"MY SPLIT WITH KEARNS"

By Jack Dempsey, the Heavyweight Champion of the World.

In this wonderful story which will appear exclusively in the daily New York American, the Champion takes the public into his confidence and relates the whole story of his career, his hopes, disappointments and victories which led to fame and fortune.

Here are a few of the highlights he tells about which will appear in twelve installments beginning with Monday's issue, March 22d: HOW HE WILL BEAT WILLS—THEN TUNNEY. WHAT HE THINKS OF KEARNS AS A SECOND AND MANAGER. HOW HE FEARED GUNMEN AT THE GIBBONS BATTLE. WHY HE DID NOT REALIZE HE HAD WON FROM GUNBOAT SMITH. "I ALWAYS REGRETTED LETTING KEARNS MANAGE ME." HIS DESPERATE BATTLE WITH FIRPO, THE "WILD BULL."

If you are unable to obtain a copy of the DAILY NEW YORK AMERICAN from your local newsdealer, send 50c and we will send the New York American for one month. CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT, NEW YORK AMERICAN, 238 WILLIAM STREET, NEW YORK CITY. Adv.
