr. Roy Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roe and Miss Pauline, spent Wednesday and Thursday in Baltimore. Mr. Roe will bring home a new Chevrolet.

Mrs. Harry Clark, formerly of Queen Anne, is undergoing treatment with Dr. Allen at the Physiatric Institute, Morristown, N. J.

Miss Lucille Bailey was among the many who attended the 3-in-1 Christian Endeavor Hallowe'en social at Preston Tuesday evening.

Miss Maud Thomas returned Sunday night from Newark, where she has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Murphy.

The Den-Mar Mobile Co. is surely "hitting 'er up" this year. Another carload of Chevrolets was received this week and is already partly sold.

Mrs. Mary M. Mowbray, Mrs. Mark Smith, Mrs. Lemuel Clough and Mrs. Laura Parks attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Sarah Walter at Mt. Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rutter, of Washington, spent the first of this week in Denton, visiting their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutter and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dunning.

Mr. Albert Satterfield of Tuckahoe Neck and Miss Viola Harris, of Talbot county were quietly married Saturday evening last at the mission parsonage by Rev. Lewis Adams.

Let us help "dress up" your home for winter warmth and comfort! Everything to better and beautify the interior in our Home Furnishing Department (second floor). Long & Short, Federalsburg. ad

Mr. Wilmer Parker and Mrs. Minnie Cochran took Mr. Parker's mother, Mrs. Enoch Cooper to the hospital in Philadelphia last Sunday. They returned Wednesday and report Mrs. Cooper slightly improved.

HARMONY

Miss Ruth Poole, of Preston, spent Sunday with Miss Pearl Willis.

Mr. Sherman Kelley has been confined to his home several days with a sore throat.

Miss Mildred Collins spent the week end in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Todd's little daughter Louise is quite ill. Little Robert Todd fractured his arm, Sunday, the wind blew the barn door shut, catching his arm.

Mrs. Raymond Williamson, of Laurel Grove, spent Monday evening with Mrs. McConnell.

Mrs. Bell Dean has returned home from her visit in Easton.

Miss Hattie McConnell has returned to Philadelphia.

QUEEN ANNE

Mrs. Oscar Brisco was a week end visitor of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Lynch.

Mr. Herbert Trice was at home over the Sabbath.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grace of Easton visited Mrs. Moore's parents Sunday.

Centreville boys and girls defeated Tri-County boys and girls last Friday. But defeat is nohting when one does his best, it often means stored up energy for the next battle.

Miss Mildred Trice spent the week end with Mrs. Helen Adams.

Miss Hilda Wooters of Ridgely spent the week end with Miss Mabel Eaton, who is rapidly recovering from the effects of the operation for appendicitis.

Dr. J. Howard Wells held the Third Quarterly Conference for Queen Anne and Ridgely, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Irene Price spent the week end with her mother and sister.

Last Sunday's storm made church going somewhat difficult. The bad roads cut out the Sunday school and preaching by Dr. Wells. It is hoped that the regular services will be held in both churches next Sunday.

HILLSBORO

Mrs. H. R. Covell is the guest of Mrs. Dora Limpert in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Tyson Heather and little son Robert of Marydel, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sparks were guests of Mrs. W. L. Thompson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Garton were guests of Miss Ella Pennington on Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. S. Fisher and Mrs. W. L. Thompson were in Easton Tuesday.

Mr. H. R. Covell spent Tuesday with his brother, Mr. Edward Covell, Centreville.

Miss Agnes Tarbutton spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tarbutton.

Mrs. T. R. Seward and children spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Ridgely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Duffey, Mr. Hugh Duffey, and Mr. W. Wright of Washington attended the funeral of Mr. Duffey's mother, Mrs. Catherine Duffey, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarrell, Saturday afternoon. Interment in Hillsboro cemetery. Mrs. Duffey was 88 years old. The whole community is deeply grieved at the loss of the well known and loved friend.

Miss Katherine Jarrell, of Western Maryland College, who came home to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Duffey, returned to the college Monday morning.

The Sunday School of the M. E. church held a very interesting entertainment on Sunday morning, the occasion being the arranging of a Christ mas box for children of a school in India. The different classes had been arranging their gifts for several weeks.

PRESTON

Messrs. Howard Harris, Ed Wright and Phil Wright made a business trip by automobile to Albany, N. Y., last week.

Miss Dot Wright spent last week visiting her sister, Mrs. D. W. Silvey in Salisbury.

Mr. Alvin Hubbard of Salisbury visited town this week.

Mrs. J. R. Downes of Newark, Del., visited Mrs. Harry B. Wright last week.

Mrs. Martha Noble is spending a few days in Philadelphia.

Miss Marie Hern of Delmar recently visited Miss Ethel Wooten and Miss Mae LeCompte.

Miss Dorothy Flounders, a teacher in the high school spent the week end at her home in Ridgely.

Mrs. Frank Lednum spent several days in Baltimore last week.

Mr .and Mrs. Albert Sisk are spending some time with their son Edwin in Detroit, Mich.

The School Community League held its annual oyster supper in the high school auditorium last Friday night. The supper was a great success.

The funeral services of little Jenny Lee Silvey, age 1 year and 11 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Silvey was held in the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Wright Wednesday, October 14. Interment in Preston cemetery.

BURRSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitaker, of Salem, N. J., spent the week end at their home here.

Messrs. J. W. Price and Powell Hopkins visited Salisbury last week.

Mr. Harvey Griffith of Chester, is visiting his parents near town.

Mr. T. Alan Goldsborough was one of the speakers at the opening exercises at the new school house last Wednesday night.

Amos Layton's sale of household furniture attracted a large crowd last Saturday afternoon, regardless of the rain.

Mr. Clyde Wyatt, of Marcus Hook has been visiting his parents near town.

Mr. Clifford Raughley was a week end guest of his mother.

One of the attractive features at the service at Union M. P. church next Sunday morning will be the singing by a lady visitor. Everybody is cordially invited.

Mrs .Emma Hall, of Chestertown, and the Rev. G. L. Hardesty of Kent Island, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Slaughter.

Mr. John Collison, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Collison, of near here and Miss Bertha Henry were married last Saturday evening at the M. P. parsonage at Hobbs, by the Rev. C. S. Marshall.

Mrs. Harry Cheezum and son of Collingsdale, Pa., are spending week at her home here and has as her guest her sister, Miss Annie Baker of near Central church.

The sale of personal property will take place at the late home of Mr. T. R. Jacobs this Saturday afternoon.

VERNON

Many friends here mourn the passing away of William Hardesty who was recently interred in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, Seaford. The deceased was for many years one of our most highly respected citizens.

Many attended the kitchen shower recently of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Ivins.

The interment of Truvilla Jacobs was recently held at Wesley M. E. cemetery. The passing away was very sudden. The deceased was of sterling quality and highly respected. Many friends mourn his loss.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wesley Ross spent part of the week end with friends in Maryland.

The Harvest Home exercises at Union M. P. church were a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taylor and son were recent visitors at Baltimore, Washington, and Mt. Vernon. Mr. Taylor had the unique experience of climbing the Washington monument.

N. J. Harrington is having the residence on his farm, tenanted by Mr. Ellers, painted white, thus making an improvement.

Mrs. J. Harrington Burgess and Mrs. Cahall were Sunday guests of Mrs .R. Wesley Ross.

Mrs. Annie Price recently entertained the Mite Society of the Union M. P. church. All had an enjoyable time.

Many regret the passing of Mrs. Elizabeth H. Carrom, widow of Robert Carrom. The deceased died near Frederica, and had been a sufferer for a long time. She was highly respected and leaves many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Interment took place at Dover.

Wheat seeding is in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warrington and children were recent visitors at Rehoboth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowgill Barnard and Mrs. William H. Hudson recently visited Philadelphia on a shopping trip.

Many of our farmers are husking corn.

The Breakdown on the Denton R. R.

Did not hinder Rev. Steerman from reaching his appointment in the Church of the Brethren last Monday evening. He was there and will be there each evening this week and next. Song service at 7:30 followed by inspiring sermons you can't afford to miss. A welcome for all.

Co. Federation to Meet Nov. 5th

The Caroline Federation of Women's Clubs will hold the annual meeting at Williston, November 5th, beginning at 10:30 a. m., the hostess clubs being, Andersontown-Hobbs, the Federal and the Williston Community Clubs.

A ver yinteresting day is promised and every member urged to attend,

SPECIAL SALE

Axminster Rugs

Size 9x12 $27.75

Wednesday, Nov. 4th ONLY

We are offering our entire stock of Axminster Rugs in 9x12 size on

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH ONLY

AT $27.75

These Rugs are first quality, no seams, all new designs, heavy in weight and attractive colors.

No Phone Orders—No Approvals

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

TIMELY TALKS

* * *

FALL FURNISHINGS FOR THE HOME

How about some 'New Clothes' For the Home?

The Home, as well as the Person, needs "dressing up" often with a NEW RUG, a comfort-giving Chair, some handsome overstuffed pieces for the living room, or other furniture that increases the beauty as well as the comfort of the home.

This is the TIME to see about these additions to the interior, and this store is the PLACE to secure practically everything in the furnishing line at unusual prices.

Our Second Floor, devoted to the interior of the home, shows a complete line of floor coverings (of every description), furniture (for every room) in great variety and lovely styles, fine China, glassware, crockery, aluminum, window shades and all the nameless little accessories that make for convenience and attraction throughout the house.

We also carry bed springs, mattresses (all sizes), bedding, blankets, comforts, Curtains, curtain materials and the latest improved curtain rods and fixtures for hanging draperies.

The Home Furnishing Department (second floor), is always worth a visit, and especially now at housecleaning season.

Let us help Dress up your Home for Winter Warmth and Comfort.

LONG & SHORT'S
FEDERALSBURG

THE WOMEN'S SHOP

FEDERALSBURG, MD.

Offers the widest range of Styles, Fabrics and Colors in new COATS AND DRESSES to be had anywhere.

NO WOMAN WANTS A CHEAP COAT ,BUT NEARLY EVERY WOMAN WANTS A GOOD COAT CHEAP

Our unusual low prices for good Coats this season have already brought us many new customers.

They come because the word has been passed that our prices mean big savings, and because of the wonderful variety from which to choose.

THE LOWER PRICE IS NOT A PROMISE

IT'S A GUARANTEE

THE WOMEN'S SHOP

FEDERALSBURG, MD.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3548-0345.jpg