the Judge's Josh

What is your opinion of those girls who imitate men?

They're idiots.

Then the imitation is successful.

Senior to Freshman—Do you think they'll ever raise $475,000 to restore the old frigate "Constitution"?

Freshie—$475,000? Why they could buy a new one for that.

"Charleston" Joe, answering the phone. "Hello? Whatchawant? You paid the nickle, start the conversation."

Jean—Why is the Grand Canyon like some people's brains?

Dot—I don't know, why?

Jean—Because its a big open crevice with nothing in it.

Father—My boy, I hear that you are most recalcitrant.

Herman—Be yourself, Pop, you've been doing crossword puzzles again.

Caller—Are you sure Mrs. Snip is not in?

Maid—Do you doubt her word, ma'am?

Joe—I'm leaving for Chicago. I'm supposed to get married tomorrow.

Joe—No, here in New York.

She—A kiss speaks volumes they say.

He—Don't you think it would be well.

Henry—Oh, Bill's not such a bad fellow, at any rate he throws himself into any job he undertakes.

Liz—Then I wish he'd go dig a sporting to start a library?

P. A. put a padlock on tongue-torture

PRINCE ALBERT never owned a teething-ring, because it never had teeth! And never will. The Prince Albert process cut out bite and parch right at the beginning. And your tongue says "Thank you!" every time you load up that old jimmy-pipe with cool, comfortable P. A.

Watch the sun break through the smoke-clouds the minute you get going with good old P. A. Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A.'s true-blue smoke zooms up the stem and throws pipe-grouches for a loss. You'll feel like a boy with his first week's pay. Never any tobacco that rang the bell like that before.

Men who gave up trying to smoke a pipe have tried again with Prince Albert . . . and stuck! Because P. A. has what smokers want—deep-down satisfaction and no regrets. Genuine pipe-pleasure and no mistake. You'll say so.

And not only do you get quality in Prince Albert, but quantity as well. There are TWO full ounces in every tidy red tin. Just take a look at the U. S. revenue stamp. It's there in Uncle Sam's own wording. Get yours today. Every minute counts when you're just hankering for a real smoke.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Look at the U. S. revenue stamp—there are TWO full ounces in every tin.

PRINCE ALBERT
