VERNON

Mrs. A. C. Warrington recently went on a shopping trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. John L. Warren recently passed to rest and interment took place at Barratt's Cemetery, her brother-in-law, Rev. Benjamin C. Warren, preaching the funeral sermon. A husband and a large number of children survive. She was an excellent wife, devoted mother, and kind neighbor. Many friends besides relatives are left to mourn their loss.

Dr. George Collison and family, of Philadelphia, have been Harrington visitors.

We are sorry to note that Emmett Baynard, of Centreville, and brother, Edward Baynard, of Florida, have both passed away within a day of each other. They were well known in this vicinity, having attended school at Maple Grove and the former was a seat-mate of R. Wesley Ross, both having for each other the highest regard. A mother, sister, Mrs. W. A. Smith, and brother survive, besides many other relatives and friends. Both were fine citizens in every respect and had the confidence of all.

Mrs. A. C. Warrington and Mrs. R. Wesley Ross attended the State P. T. A. convention and were luncheon guests at the Peoples' Church.

Miss Margaret Bullock has taken a position with the State Board of Education at Georgetown.

Many frinds and relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Graham, who had been in poor health for some time. Rev. Mr. Day officiated and preached as usual a most excellent sermon, giving a number of excellent qualities of the deceased. Many relatives and friends survive.

The many friends of the Rev. C. C. Day were delighted to see him during his recent visit to Harrington.

At the recent Teachers' Reading Circle Club, of Frederica, the subjects Geography and Arithmetic were discussed, especially the teaching of them according to the latest methods. Miss Davis made the geography very interesting by giving incidents in her college life at William and Mary and her trip to Europe, particularly London, (her father studying medicine in Germany and traveling over the continent) and Mrs. Ross, the leader, giving incidents in her trip to the Jamestown Exposition and Virginia, both showing the co-relation of nature study, geography, history and civics. Miss Emory contributed some personal experiences in teaching. Mrs. Harrington, the chairman, some business problems connected with everyday life, and Miss Martin, college life experiences. These with radio music, made a most delightful evening.

Allie Warrington has been visiting Wilmington.

The old Dickinson Hotel is being torn down for a site for the new National Bank.

Mrs. Clouser, president of Raughley's Parent-Teacher Association, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clouser, of California, attended the State P. T. A. at Dover. The latter and her husband have been spending several months here.
