MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

SAYINGS OF LINCOLN

Let none falter who thinks he is right.

It is no pleasure to me to triumph over any one.

I do not impune the motives of anyone opposed to me.

I have not willingly planted a thorn in any man's bosom.

All that I am, all that I hope to be, I owe to my mother.

There is no grievance that is a fit object of redress by mob law.

Suspicion and jealousy never did help any man in any situation.

God must like common people or he would not have made so many of them.

For thirty years I have been a temperance man and I am too old to change now.

When you have written a wrathful letter, put it in the stove.

A private soldier has as much right to justice as a major general.

Faith in God is indispensible to successful statesmanship.

Eastern Shore Happenings

The name of Samuel E. Shannahan, president of the Easton Maryland Rotary Club will be presented at the conference for governor of the 34th Distrist in Rotary. This is the first time the name of an Eastern Shore Rotarian has been brought out in connection with the governorship in Rotary activity, and it is understood he will have the united support of all the Maryland clubs.

Crisfield, March 22.— Four raids were made last night by Prohibition Agent Jesse Bratton, Sheriff Daugherty and local police on local stores suspected of liquor traffic. The first was made upon a pool room and confectionery store known as the Idle Hour, where about one gallon of moonshine was found. The proprietor escaped. Raids were then made upon Read's Restaurant, Due Drop Inn and the Rendezvous, but no liquor was discovered.

Liquor is reported as having been flowing freely in Crisfield for some time, but few arrests have been made. News of the intended raids is apparently flashed down the line and the efforts are fruitless as a rule. Much of the liquor is said to be reaching here from the western shore of Maryland by boats.

Seaford, Del., March 19.—A general assessment of Seaford property is now under way, and the assessment will remain in force until the next valuation five years hence. It will take the assessors from two to three weeks to complete the work.

The State Highway Commission will begin construction on the old stage-coach road from Concord to Hardscrapple this spring. This road will join the Laurel-Georgetown road at a point about half-way between the two towns and will give the farmers of that section a stone road to Seaford via Concord and Blades, and shorten the distance from Seaford to Georgetown about two and one-half miles.

Delmar, Del., March 21.—Mrs. Augusta Veasey, one of Delmar's best known residents, died suddenly at her home, the "Stone House," yesterday morning. Influenza was the chief cause of death. She was the widow of Theodore Veasey and a daughter of the late Elizabeth and Burton Culver.

Surviving Mrs. Veasey are three sisters, Mrs. J. J. Elliott, Mrs. Florence McGinnis, of Delmar, and Mrs. J. F. Kass, of Philadelphia. Funeral services will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon and will be conducted by the Rev. J. W. Jones. Interment will be in the Methodist Episcopal cemetery.

Georgetown, March 21—If the plans of Washington capitalists materialize, Bethany Beach, the State's only ocean resort other than Rehoboth Beach, is going to grow within the next two years by leaps and bounds and become one of the most popular spots along the coast of Delaware and New Jersey.

A miniature Florida boom is expected and thousands of dollars worth of real estate is expected to change hands within a few months.

George B. McClellan, Washington attorney, is looking after the interests of the capitalists and already options have been taken on several large tracts along the beach front and running back possibly a half mile.

Cambridge, March 21.—Members of the congregation of Zion Church today witnessed the burning of the mortgage on the property. Bishop W. F. McDowell, assisted by District Superintendent W. E. Gunby, the Rev. L. W. Layfield and the Rev. W. E. Habbart, the pastor, officiated.

The present church, which occupies a beautiful lot in the heart of the residential section, was erected fourteen years ago to replace the building on Race street which was destroyed in the big fire of 1910.

Centreville, Md., March 21.—James Brown, 87, died from a heart attack while at breakfast in his home, Ripley, near here, yesterday. Mr. Brown was one of the oldest residents of Queen Anne's county. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock in St. Luke's Episcopal Church at Church Hill. Burial will be in Church Hill cemetery.

Mr. Brown was president of the board of trustees of the county almshouse and a director of the Centreville National Bank. He is survived by two sons, James P. and Ernest B. Brown, and one daughter, Mrs. Madison B. Bordley. Mr. Brown's wife died in 1913.

Chestertown, March 21.—Fire this morning destroyed two dwellings, a store and burned a large hole in the roof of a third dwelling in Rock Hall before it was gotten under control by the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company.

The blaze originated in the store attached to the dwelling belonging to B. F. Sewell and is believed to have been caused by mice gnawing matches, as all fires had been carefully attended to before Sewell closed his store.

The flames spread to the home of Thomas Elbourn, owned by Romie Fostwell; and to a third dwelling, which was saved by hard work.

The damage to the Sewell dwelling and store property is $2,000, partly covered by insurance. On the Elbourn and Fostwell property, $1,500. Damage to the third dwelling is slilght.

Dover, Del., March 22.— After a disappearance of forty-three days, the body of Victor Graham, 9-year-old son of former Sheriff and Mrs. Chas. W. Graham, of this town, was found today in Silver Lake, where it was supposed the boy was dorwned. Fred Jones and Samuel Spruance, of Dover, started out in a boat this morning and circled the lake. On nearing a cove they saw an object at first thought to be a stump, but drawing near found the body of the boy. Coroner Ennis and the State authorities were notified. The coroner summoned a jury, and, after hearing the statement of the two men and Delbert Carty, a friend of the Graham lad, who was with him on Sunday, February 7, when he disappeared, a verdict of death by drowning was rendered.

"Don't you want me to tell you about heaven?"

"Naw, I want it to be a surprise."

MAKING YOUR EYES SPRINT
—what a price you pay!

Forcing defective eyes to see is like trying to keep up with a champion sprinter—both take a tremendous toll of nervous energy.

You yourself, perhaps, are making far-sighted or near-sighted eyes give clear vision in spite of their defects.

The price you pay is too great!
