MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

THE LAST SONG

Sometime your last song will be sung;
I wonder what song it will be,
The song that was heard at the dance last night
Or the holy "Abide With Me"?

And when your last word has been said,
In breathing of time or of trust,
Will it tell of a hope in the heavenly land,
Or treasure lost in the dust?

Sometime your last day will be spent,
The day that must measure your life;
Say, will it be filled with heaven's sweet peace,
Or whirlwinds of terror and strife?

And sometime goody's last adieu
Will pass from your feeble touch,
In day or in darkness it matters not,
In faith or in fear, matters much.

Sometime your last song will be sung,
O say, what song will it be?
And will it's sweet echoes rollon till they ring
By the shores of the crystal sea?

Eastern Shore Happenings

Ambitious plans for an out-door recreation centre, with facilities for enclosing it when the weather is inclement, are now being seriously considered by the Centreville Grammar School Parent Teacher Association. Committees are making preliminary investigations, and more detailed reports will be available at the regular monthly meeting Friday evening, February 5.

National Commander John R. McQuigg, of the American Legion, will visit Dover on Tuesday February 9. This was arranged at a conference between Department Commander Earl Sylvester, of Harrington, and Col. Thomas W. Miller, of Wilmington, who is the Legion's National committeeman, with whom Commander McQuigg is arranging his visit to this state.

The national commander will be the guest at a dinner to be served in the Dover Armory during his stay here. The dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock in the evening and will be limited to 400 guests. The meal will be prepared and served by the ladies of the First Baptist church.

Dover, Del., Jan. 18—Chief Engineer C. D. Buck of the State Highway Department this morning issued an order effective at midnight tonight restricting loads of trucks to a gross weight of 16,000 pounds on the improved state highway. Mr. Buck explained that authority for this order is given in a state law. No time can be definitely fixed for the length of this embargo, but Mr. Buck thinks it might last perhaps a week or it might be lifted within two or three days should the weather turn cold. It is done to protect the highways from heavy loads during a thaw.

Acting on information which lead some one to suspect that intoxicating spirits were being dispensed in the old Farmers & Planters Building, the police, armed with a search warrant, went through the old Farmers and Planters Building on lower Main street, Salisbury.

After a thorough search they came to a locked room which was not rented and on getting a key, they located three casks of apple and peach brandy, of unusual good vintage, it is said. One of these casks was full and the others partly. About 23 gallons in all were seized.

As the room was not rented and no one was around when the brandy was seized, the police have made no arrest for the sale or possession of this liquor as yet. Even at wholesale prices said to be current here, this seizure represented about $160 worth of liquor, while retailed by the pint or half pint it would mount up.

John Poke Whalen is the new manager for the Cambridge Base Ball Team.

Coming to Cambridge this week for a conference, "Poke" met with Fred F. Stevens and the terms of the contract for his services for 1926 were arranged and the papers executed.

While many have expressed the opinion that the Canners should have a playing manager for the coming season in order to cut down the running expense of the club, the signing of this man, who has made such an enviable record in his career as an Eastern Shore pilot, will be greeted favorably by the great majority of Canner fans.

Walter Baker is dead and Fred Short is in Georgetown jail as the result of a party on Sunday night at which hard cider is said to have been the principal refreshment. The trouble resulting in the fatal shooting of Baker originated so quickly that those present seem unable to give a clear version of the affair. The party was at the home of Short's father, about two miles from Laurel. Baker, aged 17 years, was one of the guests. Short, aged 16 years, is said to have exclaimed to Baker "Look out I am going to shoot." Baker caught hold of the barrel and the two boys started to scuffle for the possession of the weapon. It was discharged and the full load of shot struck Baker in the stomach. Despite his terrible injury he ran to the yard and sat down. Later James Chipman and his son, George, learned of the boy's plight, and they took him to the Peninsula General hospital at Salisbury, where he died Monday morning. The parents of Short were attending church when the shooting occurred.

Short was arrested on Sunday night and taken to Georgetown jail. He maintained silence and stated that he could not remember any of the circumstances surrounding the killing of Baker. On Tuesday he is said to have admitted to the police that he fired the shot which killed the youth. Baker was buried on Tuesday.

Seaford, Del., Jan. 21—Dr. Annie C. Shipley, Seaford physician, was shaken up and experienced a narrow escape from serious injury, when an automobile in which she was hurrying to a patient collided with the cement traffic signal at High and Pine streets, here, moving the signal, which weighs 3,000 pounds, seven feet from its foundation, and badly damaging it and the car.

This is the second time the signal has been thrown from its foundation.

Dairymen of the Philadelphia milkshed area, which includes the whole of Queen Anne's county, will find their pay checks considerably curtailed as the result of a 23-cent reduction in milk prices, effective last Saturday.

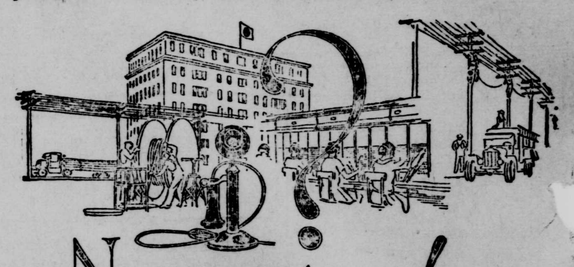

The loss to Queen Anne's county dairymen, fiured on the basis of milk quantities delivered yesterday at Centreville, Price and Sudlersville, will be $2,208 a month.

Although the reduction in price is a disappointment to county producers, it does not represent a loss as compared with last year's prices, as the advance of 23 cents had been in effect only a little more than one month.

Famous remarks, by Dumb Dora:
"I'm broke," said the pitcher as it crashed to the floor.
"Break it to them gently," said the hen as she laid an egg on the table.
"We're off," said the lunatics as they started for the insane asylum.
"You can count me out," said the candle as the last drip of tallow fell on the stand.
"It's all off," said the broken-hearted lad as he gazed at the old man's bald head.
"I'm down and out," said the aviator as he stepped to the ground from his airplane.

Two very deaf old men met in the road one day, one was driving a wagon and in it he carried a fishing rod.
The other man said, "Are you going fishing?"
Old man—"Naw I'm going fishing."
Other old man—"Oh, I thought maybe you were going fishing."

No mystery!

THERE are probably some things about the telephone business which mystify you, just as there are things about other businesses which you do not thoroughly understand.

Perhaps it is a charge that appears on your bill, or some practice about the service which puzzles you, even if it does not actually annoy you.

When these occasions arise why not ask the local manager about them? He will be glad to explain.

All of this Company's practices are designed to make it easy for you to do business with us and to improve your service. They are the result of long years of experience and they reflect our best business judgment. But they are flexible and are constantly being revised in the interests of service betterment and satisfaction to our patrons.

Willingness to correct and cheerfully explain every detail of our business are, we believe, two of our principal responsibilities in conducting this important public service.

MAKING YOUR EYES SPRINT
—what a price you pay!

Forcing defective eyes to see is like trying to keep up with a champion sprinter—both take a tremendous toll of nervous energy.
You yourself, perhaps, are making far-sighted or near-sighted eyes give clear vision in spite of their defects.
The price you pay is too great!
