At a Court held upon Bill the 10th of Nov. 1706

Edward Lasselles } Mary Lasselles & John Bramock of Dorchester County John Bramock } Gent was attached to answer unto Edward Lasselles of a plea of the Case upon the Case and whereupon the said Edward by William Bayard his attorney complains that whereas the said John upon the twenty eighth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand and seven hundred and three stood Justly indebted unto the said Edward in the sum of Forty pounds Eighteen shillings and four pence — and he the said John in Consideration thereof did afterwards to the City of Annapolis the day and year aforesaid at the Port of Annapolis in Anne Arundell County draw forth his Bills of Exchange all of the same tenour and date for the said sum of Forty pounds Eighteen shillings and four pence on Mr. John Hyde Merchant — in London and payable at thirty days sight unto the said Edward or his order and did then and there afterwards upon himself and faith fully promise unto the said Edward that in Case the said Bills or any of them the others unpaid should not be answered and accordingly to the tenour thereof he the said John would well and truly content pay the same with all costs and damages thereon unto the said Edward or order when thereunto required and the said Edward in fact saith that afterwards that is to say on the seventh day of July then next following the second of the said Bills being after thirty days sight thereof and some of the other three paid was upon refusal of payment of the said Bill by the said John Hyde according to the tenor thereof in the presence of Thomas Laurence Notary publick duly admitted and sworne and dwelling in London in the King dom of England as by the Instrument of protest duly attested and here in Court ready to be produced may more at large appear yet notwithstanding the said John his promise and assumption aforesaid and the said Bills regarding but fraudulently minding and intending him the said Edward in this behalf craftily and subtilly to deceive and defraud the said sum of Forty pounds Eighteen shillings and four pence to the said Edward after afterwards that is to say upon the first day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and four at the Port of Annapolis and at several other days and places
