American Union

Thursday Morning Sept. 23 1875

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 28th of Sept., 1875.

THE Union will not be sent to any subscriber living outside the county unless paid for in advance.

MR. E. Madison Towers is our authorized agent for the collection of bills due this office. He will present accounts to those indebted to this office in a few days and we hope those waited upon will pay him at once. His receipt will be good against us. We have not the spare time to present these claims ourself in person, hence the necessity of procuring the aid of an agent.

The Editor's Hash.

—Our farmers are preparing for wheat seeding.

—The days and nights were of equal length on Tuesday last. The autumnal equinox has passed.

—Mr. J. T. Commegys has commenced the business of Blacksmithing at the shop formerly occupied by R. J. Potter in Denton. See advertisement in another column.

—See advertisement of Messrs. Morgan & Simpson in another column. They manufacture an excellent article of Bone Phosphate which is highly recommeded by farmers who have used it.

—An independent ticket is mooted in this county. If such a ticket is put in the field we hope it will be composed of the very best men in the county—of such men as those who do not hunt for office.

—The officers of Registration for this county will sit at the usual voting places in each district, for the last time this year, to correct their lists and add new voters, on the 4th and 5th, (Monday and Tuesday,) of October next.

—Denton is dead drunk, if we may believe the Journal.—Crisfield Leader.—We hope you don't believe such silly twaddle. Whatever may be the opinion of the Journal our people know that its statements are untrue.

—Hon. Carl Schurz will make nine speeches in Ohio during this campaign in favor of a sound currency. The first will be made in Cincinnati, Monday evening, September 27, in response to an invitation from the merchants of that city.

—Rail birds are plentiful in the marshes on the Choptank. Two of our sportsmen were very successful on Monday last in bagging a plentiful supply of this nice fat game—one gentleman getting six dozen and the other five dozen and ten in a few hours.

—A snow storm prevailed on Mount Washington, N. H., Saturday. No trains or stages were run on the mountain in consequence. Twelve inches of snow fell at River du Loup, Canada, on Saturday; much damage was done to fruit and ornamental trees by the storm which prevailed.

—Winnie Nicholson, a little boy aged about 12 years, of this town, last week while angling at Denton Bridge, caught a young white shad, some six inches in length. The catching of shad with a hook is something entirely unknown in this latitude heretofore. The Choptank at this season, no doubt contains thousands and perhaps millions of young shad and herring.

—Mr. Wm. H. Fickey, a citizen of the 4th district, living near Preston, met with a sad accident which resulted in death on the 12th inst. He was at a gathering of young people in the neighborhood and in the jostle of the crowd at the door was pushed from the door step and fell upon his head, the brain receiving such injury that death ensued in about forty-eight hours.

—A Baltimore city tax-payer's account stands thus:

Tax in 1874	$247,35
" " 1864	93.75
Advance in ten years	$154.20

He is under the impression should the taxes continue to increase in the next ten years they will amount to more than the rents he receives for his property.

—The Democrats of Talbot county nominated the following ticket on the 4th inst: For the House of Delegates, William S. Denny, J. Addison Morgan. For State's Attorney, Charles H. Gibson. For Judges of the Orphans' Court, William D. Roberts, Thomas H. Leonard and William H. Seth. For County Commissioners, John C. Harper, Samuel B. Merrick and John W. Catrup. For Sheriff, Francis G. Wrightson. For Surveyor, John W. Gibson.

—The schooner Adie, Capt. Ridgeaway, which left Baltimore on Sunday morning last, foundered the same afternoon in Annapolis roads. The schooner D. J. Ballard picked up the crew, consisting of Capt. Ridgeaway, W. W. Beckwith, Thos. Neighbors and Geo. Callaghan, and two colored men who working their way to the Choptank and landed them safely in Baltimore.

—The Citizens' party and the Executive Committee of the Merchants' Reform movement have selected Hon. J. Morrison Harris, of Baltimore county, for Governor, S. Teakle Wallace, of Baltimore city, for Attorney General, and Col. Edward Wilkins, of Kent county, for Comptroller. It is said that letters of acceptance have been received from each of the candidates accepting the position tendered them on the ticket and the nominations were to be publicly announced at a mass meeting on Tuesday night last.

Educational.

All concerned are hereby notified, that the Board of School Commissioners will not recognize as Teachers, nor pay the salaries of those who may be employed to teach without a certificate granted on examination since July 1st, 1875.

Tuesday 28th inst., the Board will meet for the examination of those who may apply. By order of the Board,

GEO. F. BEAVEN, Sec'y.

Peninsular Waifs.

CECIL COUNTY.

Henry Reynolds has purchased the property of B. W. Buckley, at Rising Sun, consisting of forty acres and building, for $1,400.

The fall term of the Circuit Court for Cecil county commenced on Monday last.

The wagon house and hay house of Mr. George W. Oldham, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday of last week, together with twelve tons of hay. Mr. Oldham has had four buildings destroyed by fire during the last four years.

The mill property on Basin run, between Rowlandsville and Liberty Grove, containing thirty-one acres of land, a dwelling house and grist and saw mill, has been sold to Dr. James Peeples, of Little Britain, Lancaster county, Pa., for $3,525.

What "Brick" Pomeroy saw in Cecil will be found on our first page.—Cecil Whig.

The first page of the Whig not being received at this office this week we are unable to see what "Brick Pomeroy saw in Cecil." Will brother Ewing please send us a whole sheet?

Reuben Haines, Esq., who made the tour of Europe this season, visiting the British Isles, France, Italy, Switzerland, and other countries on the continent, returned to his home in Elkton, on Thursday night last.

Elkton has experienced a sensation produced by a confidence family from Philadelphia, who fleeced the butchers, grocermen, dry goods men and traders, and then took their departure for other climes to ply their vocation.

KENT COUNTY.

A Mr. Hurtt, of Millington, very foolishly lost $200 at Middletown, Del., where he had gone to see the elephant and take a peep at the circus by exhibiting his money in the presence of a lot of thieves who always follow such exhibitions, the money being snatched from him and which he was unsuccessful in recovering.

The Tolchester farm, was sold last week to William N. Wilson, of Delaware, for $23,140. The farm contains 1,040 acres, 800 acres of which are tillable and yield good crops, especially corn. The property is a portion of the estate of the Mitchell heirs, of Baltimore, and was once worth $60,000, but owing to the general decline of land it has reduced accordingly.

A Democratic mass meeting is to be held at Chestertown, on Saturday October 16th.

The walls of the new M. E. Church at Chestertown are about completed and it will be roofed in this week. The building is well proportioned and it is said will be a handsome edifice when completed.

Thieves are plentiful about Chestertown.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

Mr. Jas. T. Wooters, the present Clerk of the Court for Queen Anne's, is announced as an independent Democratic candidate for that position for the ensuing term.

Hon. Jas. T. Earle, State Senator for Queen Anne's, is largely engaged in distilling peach brandy. We have known men of stronger intellect to be slain by the worm of the still.

TALBOT COUNTY.

It was a noted fact that while the primaries were going on in Talbot last week there was more or less drunkenness in every district in the county. Whiskey and Democracy flourish together.

Ex-Sheriff C. S. Mansfield is spoken of as one of the Republican candidates for the House of Delegates. He favors local option.

DORCHESTER COUNTY.

Mr. Charles S. Sweet, of Cumberland, Ohio, has purchased the old Keene homestead, in the Neck district, on the Choptank river, Dorchester county, 275 acres, for $4,900.

A religious revival is in progress at Church Creek and the altar is nightly crowded with penitents.

They have a live Alligator, just from Florida, at Cambridge. Put him in the Choptank and let him flutter.

The mortality among the children in Cambridge and surrounding country is said to be alarming.

WORCESTER COUNTY.

Mr. Wm. Schoolfield, a well-known citizen of Worcester county, died at his farm a few miles from Newtown, on Sunday of last week, in the 77th year of his age. A days before his death he destroyed several notes which he held against different parties, thus cancelling the debts. He left no will, and his wealth, estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000, the accumulation of of years of strict integrity and economy, descends to an only son, Ulysses Schoolfield.

LOCAL OPTION IN MARYLAND.—The Denton Journal says that, despite reports of beneficial effects of the local option law, few towns on the peninsula have suffered more from drunkenness during the past twelve months than Denton, and that scenes of the most wretched, disgraceful and alarming drunkenness are frequent.—Baltimore Sun.

There never has been any special legislation by our State Legislature that has been more beneficial to this community than Local Option, and with the exception of one case of drunkenness, and this a case of mental derangement, aggravated by the too free use of stimulants, is about the only case that has created even a ripple on the surface of society here since the law went into effect. The statement that scenes of "disgraceful and alarming drunkenness are frequent," is a base libel on the good name and character of our citizens, except so far as relates to this one isolated case referred to. The most of our citizens are sober, moral and upright, and conduct themselves in an orderly and peaceful manner, and since the sale of ardent spirits has been prohibited we have but very few cases of drunkenness—not one fourth as much as before the operations of the law.

For the Union.

Talebearing as a Science.

Mr. Editor:—Have you noticed the fact that we have at the present day not a few local mules and females not established by the Government, or in other words many talebearers, who cannot find sufficient business of their own to attend to, and per necessitas, must attend to that of others? This, to you is doubtless, not a novel but a trite saying. You may say of yourself in this respect, "let the galled jade wince, our withers are unwrung," but if yours are others less fortunate, who have and will still suffer from this class of persons and their busy tongues. At the present time a man or woman's character is scarcely worth ten cents on the dollar, if they can by any possible means attack him or her, and in one case I know of one, who wears the sacred robes of a disciple of his Maker, who has indulged in the same nauseating luxury. Why is this? and to what motive is it attributable?—You cannot stand on the street corner or enter many private houses, but what in one half hour some one's private character is up for criticism, censure and reproof, and even those who do not carry news, will sit calmly by, listen to the slander and never reprove him or her. Are you not then a particeps criminis, if crime it is? And this I think none will deny, and the teachings of these lines followed and lived up to even by the followers of him who said "go in peace and sin no more."

Teach me to feel another's woe,
To hide the faults I see;
That mercy I to others show,
That mercy show to me."

Not unfrequently some one will call you aside, for what purpose? To tell you of the misdeeds or shortcomings of his or your neighbor, with whom he pretends—yes, pretends to be friendly, and often telling you a long story detrimental to his friend's character. He will kindly say "don't tell any one I told you," but you may circulate this perhaps lie as much as you like, but don't get me into trouble.—Yes, the hypocrite, poltroon and coward, has not manly courage enough even to let you know it came from him. If you ask him his author can he give his or her name, or would he in any case in a court of justice swear to what his idle tongue has uttered? No! The knave will not, and would not you think on reflection that a man who would tell or circulate reports under bans of secrecy is not to be relied on. If you hear a report of your neighbor, circulate it if you will, but do not ask to be screened from the part or portion you may have had in it. Is a man or woman's reputation of no more worth than to be bandied about a la bagatelle? Then why sanction it quietly or passively? Can we not say,

"He who steals my purse steals trash,
But he who robs me of my good name,
Takes from me that which not enriching him,
Leaves me poor indeed."

Yes, truly can we say so. I know of a case in point, where an unjust charge was and has been made against a young man and he two miles from the place where he was said to be drunk. This is not an isolated case, but one of many, and when we hear of reports of our fellows or friends why are we so anxious to circulate them, even to their injury. Do we not roll slander under our tongues as a sweet morsel? Do we try to feel for the woes of others and to hide their faults and teach them how to correct them? No! But we will blab any report to the first man or woman we meet, who will listen to us. And we will always find ready and willing listeners. You would dislike to be charged with the crime of stealing, would you not? You would, perhaps, repel the charge with a blow, but are you not stealing that which is dearer than gold? And to you christian, think you not, you will have to account for this some day at His bar, who commands you to speak no evil, but to "love thy neighbor as thyself." Yes, this is one of the greatest and most pernicious sins known in the catalogue of crimes, because you are stabbed in the dark by an unseen and unknown hand, for which you have no defence. This is not only true in business circles, but socially and morally, and it is ever a welcomed guest by many of our friends. You will say who is it that does not sometimes say things of others he cares not to have repeated? But is this a justification of a wrong? Better they were never said. Then why not bridle our tongues and speak not at all, if we cannot speak kindly. You will say this was thoughtlessly done, or I did not know. "Ignorantia non excusat," will not here apply. You ought to know before you speak, or better not speak at all. I well know many of us are very thoughtless in this respect, but should we not think when oftentimes we are unwittingly lieing. It would be no excuse to say you did not think or did not intend any injury or harm when the forgery is committed—the purse stolen—the house fired or the robbery committed, yet this is a crime as serious in its character as any of those above named.—Answer candidly and truthfully if these statements are not true? If so, why not stop this curse of eternal tattling and talebearing.

Collosal Gold Sheaf Seed Wheat

THE ATTENTION of Farmers is specially invited to this new cereal, which for its prolific qualities, hardiness and freedom from disease, perhaps out rivals all other acclimated varieties. Its perfect adaption to every variety of soil and climate makes it a peculiar favorite with both American and British Farmers.

It matures in about twenty days less time than oats.

It is a remarkable grain to stand severe drought.

It yields form 40 to 90 bushels per acre.

The heads will average ten inches in length (We will send sample specimen heads to Farmers on receipt of ten cents, by mail, which will be a life evidence of the enormous growth of the wheat. Agents to whom we have sent specimen-heads are making enormous profits, showing the heads to their neighbors, and taking orders.)

The stalk is sufficiently strong to support the head and prevent its lodging The grain for stock food is equal if not superior, to Indian corn. It ripens while the stalk is yet green. We have tested its superiority as far North as Ontario and Quebec, and as for South as New Mexico, providing its perfect adoption to every variety of soil and climate in North America.

Terms, cash. No C. O. D. packages sent out.

Sample packages sent postage paid, for $1.10 by mail. One bushel, by Express, $7. Ten bushels, by Express, $25. Send money by Registered Letter, at our risk. Address.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

Special Notice.

To Freighters & Shippers of Grain &c.

THIS is to give notice, that we are still running the new and substantial schooner Pandora, and have not discontinued the freighting business as might be inferred by a notice in the American Union signed by T. D. Case & J. B. Draper, under the head of a disolution of Copar tnership, but that we intend to continue the business at the old place formerly owned by T. D. Case, where we have every facility for accommodating the public—good wharf and granary, with freight room attached, to secure all perishable freight until called for. We hope to have the patronage of our old friends as heretofore, assuring them that we will do as well for them in prices as others engaged in the same business. All orders filled with care and fidelity when accompanied with cash, and no commission charged for buying.
