The Defendants proceedings being as follows — We began for the Defendant at a bounded white Oake proved by the Oath of Ed. Seale to be the North side of a corner tree of Moores plaines and the beginning tree of Scotts Lott from thence we ran North North west two hundred perches for the length of Scotts Lott and from thence continued the said line one hundred and fifteen perches for the length of the line of Moores plains but found no bounded tree but Ed. Seale informed us of a bounded white Oake which stood ninety eight perches out of the course which Ed. Seale swore to be another bounded tree of Moores plains and from the Oak we ran North North west two hundred and fifty five perches which brought us to the stump of a white Oake which the plaintiff claimed for laying out his predecessors granted by Ed. Seale to be the tree they first began at for the laying out of Upper Quilting and from the said tree we ran east North east one hundred perches according to certificate thence North North west one hundred and forty five perches thence East South west two hundred perches thence by a direct course to the first bound
