DEL-MAR-VA ASSO. WANTS PHOTOGRAPHS

Invites Amateurs in all Parts of the Peninsula to Submit Prints for Use

If you have been shooting a kodak-making films and prints of your section of the Eastern Shore, here is a chance to make your work count for the advancement of your community.

The Del-Mar- Va Eastern Shore Association needs clear, clean-cut photographs,the larger the better of tpyical scenes, town and country views, waterscapes, vistas of improved roads, pictures of crops, crop planting and crop harvesting of all sorts of historic spots and edifices, good homes of various classes; three masters, four masters and other water craft and scenes depicting marine occupations, crabbing, fishing, tonging and dredging oysters, etc.; chicken ranching, dairying, fruit orchards, berry and garden patches, etc.

Only unmounted prints should be submitted, and on the back of each should be the title and description of the subject and the full name and address of the author of the picture. For such pictures as the association selects for its use, it will pay not to exceed $1.00 per print; less if in its judgement the photograph is worth less. In the case of broad panoramic pictures of outstanding merit, the association will pay somewhat more if required. Public credit will be given to the author of each picture accepted for purchase by the association, in addition to payment therefor.

To the photographer, whether he be amateur or professional, submitting the largest number of acceptable prints for use by the association, a special prize of $25 will be awarded, in addition to the purchase of the prints. Only one such prize is offered.

Pictures submitted for examination should be mailed to the "Publicity Director, Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association, Salisbury, Maryland" in carefully boarded, wrapped packages, clearly marked with the return address of the author. They positively must be mailed flat and not rolled. Rolled pictures will not be examined for selection. In all cases wherein it is desired by the authors that unaccepted prints shall be returned to them, this fact is to be noted in a separate letter addressed to the Publicity Director.

Photographers will understand that their submission of photographs for purchase by the association shall entitle the latter to make unlimited use of the print. No copyrighted pictures will be purchased unless the author waives his copyright rights.

The offer of the association to purchase prints is limited for the period between March 15 to May 1, 1926. Selection will be made promptly in the order in which photographers are received and all unselected photographs requested to be returned by authors will be mailed back promptly at the expense of the association.

Baby Clinic at Greensboro

On March 26th, at the new M. E. church house, Greensboro, a conference will be held to which all mothers are urged to bring their children for a free medical examination. A representative of the Bureau of Child Hygiene will be present to examine the children. Hours are 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. Children up to 7 years of age are accepted. Come and bring the babies.

Mrs. Pryer—And she prides herself on her good taste, doesn't she?

Mrs. Guyer—She certainly does, my dear. And say, I wish you could see her husband!

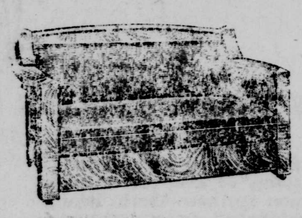

Children are constantly facing tests and examinations. If they can see clearly and if their eyes are free from strain, they will pass more easily.

Seeing and understanding are closely related. Regular eye examination will help to insure your child's progress.

Make an appointment today.
