PRODIGAL SON PARABLE FILMED

"The Wanderer," a Raoul Walsh Production for Paramount, at the Palace

The parable of the prodigal son, most famous of all Bible stories, has been brought to the screen in Paramount's film version of "The Wanderer," which opens on Friday and Saturday, February 19 and 20 at the Palace Theatre, Denton.

Following in every detail the story told by Christ to the publicans and sinners, "The Wanderer" brings to the screen a theme that in many ways is the most tremendous and powerful ever filmed.

Jether, (played by William Collier, Jr.,) son of Jesse, (Tyrone Power) is weary of the monotony of his shepherd life and longs to see the great city beyond the hills.

Despite the entreaties of his mother (played by Kathlyn Williams) and the maiden Naomi, (enacted by Kathryn Hill) he demands his portion and leaves for the city.

Squanders His Fortune

Here he meets the siren Tisha, (portrayed by Greta Nissen). He falls in love with her and squanders his fortune in idle and luxurious living. Vexed that he is unable to buy her a trinket she craves, Tisha, transfers her affections to Pharis, a wealthy sea captain (played by William Beery)

Jealous and desperate, Jether yields to the tempting of Tola, (Ernest Torrence) to play with loaded dice. He is discovered and humiliated. Breaking through the drunken crowd, he goes to Tisha whom he finds in the arms of Pharis. He reproaches her bitterly and leaves her.

But the lure of the charmer is too strong and he returns to her. Tisha demands a proof of his love and tells him he must renounce his God of Israel and sacrifice to Ishtar, the pagan goddess.

At first he revolts. Then he yields and makes oblation to the strange idol.

Fall of Babylon

Before the words of apostasy to the God of his Fathers are uttered, a prophet breaks through the crowd and calls down a curse upon the people. The prophet is attacked by the mob and Jether springs to his defense.

Lightning cleaves the sky, the statue of Ishtar crashes to the ground, the pillars of the banquet hall totter and the roof thunders in upon the appalled throng.

Because he defended the man of God, Jether is saved from death. But he is alone in the ruined city.

How, after many tribulations he returns to his home—ill and in rags—and the greeting that is accorded him there forms probably the most beautiful of Biblical stories. Raoul Walsh, who produced the dramatic spectacle for Paramount, has created one of the outstanding photoplays in motion picture history.

The story was adapted for the screen by J. T. O'Donohoe from the stage spectacle by Maurice Samuels.

Besides those already mentioned, the cast of "The Wanderer" also includes such prominent players as Holmes Herbert, George Rigas, who shapes up as a new screen 'find," and Snitz Edwards. Here is truly the wonder picture of the year.

Bring Along the Scales

Last year we published a tale about some hogs which were raised down the county near Harmony and we thought they were some porkers, but our good friend Mr. Sol Hurst says the porkers he raised last year were "pikers" alongside of one he butchered last Thursday which weighed 824 pounds, or about 200 pounds heavier than those last year.

We take off our hat to Mr. Hurst, for when he starts in to do a thing you can count on its being done right. He not only knows how to raise hogs by the ton but last summer showed this section how to raise "hog size" watermelons, as he had a dozen or so in the 60-75 pound class! Keep it up Mr. Hurst.
