Typical American Boy?

The Boys' Club of Washington, D. C., chooses in the person of Joseph Nevins, thirteen years old, "the most typical American boy."

ARTHUR BRISBANE, famous editorial writer, says—

Joseph is a fine young boy, but there ISN'T ANY TYPICAL AMERICAN BOY. There are tall, thin boys, and short, fat boys that will be leaders of men later. There are blue-eyed, brown-eyed, pink-skinned and dark-skinned boys; thin, fat, tall, short, concentrated and dreaming, and any one of them may turn out to be THE great man of the United States thirty years hence.

It is some little thing, probably smaller than the head of a pin, located somewhere in the brain, that makes greatness, and it always goes with the power to stick at your job."

SALE OF WHITE

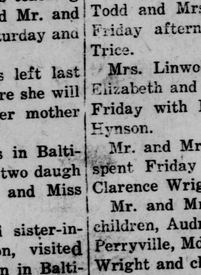

A yearly event to be noted—this Sale of White at our store which embraces so much more than its name implies for it includes many colored cottons and linens also as special offerings.

Our Sale this year will be intensified that is, we will narrow it down in duration of time to just five days—February 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8—but in those five days, we will crowd the largest assortment and finest offerings we have ever assembled for such a sale.

It will pay the housewife to await this sale to invest in supplies for her linen closet or for personal use. Particularly does this apply to bedding, sheeting, pillow casings, muslins and other white goods by the yard for we have secured from a large St. Louis house, which is closing out its stock, quantities of such things enabling us to sell them at unprecedented prices. Large purchases in other lines are being made anticipating this unusual Sale of White.

Remember the days are only five—starting on Wednesday, February 3d, and ending Monday, February 8.
