ETIQUETTE by Flo

Readers desiring personal points of Etiquette or heart affairs may write Flo. care of this newspaper, enclosing a self addressed and stamped envelope.

Dear Miss Flo:—Should a wedding present be sent before or after the wdding, if the donor receives no invitation to the wedding? V. C.

A wedding gift should be sent before the wedding. If not, a letter explaining the delay should be sent.

Dear Miss Flo:—When traveling on a Pullman car, is it considered proper for a lady to go into the dressing room attired in a negligee or a kimona? Thank you. S. W.

It is quite all right for a lady to go into the dressing room of a pullman car in the morning and in the evening in a negligee.

Dear Miss Flo:—Is it considered good form for a gentleman to make calls with his fiancee? Is it necessary for him to do so? B. G.

It is not necessary—nor is it correct for a gentleman to make calls with his fiancee. Except, of course, when they return visits paid her by members or friends of his family.

Dear Miss Flo:—When a bachelor wishes to entertain a few of his friends—both ladies and gentlemen—is it necessary for him to arange to have a chaperone? B. B.

Yes. When an unmarried man entertains he should ask a married woman of his acquaintance to act as chaperone. She should be the first person invited.

Dear Miss Flo:—In a crowded train with no seats available, is it proper for a woman who is ill to request a gentleman to give up his seat? S. C.

A woman who is really quite ill should not hesitate to ask a gentleman to give up his seat.

Diagnosis

"My dear sir, what you need is a complete rest."

"But, doctor, I retired from business three years ago, and haven't done any work since."

"Ah, then I have located the sea of trouble. You must have some employment to keep your mind occupied!"

A small boy's composition on George Washington:

Washington was a boy who lived on a big farm. He went fishing and swimmin and lived in the woods, he killed some Indians and a cat. He losed his temper and choped down a cherry tree in blome. He grew up to be a eksplorer.

A Poem in Memory of

Of all the surprises
There's nothing to compare,
With treading in the darkness
On a step that isn't there!

The world's O. K. when you smoke P. A.

LOOK for the silver lining in every P. A. smoke-cloud. Notice how the little old world takes on a rosier tint when you pick P. A. for a pal. For a fact, Men, Prince Albert holds options on jimmy-pipe joy in every land. It's got a half-nelson on pipe-pleasure, and no mistake.

There's no deep, dark secret about the why of all this . . . P.A. is great tobacco. Time-tested. Tongue-tested. Mild as a May morning, cool as a breeze off the water, P. A. can't tamper with your tongue or pester your palate. (The Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch.)

When that cool, fragrant smoke percolates up the pipe-stem, troubles take to the tall timber. Pipe-peeves vanish in a P. A. smoke-screen. You're sitting on top of the world . . . and the view is simply grand. Just never was a tobacco like good old P. A.

Many a man who thought he never could smoke a pipe is now a loyal P. A. fan. You see, the tobacco makes all the difference in the world. Right now, head for the nearest shop where they hand out P. A. sunshine in tidy red tins. Get next to some really friendly tobacco.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!
