Our Twentieth Birthday

We do not want 1925 to pass by without some fitting expression of appreciation to our many customers of their long, faithful and increasing patronage, by means of which we have reached our present state of mercantile development.

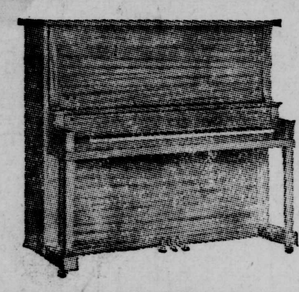

Therefore, we are planning to make this last part of the year of our 20th anniversary memorable because of the celebration which we soon shall launch. It is to benefit our customers in a tangible way in return for their help to us.

So watch this space next week for more definite details of this interesting event.

Gratefully yours,
