MORALS, RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

A mistake becomes a blessing if it helps a man to go right the next time. It becomes a calamity if it prepares the way for a similar error again.

It does not pay to be crooked—look at the corkscrews that are out of a job.

The fellow who doesn't know much, but knows enough not to let others know that he doesn't know, knows more than some of the knowing ones know.

Brown has a baby girl, the stork left her with a flutter,
Brown named her Oleomargarine, because he hadn't any but her.

"Do I bore you?" asked the mosquito politely as he sank his deep shaft into the man's leg.

"Not at all," replied the man, smashing him with a book. "By the way, how do I strike you?"

We are doing a great deal toward making ourselves look old and ugly when we give way to work and fretfulness.—Ruskin.

It is amazing as well as amusing how some persons, and organizations attach themselves to the wheels of progress, and then like the fly on the wagon wheel, call on the world to watch how they are making the wheels go round.

One man claims that the only reason a lot of righteous people are not sinners is that they have lacked occasion. Food for thought anyway.

Every prison, every burglar alarm, every padlock is a reminder of the reality of sin.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Not to be outdistanced by other progressive Eastern Shore comunities, citizens of Sudlersville, led by the Board of Town Commissioners, are planning the organization of a fire company to act as auxiliary of the Community Fire Company of Millington.

From a preliminary survey of sentiment, it is now known that an efficient department can be organized to cooperate with Millington firemen in their important work.

Georgetown, Del., Reb. 12 Joshua Chandler, Jr., aged 25 residing at Phillip's Hill, between Millsboro and Gumboro, is dead and his brother-in-law, Lee Headley, who lives near by is being held as a material witness without bail. The coroner was unable to finish the examination because Mrs. Chandler was taken violently ill and since that time has been in a serious condition, most of the time being unconscious.

Mrs. Chandler is alleged to have said that her brother, Lee Headley, struck her husband with a stick, while others of the family aver that he ran into a porch post and was rendered unconscious. Chandler lay from Monday morning until about 9 o'clock that night, when he was taken to the Milford Emergency Hospital, where he died Wednesday morning.

Easton, Md., Feb. 15.—At a special election today Harvey Renshaw was chosen president of the Easton City Council to fill the unexpired term of Jas. B. Clark, who was named Mayor to succeed Francis G. Wrightson, who died some time ago.

Mr. Renshaw received 306 votes; his opponent, Claud D. Lee, 166.

Chestertown, Md., Feb. 14.—Fishermen of Rock Hall, who operate during the winter months in the vicinity of Love Point, broke the record for large catches of rock, getting 10,000 pounds of fine fish which were sold on the Baltimore wholesale market at 25 cents a pound. The market was completely glutted and the next day the best grades of fish brought only 7 cents a pound.

Twentyfour men operating 12 boats made the catch, each man netting $100 for his day's work. This is the largest catch of fish made during the winter and for several years past.

Crisfield, Md., Feb. 14.—John Adams, Jr., aged 12, son og Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Marion, was instantly killed last night when struck by a truck in attempting to cross the road while playing in front of his home with several companions. An inquest was held and the coroner's jury handed a sealed decision to Magistrate Holland. The verdict has not yet been anounced.

James Ward, driver of a truck that passed through Marion at or about the time of the accilent, stated at the inquest that he had no knowledge of striking anyone when in the vicinity of Marion. Vaughn Mason, who was riding in the truck, gave similar testimony. There were no witnesses to the accident except the boy's playmates, who only know that he was struck by a truck and that the driver did not stop.

Testimony showed that the truck which struck the boy was trailing another car and that it had no lights burning.

Search for Victor Graham, the 9-year-old son of former Sheriff and Mrs. Charles W. Graham, of Dover, missing from his home since early Sunday morning is being continued about 150 men working tirelessly in a futile endeavor to find either the boy or his body.

The finding Tuesday morning of the boy's gloves on a sand bank near Silver Lake, south of Lake Side cemetery, had added to the prevailing opinion that the boy fell into the lake and was drowned. The gloves were identified by the boy's parents as the ones Victor had with him when he left the house Sunday afternoon.

Searchers hunted every foot of the ground, including the wods and the vicinity of the lake. When the gloves were found the search of the lake was renewed. More dynamite was used and the lake was dragged. The general opinion of the searchers is that the boy's body is underneath one of the cakes of ice floating about in the lake.

Delbert Carty, the 9-year-old chum of Victor's was again questioned by the police Tuesday. He insisted the last he saw of Victor was about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the Academy campus; that Victor was not with him at the lake and that he knew nothing of his whereabouts.

The Carty boy fell in the lake Sunday and returned home with his clothing wet.

With the noble spirit of Christian fortitude still brilliantly illuminating the long, 85-year pathway of an exemplary life, Mrs. Annie E. Connolly, Centreville's best loved woman, died at 6:30 Friday morning in Emergency hospital, Easton, from burns received Wednesday morning, when her clothing caught fire while she was chatting with her cousin, Miss Julia Chance, in their home on Water street.

Edward S. Walls, Water street merchant, who occupies an adjoining building, was painfully burned about the hands and arms, as he made heroic efforts to extinguish the flames which enveloped the aged Centreville woman. But for his bravery Mrs. Connolly probably would have been instantly burned to death. With his bare hands, terribly seared and scorched, he extinguished the fire which nearly consumed her clothing, and gave her a fighting chance for life.

Chestertown, Feb. 13—Prominent business men of Rock Hall have organized what is known as the Rock Hall Progressive Association, for the development of local business and civic interests. Officers were elected as follows: President, G. Ellsworth Leary vice president, Hyman Meyer; secretary, Edwin Smith, and treasurer, Reuben Rodney. A large membership is sought in order that all interests may have a part in the development of that section. For some time there has been felt the need of better streets and other improvements and since the establishment of the Rock Hall-Bay Shore ferry and the completion of a State road from Chestertown to the ferry Rock Hall has become important to tourists, many being attracted because of its location on the Chesapeake and its proximity to Baltimore.

MAKING YOUR EYES SPRINT
—what a price you pay!

Forcing defective eyes to see is like trying to keep up with a champion sprinter—both take a tremendous toll of nervous energy.

You yourself, perhaps, are making far-sighted or near-sighted eyes give clear vision in spite of their defects.

The price you pay is too great!
