RIDGELY

At the meeting of the Womens Community Club Monday evening the principal subject under discussion was a Community House for Ridgely. A vote by ballot was taken which resulted in a majority of four votes in favor of the community building. A vote was then taken on the old Rickards building, plans for remodeling which, at a cost of about $3000, had already been placed before the club. This plan was defeated resulting in only 11 votes for the building. Thus a proper site or building for the community house remains to be secured.
