MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

IN SELECTED POETRY

Why be afraid of death, as though your life were breath?
Death but anoints your eyes with clay, O glad surprise.
Why should you be forlorn? Death only husks the corn.
Why should you fear to meet the thresher of the wheat?
Is sleep a thing to dread? Yet sleeping, you are dead
'Til you awake and rise, here, or beyond the skies.
Why should it be a wrench to leave your wooden bench?
Why not with happy shout run home when school is out?
The dear ones left behind? O foolish one, and blind,
A day—and you will not meet; a night and you will greet.
This is the death of Death—to breathe away a breath
And know the end of strife, and taste the deathless life.
And joy without a fear, and smiles without a tear,
And work, nor care, nor rest, and find the last the best.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Chestertown, March 31—The soil acidity testing campaign being conducted on the farms of the county under the direction of William G. Smythe, secretary of the County Farm Bureau, to determine the quantity of lime necessary to sweeten the soil, has exceeded all expectations regarding the success of the venture.

More than 2,000 school pupils have participated in the campaign by collecting small containers of soil, and there was such a demand for these containers that the secretary was compelled to order more.

That twenty cents a basket will be the prevailing contract price for tomatoes this season, was announced last week when county canners made their first offer to growers on this basis.

Asserting that the present market price of canned goods does not even warrant the twenty-cent rate, E. Elmer Langrall, of J. Langrall & Bro., Inc., one of the largest pea and tomato canners on the Del-Mar-Va peninsula, Friday cited three outstanding causes for this condition:

1—Tremendous overproduction last year in the four staples, including peas, corn, stringless beans, and tomatoes.

2—Importation of two million cases of tomatoes from Italy into the United States during the year 1925.

3—The open market evil, which permitted many canners to pack 10c and 15c tomatoes and undersell packers who were contracted for 30c tomatoes.

Mr. Langrall frankly admitted yesterday that his firm had seriously considered closing the plant this year, just as was necessary in 1921. But finally the decision was reached to curtail the acreage approximately one-half and thereby reduce the pack.

Seaford, Del., April 2—Joseph Elbert Collins, 20, negro schoolteacher at Cokesbury, Dorchester county, Maryland, was committed to Georgetown jail last night charged with arson. It is charged Collins set fire to the home of James F. Hall, a negro, in Broad Creek Hundred, March 20. After arriving at jail Collins made a full confession, implicating his mother, Gertrude Collins. Seafold Hall, and a negress were asleep in the home at the time it was fired and barely escaped, the dwelling and contents being destroyed. Hall recently married Collins' mother. Police believe Collins and his mother planned Hall's death with the idea that the mother being legally married to Hall would be his heir. Hall is a well-to-do negro farmer. Collins' mother admitted accompanying him to Hall's home on the night of the fire, police say.

The Board of Governors of the Eastern Shore State Hospital has advertised for bids for the erection of an Administration building to be built this year if the cost is within the appropriation made for this purpose.

Plans for the building have been prepared by Henry Powell Hopkins and Allan Burton, architects, and will be available for contractors on the fifth of April. The bids call for the deposit of a certified check of $5,000 indicating that the cost of the building will be about $100,000.

The contractors are to deliver their bids to the office of the architects by eleven o'clock on the morning of April 16th.

Members of Good Will Fire Company, Centreville, will attend a special meeting of the volunteer organization next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, to decide upon the type of fire fighting equipment to be purchased to replace the Studebaker truck, which company officials assert has passed the bounds of further service.

At a meeting last Tuesday evening the unanimous decision was reached to buy a new pumping outfit, and figures mentioned, tentatively, range between $2,500 and $6,000.

Crisfield, April 1—Although reports are current that the Pennsylvania's tentative plans are to remove two trains from the Crisfield line, no definite action has been taken by the railroad officials.

Keen opposition to such reduction in the service is being manifested by Crisfield business interests. Should an attempt be made to operate only one train daily from Crisfield instead of three, as at present, it is apparent that local organizations will unite against such a change.

Dover, March 31—The State Board of Education announces that in view of the fact that a proposed exhibition of education and social economy at the sesqui-centennial at Philadelphia, will cost $3,000 and no funds being available, that such exhibit will have to be abandoned.

The Murphy Memorial School for orphans in Dover, will practically be completed within thirty days, and the institution will be ready for occupancy within six weeks.

Maryland will have a new resort on the Atlantic Ocean.

On April 10, construction work on a new sixty-foot concrete boulevard, five miles long, for Maridel Beach City new two-million dollar building project, located a few miles north of Ocean City, Maryland, will begin under the supervision of the Isle of Wight Land Company, of this county, backed by a prominent New Jersey syndicate located at Atlantic City, N. J., according to an announcement made public here today.

The proposed new resort is the outcome of plans made by local interests more than five years ago.

The new city will be called Maridel Beach, the northern section of the city being located near the Delaware state line. It is situated directly on the Atlantic Ocean front in Maryland on what is known as the Isle of Wight tract.

The concrete boulevard which will be started Saturday week, will extend from end to end throughout the new city, will connect with Baltimore Avenue, Ocean City, Md., on the lower end and with the duPont Highway, via a paved county road when completed to the upper end, making a direct connection with good roads leading to all parts of Maryland and Delaware.

Dover, April 1—At the weekly meeting of Dover Rotary Club nominations for officers to be elected at the last meeting of the club this month resulted in the names of Dr. Thomas R. Brown, W. Charles Boyer and C. Burton Sypherd being selected for president; H. H. Hanson, secretary, and Hughett K. McDaniel, treasurer.

MAKING YOUR EYES SPRINT
—what a price you pay!

Forcing defective eyes to see is like trying to keep up with a champion sprinter—both take a tremendous toll of nervous energy.

You yourself, perhaps, are making far-sighted or near-sighted eyes give clear vision in spite of their defects.

The price you pay is too great!

Have Your Eyes Examined.

Princess Anne, April 3—Languishing for months in a cell of the county jail here, conscience has at last led William Smith, alias C. N. Walker, to confess one murder and admit witnessing another committed he says, by a pal.

Smith has been in jail here since last Thanksgiving, when he, with Ernest T. McCready, was arrested for the slaying of John (Sambo) Sterling, at Cash Corner, near Crisfield, while the farmer sat at supper with his wife. The charge was fired from a shot gun through a glass pane of the Sterling home. Its effect was instantaneous.
