LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Cecil Blake spent Monday in Georgetown.

Miss Anne Anthony spent Saturday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Myra Jackson visited in Goldsboro on Sunday.

Master Joseph Lee Parker is ill with measles this week.

Mr. Asbury Greaves and family spent Sunday in Salisbury.

Miss Louise Gray spent two days of last week in Baltimore.

Dr. D. O. Geerge spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Baltimore.

Mr. Harry Cooper of Williston was a Baltimore visitor last week.

Mr. Marc Breeding made a business trip to Baltimore this morning.

Mr. J. Owen Knotts made a business trip to Baltimore this morning.

Mr. Reuben Rairigh of Marcus Hook spent the week end with his family.

Mr. Louis Porter of Ocean City visited in Denton the first part of this week.

Mrs. Emily Swiss was a Baltimore visited in Baltimore a few days last week.

Mr. Purt of Philadelphia has been visiting Mrs. Sallie Covey on Riverton avenue.

Mr. Walter Rutter visited his daughter, Miss Grace Rutter, in Baltimore last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sennett made a business trip to Chincoteague Island, Va., on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Beniah Baker are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby girl.

Miss Adeline Smith of Paterson, N. J., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Roe this week.

Mrs. Lawrence Neighbors of Baltimore visited Denton friends the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sparks of Hillsboro were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Straughn on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sloan of Hillsboro were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Cooper Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Redden entertained the former's niece and children of Philadelphia last week end.

Mrs. Charles Jester of Newark, Del., who has been spending some time with Denton relatives, returned Monday.

Mr. Jesse Reed, of near town, who has been seriously ill, is reported as being a little improved at this writing.

Mrs. Calvert Merriken and son Billy spent last Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sapp, in Harrington .

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans of Washington, who attended the funeral of Mrs. James Trice, returned to their home on Wednesday.

Mr. Joe Reed of Chester was called to the bedside of his brother, Mr. Jesse Reed, the latter part of last week, who was dangerously ill.

Mr. Louis Cole of Baltimore is spending some time with his father, Mr. S. Frank Cole, recuperating from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Scott and daughter Betty Jane of Marcus Hook were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunham.

Miss Rebecca Cohee spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cohee. Miss Cohee is employed by the duPont Company in Wilmington.

The Loyal Sons Bible Class will meet with Mr. E. D. Kimmey on Thursday night, May 6th.. Every member is urged to be present and enjoy this occasion.

Dr. Ward, president of Western Maryland College, and Prof. Isanogle, one of the faculty, were recent visitors in Caroline County, visiting the High Schools.

Mrs. G. Herbert Wilson left Tuesday for Annapolis where she will represent the Denton Community Club at the Maryland State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Miss Mary Redden has returned home and will take Miss Pauline Nichols' grade in Ridgely school, Miss Nichols having resigned because of her approaching wedding.

Rev. Melvin E. Wheatley, Mrs. F. J. Wright, Mrs. W. I. Norris and Miss Ruth Wheatley attended a district meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society at Betterton on Thursday.

The Misses Ruth Krabill, Helen George, Esther Rairigh and Marguerite Young were among the young people from Denton who attended the Sunday School conference in Greensboro on Tuesday.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. I. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Spicher, Mrs. George McDaniel and J. W. Krabil, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Baltimore attending the district meeting of the Brethren Church.

HARMONY

Six of Mrs. Mollie Stoery's eight children and their families gave her a birthday surprise. Those present were Mr. Eugene Ferrens nad family, Mr. Harry Ferrens and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Franthom, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ferrens and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Ferrens and daughter, of Church Hill, Mr. Roland Ferrens and family. Two daughters, one in Wilmington and one in Philadelphia, could not be present. A very pleasant evening was spent and ice cream and cake were served in abundance. Those present numbered twenty-eight. They left at a late hour hoping to be able to pleasantly surprise her on many more birthdays.

The patrons of Harmony School held their monthly meeting on Monday evening. They gave a play and a free treat. The Todd brothers furnished the music which was enjoyed by all.

Miss Blanche Baker spent the last of the week with Mrs. Clarence Wright.

Mrs. Olin Thomas injured one of her eyes in going under a tree. A twig struck her in the eye.

Dr. Duhadaway is very ill at this writing.

GOLDSBORO

Due to revival services which begin in the Methodist Church Sunday, May 9th, Mother's Day will be observed this coming Sunday. Special sermon by the Pastor at 10:45, and appropriate exercises of song and recitation in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Marian Jarman and Mrs. Emma Martin spent Sunday afternoon and evening in Dover.

Mrs. Myra Jackson, of Denton, was a Sunday visitor in Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Newnam, of Denton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sapp.

Miss Addie Jarrell, of State Normal School, Towson, Md., was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jarrell, Jr.

We are glad that Mr. Joseph H. Roche is so far recovered in health as to be able to attend to business again.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnson entertained friends over Sunday.

A number of Goldsboro Young People attended the Young People's Conference in the Greensboro Baptist Church, Tuesday, April 27, and report having had a profitable and enjoyable time.

The Sewing Circle was delightfully entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. William Ross.

Mr. George W. Curtis, of Baltimore, was a week-end visitor at the parsonage.

Mr. Elbert Saunders, Alfred Saunders, Mrs. Myra Cordrey and Mrs. William Marvel were Sunday visitors in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shively entertained relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. William Melvin has returned home after spending a week with relatives in Delaware.

Revival services begin the Methodist Church, Sunday, May 9th, in charge of John Moses Baker, the Baltimore evangelist. Mr. Baker has been in the evangelistic work for a number of years, having been successful in a large degree.

We welcome to our community Rev. Harvey Thompson and family. Mr. Thompson is the pastor of the Bethel Christian Holiness Church, and we wish for him every success in his new field of labor.

Rev. W. T. Hartranft and family have moved to Weatherly, Penna., to which place Mr. Hartranft was assigned at the recent session of the Conference.

HILLSBORO

Hilda and Thomas Seward are spending a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. Furbush, near Roe.

Mrs. T. R. Seward is in Philadelphia.

Mr. Harry Messick, Mrs. Messick and daughters, Betty and Anne, of Wilmington, were week-end guests of Mr. W. A. Holt and sisters.

Mr. W. B. Sparks and Mrs. Sparks spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Straughn, Denton.

Mr. A. T. Cahall, Mrs. Cahall, Mr. H. R. Covell and Mrs. Covell attended the burial of Mr. R. E. Baynard in Harrington, Del., Cemetery Sunday afternoon, April 24.

Miss Frances Covell has returned to her work in Centerville, after recuperating for an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Alice Brittingham, of Wilmington, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Edgar Blades.

Mrs. W. P. Taylor has returned home from a visit with friends in Lincoln City, Del.

Hillsboro School will give an entertainment in the school house in Thursday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Knott and little son, were guests of friends in Ridgely on Sunday.

Mr. Charles Chipley, Mrs. Chipley and Mrs. Sproul, of Easton, Mrs. Fishach, of Pittsburgh, Pa., spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lay Beaven.

Miss Ella Pennington spent Thursday in Easton.

Rev. W. P. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. A. T. Cahall, Mr. Chas. Jarrell, Mrs. Jarrell, Mrs. W. B. Sparks, Mr. S. W. Briscoe and Mrs. Briscoe attended the Y. P. Conference in the Baptist church, Greensboro, on Tuesday. The delegates from the M. E. Church were Misses Jane Stayton, Marjorie Sparks, Margaret Briscoe, Messrs. Calvin Anderson, Vincent Briscoe, Ralph Woolford, Benson Skinner.

BURRSVILLE

Mr. Oscar Ivins, of Centerville, who has been visiting Mr. Clark Ivins and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ivins, has returned to his home.

The Chance children visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Chance, in Cambridge Hospital on Tuesday.

Revival services will begin this Sunday evening at the Holiness. The services will be in charge of Rev. Lewis Adams and Mr. George Culver, of Denton, and other Christian workers and the church officials extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend and make these meetings a success.

Rev. A. W. Betts was greeted by an interesting congregation last Sunday afternoon at Piney Church. He will preach at the usual hour every two weeks. He will also conduct services at Union M. P. Church as usual. Everybody is welcome. Rev. Mr. Betts will be glad to greet all of his old friends. Come.

Mr. J. O. Stafford has been attending court in Dover for the past two weeks. He served as a juror.

The remains of Mr. Emmett Baynard of near Centerville, passed through enroute to Hollywood Cemetery, Harrington on Sunday. Another brother, who died in Florida and whose remains were shipped to Delaware, were interred in the same cemetery on Monday. They are survived by an aged mother, Mrs. Emily Cahall Baynard, one sister, Mrs. Kate Smith and Mr. L. Baynard, all of Harrington.

CHOPTANK

Mr. Melvin and Arthur Waldron, of Wilmington, Delaware, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waldron.

Mrs. E. F. Dunham, on breaking a goose egg Staurday, found that it had three yolks . The same goose that laid that egg has laid many double-yolked ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Dulin, of near Chestertown, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldron.

Mr. Charlie Larrimore, of Harrington, Del., spent Friday night with his brother, Mr. A. E. Blades.

Mrs. M. E. Wright and granddaughter Irey, have returned to their home after spending the winter with relatives.

Mr. Vernon Blades and Miss Della Knox spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blades.

Revivals at the M. E. Church came to a close Sunday night. They had very good success in the meetings.

Mrs. Nettie Williamson is on the sick list.

Mr. E. M. Waldron, who has been on the sick list, is much improved at this writing.

Visitors Pleased with Schools

State Supt. of Schools, Dr. A. S. Cook, of Baltimore, County Superintendent G. L. Palmer, of Frederick, and High School Supervisors W. K. Klingaman, of Hagerstown and E. C. Fontaine, of Pocomoke, visited the Caroline high schools during the present week. These visitors were very much impressed with the general organization of the schools, and were especially pleased with Caroline High School, Denton, upon which they made special comment.

S. S. Classes To Give Play

A play entitled "Womanless Wedding" will be given in the high school auditorium on Monday evening, May 10th, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Good Cheer and Ever Ready Bible classes of the M. E. Church.

Come and enjoy a good laugh.

Wedding Gifts of distinction. Sterling, plate, and novelties. Sturmer, Jeweler, Easton, Md. a29-3t

The Sunday evening services at the M. E. church, Denton, will be held at the usual time, with the Rev. Grimes, of the Near East Association, occupying the pulpit.

Wants

Young girl wanted to clerk in store. Inquire at this office.

MORE ABOUT FLOOR COVERINGS

Have you seen them—the new rugs—the new linoleums? We have everything from the large, handsome Axminsters down to the modest little rag rugs so cheering in bedrooms. Then there are the many "in-betweens"—varied kinds and various prices all waiting to improve and beautify your rooms after their annual spring cleaning.

It is wise to see and make your selection from our assortment before it is depleted.
Some charming new furniture, too, awaits you in this department—second floor.

You are always welcome to view things at the store of

LONG & SHORT

Laurel, Del. Federalsburg, Md. Milford, Del

Children are constantly facing tests and examinations. If they can see clearly and if their eyes are free from strain, they will pass more easily.

Seeing and understanding are closely related. Regular eye examination will help to insure your child's progress.

Make an appointment today.

F. J. WRIGHT

Jeweler Optometrist

FUNERAL SERVICE
CHARACTERIZED BY QUIET, SYMPATHETIC ATTENTION

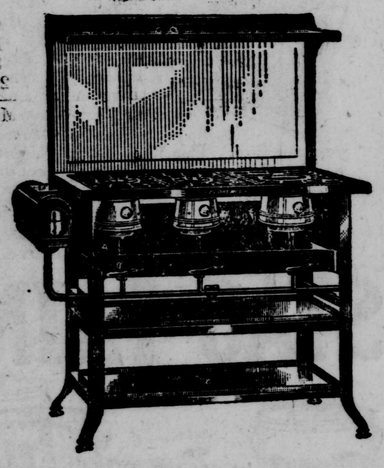

OUR PRICES ARE NO MORE THAN OTHERS AND OFTEN TIMES THEY ARE LESS

Sanitary Grave Vaults Cemetery Arrangements

J. VIRGIL MOORE
Funeral Parlors DENTON, MD.

FLORENCE OIL STOVE DEMONSTRATION

APRIL 29, 30 AND MAY 1ST

We invite you to our store on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 29, 30 and May 1st, to the public demonstration of Florence Oil Stoves.

Whether you buy or not, be sure you see the wonderful baking.

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE
Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

NO END OF LOVELY MODELS IN

SPRINGTIME FROCKS

INCOMPARABLY LOW-PRICED AT

$9.75, $10.75, $12.75, $15.75 , $17.75, $22.75, $25.00

Modish Dresses for every and any occasion, offered at a price that represents a very decided saving.

Heavy, Flat Crepes, Canton Crepes, Veiled Printed Crepes, Georgettes in many contrasting effects.

In pretty, plain shades and striking combinations of colors. The new spring styles at their best, embellished with reversed tucks, contrasting silks, sashes, Embroideries, Laces, Tie Collars, latest sleeves, colorful godets, accordion pleated, panels, ribbons, etc.

SPRING COATS

Many new Coats have arrived since the Easter selling. These include an extensive line of Women's Stout and extra size coats that so few stores pr ovide for.

STYLES—VALUES—SERVICE

THE WOMENS SHOP

Federalsburg, Maryland

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3549-0139.jpg