MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

VALUE OF TIME

There is no time to be lost. It was said of a certain French man that "he lost an hour every morning and then spent the rest of the day trying to catch up with it." It is folly to persuade ourselves that we have more time than we need. God gives not one second too much—but He does give enough to fulfill His purposes. "Millions of money for a moment of time," cried Queen Elizabeth, at the last, after 60 years on the throne. Happy are they who realize the value of time before it is too late, and resolve to put out of life all that robs it of its value and usefulness, its permanence, stability and power.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Seaford, Jan. 11—Nathaniel M. Conway, Sr., 80, former constable, justice of the peace and coroner of Sussex county, died at his home here today. He was a native of this county, having been born in Nanticoke-Hundred. He is survived by a widow and nine children.

Funeral services will be held from the home Thursday afternoon.

Lewes, Jan. 11—Word was received here tonight that the motor tugboat Walter Mattic, New York to Miami, the barge, Severn and the Bronx Barge Corporation No. 1, which were supposed to have foundered in the Atlantic, are safe.

The tug made Norfolk under her own power with her crew of six men, a Coast Guard cutter picked up the Severn and towed her into Norfolk after having been sent to search for her and the American oil tanker, Silverbrook, bound from Portsmouth, N. H., to Mobile, Ala., has the other barge in tow.

California's latest quarantine on certain kinds of fruit will be felt by Delaware nurserymen.

A dispatch from California says that H. G. Hecke, director of the State Department of Agriculture, has announced a quarantine against any and all varieties of peach, nectarine, almond, apricot, plum, cherry, quince or plants or parts thereof arriving in California from territory infested with the Oriental fruit moth.

The order was made necessary, Mr. Hecke is reported to have declared by the presence of this moth in Delaware, Maryland, the District of Columbia, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas and Indiana.

Salisbury, under the auspices and direction of the base ball management is staging a week of the biggest entertainment that has ever been attempted to put across in this city. The big show—to be known as the Salisbury Exposition and auto show—is scheduled to open its doors on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock and close at midnight—that is, the first evening's program. Each evening of the following week the doors will open at the same hour until the show closes on Saturday evening, January 23d.

The show will be held in the Armory and as an evidence of the unusualness of this entertainment, even the decorating of the building will be in the hands of decorating experts—the New York Decorating Co. being engaged for this purpose.

The Armory floor will have booths taken by merchants and business men of this community, practically all of these have already been contracted for. These booths will be trimmed and arranged so as to add to the beauty of the scene and make in fact a real mart of this community's life. The list of exhibitors is a long one and numbers many of the big business interests here.

Queen Anne's county's first concerted action, looking to a perfect and co-operative alliance with the recently formed Delmarva-Eastern Shore Association, will be taken Tuesday, January 19, when directors and officers of all county banks will meet in the court house, Centreville, at 2 o'clock.

Friday President Fred P. Adkins, of Salisbury, announced the appointment of a bankers' committee with State Senator Dudley G. Roe, president of the Sudlersville bank, as chairman, together with William R. Wilson, president of the Centreville National bank, and Walter T. Wright, president of the Queen Anne's National bank.

At the meeting in Salisbury when $50,000 was subscribed to start a peninsula-wide fund for advertising this section of the world, Eastern Shore bankers requested that they be permitted to raise their subscription as a unit.

At the meeting in Centreville on Tuesday, January 19, officials of the association will be present to outline the plans of the organization, and steps will be taken to raise a fund that will adequately represent Queen Anne county's banking interests.

That the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is now planning the electrification of lines extending from Townsend through Massey to Centreville and Chestertown, with the view of reducing expenses thousands of dollars, annually, by the elimination of steam passenger trains, and the curtailment of crews, is an unconfirmed report that has been circulated in railroad circles this week.

The report, which was current more than a year ago, was given fresh impetus by the starting of an electric train over the lines of the Pennsylvania from Harrington to Rehoboth Beach. The report states that officials are looking forward, eventually, to electrification of all branch roads where steam trains are proving unprofitable. These two outstanding economies, it is said, will be effected:

1. Elimination of steam passenger trains and the substitution of electric engines which can be operated at considerably reduced cost.

2. Curtailment of train crews to the extent that it has been found possible in other sections where equipment similar to the proposed type has been placed in service.

Prompt and efficient action on the part of Miss Evelyn Knotts, of Sudersville, who had just returned to the home of her parents following her graduation at Walter Reed and the Children's hospital, Washington, probably saved the life of Price Cronshaw, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cronshaw, of near Barclay, last Monday.

While playing in the kitchen of the Cronshaw home with an older brother the lad accidently upset a kettle of boiling water, and a large quantity of the scalding fluid struck him about the body. He was rushed to Sudlersville, but Dr. C. H. Metcalfe was in Elkton attending court. Miss Knotts responded to the call and in a few moments had rendered skillful first aid, relieving the lad of his suffering and treating the injuries very effectively.

Miss Knotts is a daughter of State Central Committeeman and Mrs. Jas. T. Knotts, of Sudlersville, and last week was graduated with high honors from the Washington hospitals. Yesterday the Cronshaw lad was improving steadily.

At the close of the dinner a tentative organization for the Chestertown Rotary was formed with Dr. Paul E. Titsworth as president, Marion deK. Smith as vice-president, and Robert R. Huey as secretary and treasurer. A. charter has been applied for from the Rotary International and as soon as it arrives Rotary in Chestertown will be firmly established.

President Shanahan and Rotarians Harris, Jefferson, Marshall and Fogle represented the Easton Club at the meeting and dinner.

Is your boy's eyesight normal?

Bob's parents knew the tremendous importance of normal eyesight to children. So they had Bob's eyes examined. The slight defect revealed was corrected easily (and in time), by the eyeglasses prescribed.

Hence Bob's quick answer—his better report cards.
