MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

"Honor thy father and thy mother . . . that thy days may be prolonged and that it may go well with thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." Successful homes are not founded on purely ecoonmic basis. Wealth may erect a mansion in which a home may be house, but the home cannot be bought for millions. "The happiness and efficiency of the family does not depend on the parlor, the kitchen, or the clothes closet." Far more necessary is the proper consideration of the family in worthy and respectful attitudes. The child who shall hope to become a useful citizen, must begin in the home by observing the Great Commandment in respect to father and mother. This is one of the great commandments with a definite promise appended. History furnishes many examples of the promise fulfilled when the command is obeyed. It is also one of the commandments that is most trampled under foot today, the disregard for parental authority. And for this present day laxity the responsibility must lie, not so much with the child as with the parents.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Cambridge, Md., Jan. 15—The ice-boat, F. C. Latrobe, broke her way up the Choptank river to Cambridge this morning towing in a schooner laden with coal for a local plant.

In the afternoon the Latrobe broke the ice in the inner harbor, so that oyster boats can reach the packing plants.

Harrington, Del., Jan. 15.—In a spirited municipal fight here S. O. Bailey, in the Fifth district, was re-elected to the city council over Byron McKnatt by a majority of nine votes. Albert W. Spurry was unopposed in the Fourth district, and F. Brown Smith beat his opponent in the Second district. D. E. Sawtelle, unopposed, was re-elected mayor. M. T. Adams won over William J. Wix for collector, by 52. For treasurer, W. F. Turner and for assessor, J. B. Fleming were unopposed.

The new council elected S. O. Bailey, president, and John W. Sheldrake, secretary. William H. Longfellow was named chief of Police and Benjamin Emory, night officer.

Within the next few weeks a building boom will begin in Sudlersville, and with the opening of spring contracts will be awarded for a number of fine homes to be built in the little First District town. Already several handsome homes have been built during the past few months, including the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin F. Roberts, which is one of the finest of its kind on the Shore; and Church street extended has been improved by the erection of three new homes.

Among the new dwellings that will be built will be homes for Stanley Atkinson and Samuel Clayton, that will be erected on the properties recently purchased by them from Mrs. Austin F. Roberts.

Salisbury, Md., Jan. 14—Forty automobiles and motor trucks were saved and eight others were damaged when fire this afternoon wrecked the Palace Garage on Dock street. The loss is estimated at $35,000.

Every piece of fire-fighting apparatus of the Salisbury department was used against the blaze, which offered stubborn resistance for more than two hours.

Frantic efforts were made to keep the flames from a tank wagon containing 320 gallons of high-test gasoline. Had the attempt been unsuccessful untold damage would have been done, for the garage is in the heart of the commercial section.

The building was owned by Samuel P. Woodcock.

The garage was the scene of the origin of a fire which in 1876 devastated a large part of the town.

All during the past season numerous Queen Anne's county watermen have been complaining of the shortage of crabs in local waters. Many have thought that the apparent shortage was more gossip than an actual fact. This week the report of a state wide survey whichhas been going on for several months disclosed the alarming fact that the crab crop during 1925 showed a 50 per cent shortage over the previous year. The situation is so serious that Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, is working on ways and means whereby conditions may be bettered.

J. H. C. Legg, prominent Centreville attorney, announced yesterday that he was a candidate for the State Senate, subject to the Democratic primaries of Queen Anne's county, which will be held next September. For many months it has been rumored that Mr. Legg was considering coming out for the office, yet nothing definite as to his real intentions was known until he gave out the statement yesterday that he was an avowed candidate.

When interviewed on the subject Legg made the following statement: "For several months I have been urged by many friends in every district of the county to declare my candidacy for the State Senate, and I feel that it is my duty to yield to their wishes."

Kent Island oysters have been more scarce during the past two weeks than for many years. The intense cold spell around Christmas has been the cause. At one time all waters around the bay were completely frozen up and it was not until a few days ago that oystermen ventured out. Up until Monday it was impossible to get any oysters at all around the Narrows.

This shortage has by no means been local with Kent Island. The entire tidewater country has been frozen up and Baltimore City has been without bivalves for many days. During the early part of this week a strenuous effort was made to secure a few shipments and a fleet of boats went out in the bay to dredge.

The fleet of schooners, bugeys and skipjacks moved out from the harbor before sunrise and had good dredging in the morning. Almost before their dredges had begun to fill another fleet of bay boats was arriving from Baltimore, Crisfield and Cambridge.

Mrs. Helena S. Raskob, owner of Pioneer Point Farm, near Centreville; Dr. John Palmer, Jr., prominent Wilmington physician and William N. Kline, driver of Mrs. Raskob's car, narrowly escaped injury and Mr. John Hanzell, of near Crumpton, is dead, as the result of an accident early Thursday evening when the automobile and a team of William Bottomley, Millington, collided on the Shore Trail, North of Sudlersville.

Mrs. Hanzell, who was about 60 years old, was thrown from the vehicle and suffered a broken thigh and several fractured ribs. Mr. Bottomley escaped with minor cuts and bruises. The occupants of the automobile were unhurt.

Only 12 miles from her destination at Erlanger, N. C., after a motor trip of 1700 miles from Kansas City, Mrs. Anna Turpin Wilson, wife of John E. Wilson, former postmaster of Centreville; daughter of the late Senator W. T. P. Turpin and sister of County Roads Engineer J. R. E. Turpin, was instantly killed Thursday morning at 10 o'clock when the automobile in which she was riding with Mrs. Mary Whiting, of Kansas City, turned over.

Chestertown, Md., Jan. 14—The members of the vestries of St. Paul's and I. U. Protestant Episcopal parishes, two of the oldest and most prominent parishes in the Diocese of Easton, have determined to join forces in an effort to develop a strong and influential parish, rather than continue as separate charges. This action was brought about by the recent resignation of the Rev. Lewis B. Sheen as rector of St. Paul's and the retirement of the Rev. Dr. Sewell S. Hepburn at the close of the past year as rector at I. U., which he had served the past 15 years.

Owing to removal of influential families from each of the parishes the vestrymen considered it unwise to undertake the work of the future as separate charges. The action of the officials to combine the two charges has been ratified by the members of each congregation and a call has been extended to the Rev. W. W. Webster, who is now serving a parish in Wicomico county, to become the first rector of the combined parish. Officials believe he will accept.

Centreville, Md., Jan. 18—Eugene Allibone Cann, Sr., 53, prominent retired merchant, died at his home yesterday. With his brother, Clayton A. Cann, he came to Centreville from Delaware City in 1897.

Mr. Cann is survived by his widow, who was Miss Lillian Armstrong, of Delaware; one daughter, Mrs. William H. Carter, and a son, Eugene A. Cann, Jr. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at noon at the home, with interment in Chesterfield cemetery.

Laurel, Del. Jan. 19—Apparently coming out of a daze and broken with remorse, Fred Short, 16 years old, who Monday night shot to death his chum, Walter Baker, aged 17, admits the killing but claims he wasn't himself and can't account for his act. The murdered boy was buried here today.

No mystery!

THERE are probably some things about the telephone business which mystify you, just as there are things about other businesses which you do not thoroughly understand.

Perhaps it is a charge that appears on your bill, or some practice about the service which puzzles you, even if it does not actually annoy you.

When these occasions arise why not ask the local manager about them? He will be glad to explain.

All of this Company's practices are designed to make it easy for you to do business with us and to improve your service. They are the result of long years of experience and they reflect our best business judgment. But they are flexible and are constantly being revised in the interests of service betterment and satisfaction to our patrons.

Willingness to correct and cheerfully explain every detail of our business are, we believe, two of our principal responsibilities in conducting this important public service.

School Days!

Is your boy's eyesight normal?

Bob's parents knew the tremendous importance of normal eyesight to children. So they had Bob's eyes examined. The slight defect revealed was corrected easily (and in time), by the eyeglasses prescribed.

Hence Bob's quick answer—his better report cards.
