and the said Sir William Keyrwood by his attorney Comes and Defends the force and Injury when etc. and saith that he ought not to answer the said Richard Bennett his Plaint aforesaid because he saith that the said William Keyrwood in his lifetime did lease unto him the said Richard Bennett the premises in the said Declaration mentioned for the term of twenty years yet to come and unexpired by virtue whereof the said Richard Bennett did enter into the premises and was thereof possessed and so being possessed thereof the said William Keyrwood his heirs and assigns did enter into the said premises and the said Richard Bennett therefrom did expel and put out and the said Richard Bennett so being expelled and put out the said William Keyrwood his heirs and assigns the premises aforesaid did hold and enjoy and the said Richard Bennett the premises aforesaid did hold and enjoy and the said William Keyrwood his heirs and assigns the said Richard Bennett therefrom did expel and put out and the said Richard Bennett