

The Season's Greetings to all our Customers: Old, New and Prospective.

NUTTLE MILLING CO.

Of all good times in the year,
We're glad that Yultide days are here,
So all our friends from everywhere,
May in its happy blessings share.

THE FARMERS & MERCHANTS STATE BANK

We're wishing you a real Old Fashioned Christmas, the jolly happy kind.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO.

RIDGELY

Mr. Harper Lang, a contractor and builder of this place, met with a serious accident last Thursday when he fell from the remaining section of the T. L. Day property, a distance of about 20 feet. Lang was taken to the office of Dr. J. C. Madara, where medical aid was rendered. He was later removed to the home of Mr. Harry Lane his business associate. Dr. Cotton, chief Orthopaedic surgeon of Mercy hospital, Baltimore, was sent for, who, with the assistance of Dr. Madara, made an examination, taking ray pictures, which developed that the spine was fractured. The many friends of Mr. Lang hope to see him out in due time without any permanent disability. An ambulance was sent from Baltimore and Mr. Lang was taken to Mercy hospital last Saturday.

Mr. Albert Saulsbury is assisting in the Philadelphia post office during the Christmas rush.

Rev. George Fitz lately attended a special meeting of the Maryland synod at Frederick.

New cases have been built for the shelves of the community library, the work having been done by Mr. Schaff.

A strange dog on Friday of last week visited the primary school and at Otis Wharton through the finger. Passing on through the town, the mad animal bit a number of dogs. The dog was finally killed and the head sent to the Bureau of Bacteriology of the State Department of Health, Baltimore where after examination the dog was said to have been suffering with rabies. Young Wharton was treated by Dr. J. C. Madara.

Jack and Louise Wilson were recent guests of Miss Cordelia Green at the home of her sister, Mrs. Morton Hokinger, near Philadelphia.

Mr. Jesse Lynch, of Wilmington, is spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rickards.

Mr. Joseph Simon is critically ill at the home of his son, Frank, near town.

Miss Hattie Hagadone has returned home from a visit with Wilmington friends.

Mrs. Mame Smith has rented rooms in the property of Mrs. Hannah Freeman and will move into them the first of the year. Her daughter, Miss Ann Smith, a student at St. Mary's Seminary, is home for the holidays.

Mr. Roger Ringgold has remodeled the building known as the Rickard's building for a garage and show room.

Final arrangements have been made for a community parent and teacher's training class to be held once a week for 10 weeks, the first session to be held at the Reformed parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkinson are at the Ridgely hotel for the winter months.

Mrs. D. M. Swing entertained a few friends at cards last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Headley and children, Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Saulsbury.

Miss Dorothy Mancha, an instructor in French in Trenton, N. J., is at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Hemmons, for the holidays.

The community Christmas tree will be located on the lawn of Mr. R. E. Fountain this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McKnett and daughter, Louise, have been visiting in Philadelphia.

Misses Mary and Dora Samis and Mr. Warren, of Easton, were recent visitors at the home of M. and Mrs. James Lewis.

Mrs. Arthur Scully is suffering with pneumonia.

Mr. C. L. Hobbs has accepted a position as auditor of the Eastern Share Trust Company with headquarters in Cambridge. Mr. Hobbs will enter upon his new duties January 1st and expects to move his family to Cambridge early in the summer.

A meeting of the Community School League was held last Thursday evening in the church house. At the close of the business session an attractive program was rendered.

Mr. Earl Stafford, of Queenstown, formerly of Ridgely, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis in Easton hospital.

Mr. John Murphy, of Greensboro, will occupy the farm vacated by Mr. Ord Rairigh.

Mr. Harford Porter is assisting in Miss Grace Dyer's store.

At the regular meeting of the Community club Mrs. A. G. Saulsbury gave some readings on graphology.

Mr. John Hurd and family, of Felton, have been visitors at the home of Mrs. Hurd's sister, Mrs. Hiram Kenton.

Miss Mabel Eaton, of Queen Anne, has been spending a few days with Miss Hilda Wooters.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Swing and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Swing were recent Philadelphia visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson and their daughter, Mrs. Harold Roe, with her husband and little daughter, attended the funeral of Mr. Robinson's brother, Mr. William Robinson, Bridgetown, Wednesday of last week.

Misses Marion Hemmons, Dorothy Holsinger, Harriette Stearns and Miss Mary Rebecca Saulsbury, of New York, Miss Elaine Saulsbury, of Philadelphia, Miss Dorothy [illegible] of Preston, Mr. W[illegible] of Baltimore, Mr. Fred H. Flounders of McDonogh school, Misses Elizabeth Wilson, Lydia Pennington, Messrs. E. Hoffman and Swing Pearsaul, of Wilmington, were among those home for the Christmastide.

A community Christmas service will be held at the Reformed church at 6 o'clock Christmas morning. [illegible] will be in charge of the ministers of the town.

A Christmas entertainment was rendered by the pupils of the primary school Wednesday afternoon, the leading feature of which was a play entitled "Christmas Secrets."

The Reformed Sunday school will hold their Christmas entertainment on Christmas night. The Methodist Sunday school will hold theirs on the following Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swing, Miss Margaret Swing, Mr. and Mrs. Mulford Swing and Miss Erma Nichols were entertained Wednesday of last week at a turkey dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Swing.

Mr. Roland Fountain and family of Irvington, N. J., are spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Fountain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Swing, and other relatives here.

Thomas Jones and Thomas Richards, students in Baltimore schools, are home for the holidays.

HAD HAND TORN

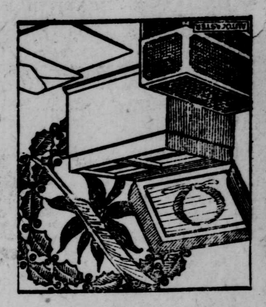

Fermoh Replogle, while shelling corn at Moore's grain elevator in West Denton last week caught a hand in the corn sheller and badly lacerated the thumb and two fingers.

He was taken to the Easton hospital where his wounds were dressed.

Don't think we made a mistake. This ad was ordered put in upside down.

F. J. WRIGHT

JEWELER, OPTOMETRIST DENTON, MD.

Our stock of boxed Stationery is very pretty with its many-tinted and gilt-edged papers in beautiful gift boxes. A most acceptable gift to any one. Priced from 25c to $5.00 per box.

STATIONERY

Cut Glass Goblets and Sherberts, $2.50 to $3.50.

Many beautiful pieces of the newest Decorated Glass ware $2.15 up.

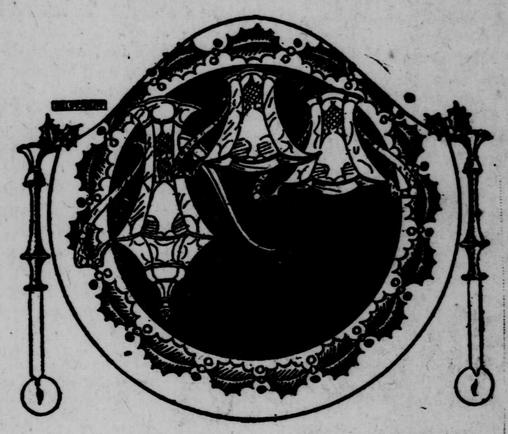

Any gift you select will be held for you until Xmas.

The supreme gift is something in silver, in gold, or a precious stone—or both—JEWELRY.

Nothing can take their place as the aristocrat of gifts. Nothing can equal the charm and sheer lasting beauty of a ring, a silver set, or a watch.

Our store has its fine Christmas stock of exquisite gifts. There is a satisfaction and assurance when you select here and you know that anything you give from our store is doubly appreciated—for itself and because it bears our mark of quality.

Gifts of Everlasting Charm

GIVE A BOOK

ENTERTAINING! EDUCATIONAL!

Boys and girls love boks for Christmas, when those books are full of redblooded adventure and good wholesome thrills. We have received many newly published books—also new editions of the ones you and I loved so when we were young.

Books for grown-ups, too!

Just a Few of Our Many Books for Boys and Girls

The Wonderers of the Waste Land.
The Polly Books.
The Blythe Girls.
The Big Boys' Books.
The Radio Boys.
The Honey Bunch Books.
The Bobsy Twins.
The Bunny Brown Books.

One Christmas Store

We subscribed to this space just to send you a Message of Good Will for Christmas.

H. P. SULLIVAN

Merry Christmas be Yours,
And to this our Firm would add,
May it be the best
Of all you've ever had.

J. ED. NICHOLS

Accept our Season's Greetings
In the good old fashioned way,
We wish you Joy and Happiness
On this Merry Christmas Day.

GEORGE'S SANITARY MARKET