ETIQUETTE by FLO

Readers desiring personal points of Etiquette or heart affairs may write Flo, care of this newspaper, enclosing a self addressed and stamped envelope.

Dear Miss Flo:—Should a bride wear her veil at the wedding reception, or should she remove it? How long must she remain with her guests before preparing to leave for her honeymoon? Thank you. V. M.

* * *

The bride does not remove her veil at the reception. She should give her guests from one and one half to two hours.

Dear Miss Flo:—How should a young lady reply to a gentleman when he thanks her for a dance? What does she say when she does not wish to dance? N. P.

* * *

She smiles and nods an acknowledgement, or she may say that she also enjoyed it. When refusing a dance, the lady may say, "Im sorry, Mr.———, but I am quite tired.

Dear Miss Flo:—While a widow is in mourning for her husband, is it correct for her to wear jewelry? (2) How long should she wear black? N. C.

* * *

Jewelry should not be worn during the period when the widow is wearing mourning. The usual length of time is one year.

Dear Miss Flo:—When a gentleman "cuts in," and asks a young lady to finish the dance with him, may she refuse? May she dance with one partner all evening? R. W .

* * *

It is considered rude for the girl to refuse to change partners when another "cuts in," no matter how particularly she wants to dance with her partner. However, if the dance has not been very long in progress, the lady may say, "The next time we pass here." It is not good form for a couple to dance together so many times as to make themselves conspicuous.

Dear Miss Flo:—Is it good form to display gifts at the wedding? Thank you. M. C.

* * *

Gifts may be displayed at the wedding. However, the donors' cards should be removed.

Dear Miss Flo:—Is it proper for a young girl's boy friend to ask her how old she is? May she ask him his age? Thank you. F. G.

* * *

A very young girl does not often object to telling her age, although it is rather a personal question. While they are on the subject, the girl may as well learn his age. If they are intimate friends, there can be no objection.

Notices have been sent out by Colonel Earl I. Borwn, U. S. Engineer for the Wilmington district, announcing that the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, which is now undergoing reconstruction, will be closed to navigation for six weeks on March 31.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Georgetown, Del., Mar. 25—Edward Hammond, 82, Civil War veteran, died at his home in Milford, after a brief illness. Mr. Hammond saw service in the battle of Gettysburg and was with Sherman on his march to the sea.

A musical play dealing with a Boer subject, written for Grand Opera, has received special mention by the president of the Arts and Letters Society of America with offices in Philadelphia. The name of the opera is: "The Love Of An Enemy." It is written in eleven parts with no choruses, the author is Miss Louise de Ginther, of Easton.

Laurel, Del., March 26.—John H. Baker, for several years chief of police here, and later in Dover, is accused in a warrant sworn out by his brother, Ollie Baker, of stealing his automobile.

The theft occurred early last night. Police went to John Baker's home, but he evaded arrest by jumping out of a window, dressed only in night clothes, and hiding in a thicket, where he spent the night, as he was seen crawling from the underbrush early this morning. Later he was seen dressed and in an auto traveling with all possible speed. Police were notified, but Baker had had two hours' start. He was last heard of in Princess Anne, Md.

Chestertown, March 26—Mrs. Augusta Eccleston Slay, 82, wife of former State Senator William M. Slay, died at her home here last night, following a stroke of paralysis sustained early in the week. She was a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in the State, being the eldest daughter of the late Richard and Caroline Marsh Hinson.

Since early girlhood she had been an active member of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Chestertown.

Mrs. Slay was a relative of the late Rev. Dr. John H. Eccleston, prominent Protestant Episcopal clergyman of Baltimore. Besides her husband she leaves a nephew, Richard Hinson Rogers, a member of the local bar. Mrs. Mary Rogers Henry, wife of Lieut.-Col. Guy Henry, of the United States Army and the daughters of the late Richard D. Hinson, now residing in Wilmington, are nieces. Funeral services were held from her home Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Charles L. Atwater, of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, with interment in Chester Cemetery. The pallbearers were William H. Brown, of Baltimore; Judge Lewin W. Wickes, Eben F. Perkins, Allan A. Harris, P. A. M. Brooks and R. Hinson Rogers.

Federalsburg, March 26—The Rev. Frank C. MacSorley, for the last eleven years pastor of Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, Federalsburg, who is seriously ill with bronchial pneumonia, will retire from active ministerial work at the present session of the Wilmington Conference, now in session at Dover, Del. This decision, made imperative by his serious illness, was reached by his family and forwarded today to the conference. Mr. MacSorley has reached 75 years, fifty-three of which have been spent in continuous church service.

That Centreville's present Board of Town Commissioners, composed of Alfred Green, Howard E. Price and John M. Mason, will be unanimously re-elected on Monday, April 3, is now the sentiment expressed by local voters with the balloting only a little more than one week distant.

In striking contrast to the usual pre-election spirit manifested in county primaries, not a single avowed candidate has entered the field, although it is understood that the incumbents will consent to serve, if they are selected.

"Have a Camel"

No cigarette satisfies the taste like a Camel

HAVE a Camel, and let your taste be satisfied! Millions of experienced smokers just wouldn't buy or smoke any cigarettes but Camels.

Camels are so different from other cigarettes. So glorious in flavor and fragrance. Because of their choice tobaccos and perfect blending, Camels are all pleasure, pure golden contentment. Nothing is omitted to make Camel quality the biggest sensation in the history of smoking. Camels give you the utmost in cigarette enjoyment.

Right here you have the reason why Camel makes—and keeps—so many friends: Camels satisfy the taste as no other does. They never tire the taste or leave a cigaretty after-taste no matter how freely you smoke them. And what a glowing contentment their goodness brings! Camels are the only cigarettes in the world that have the completely satisfying quality. For your taste's sake, demand them. Their pleasure-bringing goodness is your right. Have a Camel!

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years.
Sold by all druggists.
