messages from his friends to be delivered and also many arrangements to be discussed about the future.

I almost hated Leittia Evans!

Here I had been away a long time from Curtiss and on account of her arrangements we were not to be allowed the pleasure of our first evening together.

Curtiss had to return to his office and was leaving me at the entrance of the Hotel Tutwiler at which we were staying. This meant that I would not see him again until just before time to dress for dinner.

I bitterly resented the initiative this new girl had taken, first in selecting a house for us to live in and now for planning our first evening's entertainment. Then a thought, that was almost prophetical, came to me and I knew, just as positively, as if I could see into the future, that this was just the beginning of Letitia Evan's interference.

(Don't miss next week's installment.)

THE LAW

Young Dobbs—I want to try on that suit in the window.

Salesman—Sorry, sir, but you'll have to use the dressing room.

A USEFUL ANIMAL

"Chickens, sah," said the old negro sage, "is the usefullest animal dere is. You can eat 'em befo' dey is born and after dey is daid."

IF ALLOWED TO LIVE AT ALL

Wife—This paper tells of a man who lives on onions alone.

Hubby—Well, anyone who lives on onions ought to live alone.

ORPHAN'S COURT

Orphan's Court met in regular session, there were present their Honors Judges West, Harper and Shawn; and the following business was transacted.

In the absence of the Court, letters of administration on the personal estate of Andrew Towers, deceased, were granted to J. Jerome Frampton. Bond filed and approved. Notice to creditors ordered and William I. Norris and J. Roland Chaffinch were named as appraisers.

On application, letters of administration on the personal estate of Leonard Adams, deceased, were granted to J. Virgil Moore. Bond filed and approved. Notice to creditors ordered and William Phillips and Walter S. Rutter were named as appraisers.

William R. Thomas, executor of William Richard Deen, filed inventory and appraisement of the personal property, which was approved.

Romey Pritchett, administrator c. t. a., of Philip Pritchett, deceased, filed his first and final account of administration, which was approved and passed.

The last will and testament of Ira Norman Wagner, was filed in this Court by Frank W. Wagner, and by order of Court, said Will will stand for probate Tuesday, May 4th, 1926, at 11 o'cock, a. m.

The last will and testament of Elizabeth Pennewell, deceased, after having been duly proven, was admitted to probate.

Laura H. Dean, administrator of Joseph P. Patchett, deceased, filed account of sales of the personal property, which was approved by the Court.

The last will and testament of Maria G. Bechtel, deceased, having been proven, was admitted to probate. Renunciation of the executor named in the will having been filed, the Court appointed Christian Gottwals, administrator with the will annexed. Bond filed and approved. Notice to creditors ordered and Henry Medford and Linwood Riddleberger were named appraisers and approved.

In Chevrolet you get more for your money than in any other car built.

You get every essential improvement developed by automotive engineers during the last twelve years of progress.

You get the greater flexibility of Chevrolet's 3-speed transmission—the greater power and smoothness of Chevrolet's valve-in-head motor—the easier, safer handling of Chevrolet's semi-reversible steering gear—the greater comfort of semi-elliptic springs.

Buy no other low-priced car until you have compared it with Chevrolet. Check point for point—feature for feature. Know what you are actually getting for the price you pay. Let us give you a demonstration.
