ETIQUETTE by Flo

Readers desiring personal points of Etiquette or heart affairs may write Flo, care of this newspaper, enclosing a self addressed envelope.

Dear Miss Flo—Is it considered necessary for a man to remain bareheaded while talking to a lady on the street? It may be all right in the summer, but personally, I think a man is silly to do such a thing in cold weather—and I think a girl very selfish if she expects him to. Am I right? D. R.

* * *

Unfortunately, D. R., what you a I think about it won't make a lot difference, although I will say that agree with you. I think the gentl man should remove his hat for a m ment, and replace it immediately. H ever, etiquette rules that a gentl man should stand bareheaded in th presence of ladies, but, like the ru which requires that a gentleman re move his glove before shaking hands it is fast disappearing.

Dear Miss Flo—When a lady is dining with a gentleman in a public restaurant or hotel, who should assist her with her wraps—her escort or the waiter? (2) Who should give the first sign of arising from the table? (3) If the lady adjusts her wraps before rising from the table should the gentleman get up and assist her? Thank you. D. N.

* * *

The young lady's escort should always assist her with her wraps—never the waiter. (2) The lady should give the first sign of rising. (3) When the lady adjusts her wraps from the table the gentleman should step over and assist her.

Dear Miss Flo—I have often seen young ladies assist their escorts with their overcoats in public places. Is this correct? V. B.

* * *

A lady should never assist a gentleman with his overcoat. The waiter or other assistant should do it.

Dear Miss Flo—My engagement is to be announced at a dinner party next month. However, I have already received my engagement ring. Would it be proper for me to wear it now, or must I wait until the engagement is announced? A. W.

* * *

The engagement ring should be worn for the first time in public on the day of the announcement. If you wear it in public before that day—why have the announcement party?

P. A. throws pipe-peeves for a loss

AND the bigger they are, the harder they fall, as Shakespeare or somebody said. You can prove this beyond question with a jimmy-pipe and a tidy red tin of Prince Albert. Any time. Anywhere. As a matter of fact, tackling pipe-grouches is P. A.'s regular business.

Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A.'s wonderful smoke comes curling up the pipe-stem, filling your system with a new brand of pipe-pleasure. You smoke . . . and smile! For the first time in your life, you've found the one tobacco that scales to your blueprint of bliss.

Morning till midnight. Slow or fast. No matter how you feed it, P. A. never bites your tongue or parches your throat. Those important items were taken care of in the original plans by the Prince Albert process. That's why they call P. A. the friendly tobacco.

Right in your neighborhood is a store where they hand out jimmy-pipe joy in the familiar red tin. Take yourself there now and tell the man you want a tidy red tin of P. A. Learn from experience why millions call "P. A." the most important letters in the smoke-alphabet.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
