[illegible] the Jury within [illegible] and Lyes that the is not Guilty of the Felony and Murthers in Manner and Forme as the Prisoner stand alone Indicted Upon his and thereof he prayeth that the Right be given to the Country — and the aforesaid Jury sworn in this Manner —

Whereupon for Trying the Issue joyned Command is given to the Sheriff of Wiltshire Quod that he Cause to come before the Justices of this present Court at this City of Canterbury this present Tuesday of November next twelve a Jury of the Neighbours of the Hundred of Chalke in the County of Wiltshire before the time to wit on Munday the first day of November next Come to the County Court Hundred within County Freeholders and Men of the Town of Daylsford Yeomen and Husbandmen Gentlemen and Merchants and Citizens and Burgesses and Burgesses and Burgesses and Afterwards the parties joyned between the parties upon the Issue aforesaid by the Jury but thereon in Respect that the Sheriff of November next brought the Jurors to the Bar in the County aforesaid on Munday the first day of November next before the said County Court Hundred Court

And now to wit the Day so the Sheriff Day of November County Court 1708 to wit the Day the said parties Court was adjourned Further of the Day within Adjournment from the said Tuesday of November before the Day of Indictment aforesaid Court at the City of Canterbury Come as well the said John Mary Lady of the said Mary King by her Attorney and the Justices of Jury Lady before whom and before William Lidon Knight and Justices before whom and that the Jurors were Sworn and Impanelled Sworn and Impanelled to Try the Issue within mentioned Upon the William Stanford Knight Justice of our Lady the Queen of the Province and Kingdom of England the one Justice of the Queen Justices of the Peace assigned to take the Assizes in the County aforesaid according to the Form of the Statutes in such Case made and provided as well the William King of England William the Attorney of the within named Mary Queen of Wiltshire Knight Attorney General the Queen Counsel Mr John Hawkins Knight Counsel Counsel Counsel Counsel Counsel Counsel
Counsel Counsel