ETIQUETTE by Flo

Readers desiring personal points of Etiquette or heart affairs may write Flo, care of this newspaper, enclosing a self addressed stamped envelope.

Dear Miss Flo—A gentleman friend is in the hospital. Would it be goo form for me to visit him with my mother? (2)May I take him anything Thank you. V. C.

* * *

It would be quite correct for you to visit him with your mother. You may take him books, magazines, flowers, fruit, etc.

Dear Miss Flo—When a gentleman is walking with a lady, and she speaks to an acquaintance whom he does not know is it necessary for him to speak also—or just raise his hat? (2)If they stop to converse, is it necessary for her to make an introduction? B. M.

* * *

It is not necessary for the gentleman to speak. He merely raises his hat. An introduction is not necessary if they only stop for a moment. However, it is not considered bad form.

Dear Miss Flo—If a lady enters a crowded car with an escort, and a gentleman gives her his seat, does her escort thank him, or does the lady? Thanks. C. S.

* * *

The lady should thank the gentleman and so should her escort, who must also raise his hat.

Dear Miss Flo—When standing in line to get theatre tickets should a gentleman offer his place to a lady? M. M.

* * *

It is not necessary for him to offer his place in line to the lady. In this instance it's first come—first served.

Dear Miss Flo—When no bread and butter is served, where should the bread that is not buttered be placed, on the tablecloth or on the dinner plate? Thank you. B. B.

If possible, the bread should be placed on the dinenr plate. However, if the dinner plate is too crowded, the unbuttered bread may be placed on the tablecloth. The buttered piece must always remain on the dinner plate.

SHORE NEWS

Georgetown, Feb. 25—While upward of 8,000 men, women and children filed past the open gateway of the Sussex county jail here this morning, the body of Harry Butler, 21-year-old Negro executed for an assault on Elnora Steinmetz, 12-year-old white girl swung from the end of a heavy rope. The body was suspended for a few minutes less than two hours. It was then cut down, placed in a coffin and sent to the home of the youth's parents, at Cannons Crossing, Bridgeville.

Butler walked up the steps of the scaffold at 10:03 o'clock. The noose was immediately adjusted by Deputy Sheriff Bud Cox, of Sussex county, and William J. Parkhill, guard at the New Castle county workhouse near Wilmington.

Chestertown, Feb. 25—Members of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company are arranging to celebrate the reopening of Firemens' Hall on March 9 with a big banquet and reunion.

Invitations will be issued to all active and honorary members of the company and the board of town commissioners will be special guests of the occasion, which will prove one of the chief events of an unusually active social season here during the winter.

Work on remodeling the building has practically been completed and when the place is thrown open to public inspection it will convince those interested that Chestertown has one of the finest firehouses on the Shore and that the cost of remodeling has been well spent.

The entire first floor has been converted into spacious quarters for the two fire trucks and other apparatus, all floors having been laid with concrete.

The second floor has been converted into sleeping quarters for the two members of the company who will be on duty at night; a large reading room equipped with billiard tables, radio and other attractions has been arranged. and spacious offices have been made for the town council and water board.

A new plant to heat the building has been installed and the various compartments have been so arranged that they may be thrown into one large hall for public functions or town entertainments.

Give me a pipe and Prince Albert

GIVE me a pipe and Prince Albert. I want to be happy, you bet. I know what I want when I want it . . . a smoke without grief or regret. Funny how a fellow wants to break into poetry when he's happy as a lark.

Well, that's ME all over. I've discovered the one tobacco that makes a jimmy-pipe a pal for life. Good old P. A., the chummiest tobacco that ever nestled in the bowl of a briar. Cool and sweet and fragrant, just never was a tobacco like P. A.

I start in right after breakfast and hit it up till I sign off for the night. It never bites my tongue or parches my throat. They tell me the Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch. Whatever it is, I can testify they're out!

Here's a hot tip on a cool smoke—get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert now. Tuck a neat wad of it into your old jimmy-pipe and make fire with a match. That's the formula . . . simple as falling out of bed. That's why I'm pipe-happy, Brother.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!
