SIGNS OF SPRING

Tho' it is mid-winter by the calendar some lovely spring frocks have already made their advent here. Women are not ...ting till spring to buy them, ...r to wear them, for tho they select the advance spring modes, they are so suitable to wear anytime and the bright ...ors so fashionable for spring look especially charming in the dull winter time.

You will be interested to see all the attractive new models arriving from day to day in our Dress Salon. You may be interested, too, in the extraordinary coat values there—just two prices in winter coats—one group at $9.75 and one at $19.75, which means that all remaining winter coats have been much reduced in price. Pictures On World Court And League Of Nations

Mr. Emmery Wine of Woodside, Del., having spent some three months touring Europe last summer, speaks with authority on the World Court and League of Nations. By special arrangements we are able to secure Mr. Wine who will lecture on the above subject at the Church of the Brethren next Sunday evening at 7:15. His lecture will be illustrated by about 40 splendid views that we may learn with the eye as well as with the ear. Let us all turn out to hear about this much agitated subject next Sunday evening.

Lloyd—Grandpa, did you once have hair like snow?

Yes, my boy.

Lloyd—Well, who shoveled it off?

CONCORD
