John Pendleton
Mary Depton

Whereas there was a certain Action in the Nature of a Writ of Debt in the Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster wherein the said Mary Depton was Plaintiff and the said John Pendleton Defendant for the Sum of Fifteen Hundred Pounds of Debt, and upon the said Action the said Mary Depton appeared by her Attorney and the said John Pendleton appeared in Person and Pleaded Nil Debet to the said Action and Issue was joined between the said Parties upon the said Plea, and afterwards the said Mary Depton appeared by her Attorney and the said John Pendleton appeared in Person and the said Action was Tried by a Jury at the Bar of the said Court upon the said Issue, and Thereupon Judgment was given for the said Mary Depton to the said Action and Damages by the said Court according to the Nature of the said Action, and the said John Pendleton did then Pray a Writ of Error to the said Judgment in the said Court of Queen's Bench, and the said Mary Depton appeared by her Attorney and the said John Pendleton appeared in Person and Prayed that the said Judgment might be Affirmed, and upon Hearing of the said Writ of Error and the Matter thereof it was Adjudged that the said Judgment should be Affirmed and Execution thereof be Granted to the said Mary Depton, and the said John Pendleton did then Pray a Writ of Error to the House of Peers in Parliament to Reverse the said Judgment, and upon Hearing of the said Writ of Error and the Matter thereof it was Adjudged that the said Judgment should be Affirmed and Execution thereof be Granted to the said Mary Depton, and the said John Pendleton did then Pray a Writ of Error to the Queen's Bench in Ireland to Reverse the said Judgment