Many a fellow proposes to an heiress on his knees in the hope that she will put him on his feet.

Oboy! - - - - Whatta Life!!

The Prince of Wales, credited with being England's best advertising bet in his tumbling act from galloping steeple-chase horses, has a real national rival—now that John Coolidge, son of the President, has taken up boxing at Amherst college. Right now John is nursing a rather "ouchy" nose and the Prince is carrying his left arm in a sling—the former having lost a three round battle in a boxing tourney and the latter from a bad spill—his thirteenth fall in a race.
