GOVERNMENT CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

Establishing a division of co-operative marketing in the Department of Agriculture will be variously regarded by millions of our farmers. Conferences between the Secretary of Agriculture and many of the co-operative leaders are said to have resulted in harmonizing conflicting views, but there are still remaining a number of farmers who will fear government control, believing that government at any time may fall under the domination of those big business interests whose prosperity depends on exploiting the tiller of the soil.

Secretary Jardine has not yet made public how he proposes to define the duties of the new department. The supposition is that the new department will aim to co-operate with the leaders of co-operative selling rather than manage and direct policies. Also there is indication that the chief aim will be to solve the problem of the farmer by co-operative sales at home rather than by an effort to stimulate the exportation of surplus.

Whatever may be the plan in mind, however, it is almost certain to be assailed in the Congress. Let us hope it will. Only by open attack and counter attack can the facts be brought clearly to mind and the issue is too vital to be decided on snap judgment.

Government domination of agriculture is unthinkable. Government aid to stabilize prices that does not smack of special legislation and open subsidy to govern prices may be quite another matter.

VERNON

The P. T. A. of Laurel school will be held on Wednesday evening, November 18 at 7.30 p. m. A good program will be rendered by the school, a fine speaker will be presented and refreshments will be served. If it is stormy the meeting will be held the next evening. A good attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Smith have been Seaford visitors and attended the funeral of Miss Venie Melvin. who recently passed away. Several brothers and sisters survive. Interment took place at Seaford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warrington have been Wilmington visitors.

Tilghman Layton has been ill for some time.

Our citizens greatly enjoyed the Hallowe'en social at Swayne's Hotel and nearby new building. It was a delightful affair.

The pupils of Laws school on the honor roll for the month of October are: William Schmick, Harriett Maloney, Virgie and Mildred Minner, Pauline Shockley, Delema Holleger and Kathleen McCord. The good attendance pupils are: Joseph Robbins, Mary Legates, Ruth Warrington and Emma Robbins. The school has joined the Red Cross, a new dodge ball has been purchased and a hike taken to Hope's Pond, on which specimens for the social science class were gathered. Problem project and poster work by all the grades was exhibited at the State Teachers' Convention at Dover.

We welcome our new school superintendent, Prof. Van Bornstein. His predecessor, Prof Thornburg, however has made a fine record.

Mrs. Alice H. Ross has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Derrickson, Fredeica.

A. C. Warrington and son have visited Chestertown and Rockhall.

The winners of the attendance campaign of Laws school were treated to home-made fudge recently. A fine party with refreshment has also been held.

Mrs. Alice H. Ross was an invited guest at the dinner and teachers meeting held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bringhurst of Felton recently, given in the interest of the W. C. T. U. and the L. T. L. A most interesting and enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warrington and children and Mrs. R. Wesley Ross were guests at a duck dinner given on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Cowgill Barnard of Magnolia. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Culver of Bridgeville and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hudson and son of Seaford. It was a delightful family gathering.

Revival meetings are in progress at Laws church with a good attendance.

AMERICAN CORNER

The farmers of near American Corner are busy having their corn shrdeded.

Little Olive Howard had a serious accident cutting the main artery from her heart in her hand, but is reported as doing nicely now.

Margaret H. Howard is now attending Strayers business college in Philadelphia. We hope her success.

Mr. Wheatley is now paying his growers off.

George E. Howard has work in Marcus Hook.

Mrs. George Griffith, Elva Smith and son Edward were the guests of O. H. Howard Saturday afternoon.

BURRSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Priee had as their guests on Sunday, Messrs. Miller and Cooper and Frank Price of Wilmington.

Mrs. Alva Griffith is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos Cleaves and Mrs. Roy Chance were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. William Chambers, Andersontown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson of Houston, visited the latter's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Satterfield.

Mr. Clarence Voss left Tuesday for Mimami, Fla.

Miss Willie Wilson has returned from a two weeks stay with Mrs. Fred Powell in Harrington.

Mr. John Good has sold his farm near here and has moved with his family to Harrington.

What She Said

"If me mistress don't take back what she said to me this morning, I'll leave!" exclaimed Bridget to the ice man.

"What'd she say?" he asked.

"Sure, she told me to leave."
