American Union

Thursday Morning Sept. 30 1875

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 5th of Oct., 1875.

THE Union will not be sent to any subscriber living outside the county unless paid for in advance.

MR. E. Madison Towers is our authorized agent for the collection of bills due this office. He will present accounts to those indebted to this office in a few days and we hope those waited upon will pay him at once. His receipt will be good against us. We have not the spare time to present these claims ourself in person, hence the necessity of procuring the aid of an agent.

The Editor's Hash.

—The public schools of this county will open on Monday next, the 4th of October.

—The Republican candidate for Mayor of Nashville, Tenn., was elected over Spencer Eakin, the Democratic candidate by a majority of 162.

—An unusual amount of petty thieving is going on in and around Greensborough. It is believed the tramps have invaded that part of the county.

—We have received the second number of the Sunday Herald, published at Baltimore, Md., at $1.50 per annum. Although Democratic it advocates reform in State and city affairs.

—The Democratic primaries for this county are to be held in the several districts on Saturday week, October 9th. The county convention to nominate a ticket will be held the following Tuesday.

—Mr. Delano, Secretary of the Interior, has resigned his office and his resignation has been accepted by the President. His successor is not stated but rumor has it he is to come from Pennsylvania.

—Washington Eastburn was arrested at Crisfield last Thursday, charged with forging a check for $180 on the First National Bank of Chester, and passing the same on Richard Hodgson, of Delmar, who advanced $20 on it.

—Our farmers are purchasing their phosphates, preparatory to wheat seeding.—They will not enter fully into the work before the middle of October, although there will be some of them who will have completed the labor by that time.

—The Registers will sit for the last time this year at the usual voting places in each district, on Monday and Tuesday next, to correct the list and make such additions as those who may have come of age since the last meeting or heretofore failed to register.

—Denton Academy has reached its place of destination on Low street, where it will be permanently located in the future. It is now to be thoroughly repaired, and the grounds set down in shade trees and other improvements added to make it inviting to the pupils.

—The second Annual Exhibition of the Peninsula Agricultural and Pomological Association will be held on the new fair grounds, near Middletown, Del., on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 6th, 7th and 8th. See advertisement in another column.

—A schooner left the Choptank this week for Philadelphia and will return in a short time with 140 tons of coal for the citizens of this town and vicinity. Here is near $1,000 spent for coal in a country well supplied with wood at $2 per cord.

—We have received a very able and sensible article on the subject of dancing, entitled, "Is it Lawful for a Christian to Dance?" which for want of space we are compelled to lay over until next week.—Although the first article from this contributor we hope it will not be the last.

—We were presented last week by Mr. T. F. Garey, a small basket of large and delicious peaches, grown on one of his farms some three miles from town, known here as the variety called the "Garey-hold-on." This same variety last week took a premium at the Maryland Horticultural Exhibition held in Baltimore city. They are a superior yellow peach, large size and of excellent flavor.

—October term of the Circuit Court for this county commences in this place on Monday next. There will be but little criminal business claiming the attention of the Court. The civil docket is not marked as high as usual and we may expect a short term. But the occasion will afford our patrons an opportunity to step into our office and pay the several amounts due us. We are in want of funds to pay our indebtedness and to purchase winter supplies.—Then, call and pay up.

—The Ring Democrats have opened the campaign in Washington, Frederick and Allegany counties. Public meetings have been held at Hagerstown, Frederick and Cumberland, which were addressed by Mr. J. Lee Carroll, their candidate for Governor, Mr. Guinn and others. Their meetings in Western Maryland are but poorly attended, there not being that outpouring of the people as in former times to hear the pure word dispensed to gaping crowds, nor are the masses enthused by the outbursts of popular eloquence.

—The nomination of the Reform State ticket appears to give pretty general satisfaction to all the interests opposed to Ring rule in the State. Hon. J. Morrison Harris is a gentleman of fine abilities as a public speaker, a gentleman of broad and statemanlike views and perfectly reliable in all the relations of life. Mr. S. Takle Wallas is a gentleman, said to be the most gifted in the State, a great public debator, possessing the highest order of talents and whose private life is free from taint of evil. Col. E. Wilkins is known throughout the State as a gentleman of probity, honor and purity of life. He has managed his own financial affairs in the most prosperous manner, and if elected Comptroller, gives a guarantee that the affairs of that office will receive his especial attention and be conducted for the public interest.

Proceedings of the S. S. Teachers' Normal Institute for Easton District, Wilmington M. E. Conference.

The Institute met in Millington M. E. Church, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 22d, 1875.

Exercises were opened by reading a Scripture lesson, singing and prayer, conducted by Rev. J. Hough.

The members of the Institute were then cordially welcomed to the homes and hospitality of the community, as individuals, as christian workers and especially as Sunday School workers, in an appropriate and excellent address by the Pastor of the Church, Rev. W. M. Warner; which was fittingly responded to by the Conductor of the Institute, Rev. E. Stubbs.

The organization was completed by appointing a Finance Committee of three; two lads to act as Pages and Rev. E. P. Aldred, Secretary.

The following topics were then taken up and discussed:

I. The Object of our Institute—by Rev. E. Stubbs. We are not here to exchange kindly greetings, mere social enjoyment, but

1. To exhibit the dignity and sacredness of the work of the S. S, Teacher.

The aim of the Teacher, not only to cultivate the mind, but to win the heart to Christ and devolope the christian life. Its importance is seen when we regard the subject to be taught—a little child, in its innocence and purity. The object—to train it for God—binding the pupils by cords of golden truth, cemented by prayer to the eternal throne. To shield from a two-fold enemy—ignorance and cruelty—illustrated by examples of Pharoah and Herod.

The sacredness of this work seen in the instrument used—the truth, the Word of God. Also, the day—the Holy Sabbath.

2. To aid in the Work of Preparation. This need seen in the importance and sacredness of the work. The preparation, 1. general—to acquaint the teacher with the Word and methods of explanation. 2.—Special—That of the individual lesson.—No humiliation to teach—a certain eminent jurist felt honored to teach an infant class—Christ taught and took the little ones in his arms.

3. To awaken an increased interest in the Sunday School work. On the part of ministers—must not ignore the little ones. Bring all his sermons to the capacity of the little ones, and give them a special sermon occasionally. Trustees and other church officials, to provide suitable accommodations and such supplies as needed.

4. To point out Difficulties. Not safest to ignore difficulties. Point them out and destroy them.

5. To suggest plans. To compare notes; seek to gather instruction from past experience.

6. To illustrate methods—increase enthusiasm, etc.

How secure these objects. 1. Keep the object before us, don't turn from them for any purpose. 2. Adhere to the following rules—Punctuality, Promptness, Penciling, Publishing and Prayer.

II. Practical Working of the Sunday School Library, by Rev. J. T. Vanburkalow.

1. The Librarian—An important personage. Should not be an old fogy—without sympathy or interest in the wants and whims of the little ones; nor thoughtless, neglectful one—without care for the interests of children or school. But the most patient, active, pious young man in the church, with the best business qualifications.

2. Some Plan for Management of Distribution.—Various plans noticed and following recommended. Have numerical Catalogues, with blank cards; take the cards home, and with advice of parents, select twelve or fifteen books, any one of which would be acceptable; Cards and returned books gathered by classes after opening exercises. Books selected by Librarian and given to teacher after the lesson has been studied.

3. Character of Books.—Many Schools too few books to be efficient; others not proper books, many of which ought to be in the flames; should be selected with care by a judicious committee, the Pastor assisting or revising the choice made. Thus, with proper management, the Library may be an incalculable good.

III. The Normal Class and Teachers' Meetings, by Rev. L. C. Matlack.

The Normal Class is the College for the culture of those who expect to make the duty of Sunday School teaching a life work. But few who can procure suitable books and give sufficient attention. Considered an impracticable institution in our country work.

Teachers' Meetings, the preacher's class for fitting his S. S. laborers for their work. Essentials to a good teachers' meeting—a Pastor who loves his children, a Superintendent who loves his work, and Teachers who seek to bless and save their scholars. Its special work preparation—each one study the lesson at home and compare notes, etc., in meeting. Practically illustrated by resolving the Institute into a Teachers' meeting with the Doctor's Superintendent, taking up lessons of the previous Sabbath.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION.

After devotional exercises.

I. The Principles of teaching by Rev. E. Stubbs.

The mind of the Pupil compared to a vessel; the work of teacher to equip for the voyage of life. Must regard, 1. The Pupil. There must be attention; his apprehension of the truth depends upon it; necessary to comprehend the lesson taught—memory, retentive not so much because of natural endowment as habit of fixed attention.

2. The Teacher.—Some material aptitude for teaching; an adequate apprehension of the object sought; a thorough knowledge of the truth to be taught; acquaintance with the character and habits of the pupil; facility in the use of language—for this clear, explicit thought and short words; and aptness in illustrating, with patience and perseverance.

3. The Lesson.—Adapted to the capacity of the children; full of simplicity and brief; not without thorough arrangement or classification, looking to definite result, with such a point as will make it "stick."

II. The Duty of the Church to the Sunday School, by Rev. J. Hough.

The resemblance of the relation existing between the parent and the children of the household to that of S. S. teacher and pupil pointed out. The disciplinary recognition of the relation of baptized children to the church enforced—classing them and at a proper time receive into full connection. The special obligation to care for the spiritual orphans—those who have irreligious parents, "dead in trespasses and sin."

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION.

It was ascertained that there were present seven superintendents, fifteen teachers and two general workers. The number was largely increased during the day.

I. Conversation on Normal Classes and Teachers' Meetings.—The question what is the distinction between Normal Classes and Teachers' Meetings responded to on slips of paper.

It was found that there were no Normal Classes organized on the District, and Teachers' Meetings at seven points here represented.

Do we need Normal Classes in our work was discussed. Rev. E. Miller recognized the need, but found it impracticable. Rev. Van Burkalow understood the idea of a Normal Class to train for the future. Dr. Matlack thought such a class utterly impracticable in most separate societies.—Bro. Hough believed a class might be organized out of the older classes and trained. Bro. Price would organize a Pastor's Bible Class to meet during the week.—Prof. Robinson gave the organization of 1st M. E. Church, Baltimore, a Male and Female Class to train teachers and weekly meeting to study the lesson. Bro. Hamilton felt the need of a Normal Class, including teachers and converted scholars.—Conductor thought there ought to be a Normal Class study in connection with Teachers' Meetings, including at least a portion of the members. Urged the necessity of Teachers' Meetings, each member studying lesson at home then comparing and consulting. A Normal Class contemplated more: the study of text books on Bible History, Geography, Customs, etc.

II. Childrens' Classes, by Rev. E. Stubbs.

Urged their importance and recognition by discipline.

1. The age of those received in these Classes.—From seven to fourteen.

2. The Object.—Not Bible teaching as in the School. To impress and apply the truth already known; an opportunity for direct appeal to lead those especially impressed immediately to Christ.

3. Organization.—To invite all the children to the meeting; gather from these most impressible, detain them after dismissed, and hold personal, religious intercourse.

4. Manner of Exercises.—Varied and brief. Singing, prayer, instruction by use of Catechism, Apostle's Creed, etc. The relation of a Btble narrative and its enforcement.

5. The History of these Classes. In experience of Conductor had been signally successful.

III. The Sacredness and Power of the Sunday School Teacher's Office, by Rev. E. Miller.

Its sacredness gathered from its title—the Sabbath; its appointment and authority—if not especially Divine, directly ecclesiastical; its Design—instruction in the Bible truth, conversion of the youth, forming the moral character in harmony with Bible principles, by early impressing Bible doctrines and duties. (The writer dwelt upon the necessity of last point from want of conscience in the church in experience thereto.) Its Power, from its ecclesiastical authority, sacredness, especially from example of teacher and the Divine Spirit's operations.

IV. The Support of the Sunday School, by Rev. C. W. Prettyman.

The Sunday School defined as a Junior Department; supported—numerically—by the children gathered in from the families; morally—by those families whose heads are christians; supported by the presence of adults; Financially—not by the workers only, but the entire church. Time and place must designate methods. All should give time, thought, effort and prayer to so grand an institution.

V. The Necessity of Sabbath School Instruction, by Rev. W. R. McFarlane.

Sunday School instruction a power to save from natural depravity; contact with the truths there taught will develope the mind, exalt and refine; its influence essential to the permanency of Republican Institutions; and to the formation of an active, aggressive church.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

I. Helps to Bible Study and how to use them, by Rev. B. F. Price.

The Bible the most important study.—Two classifications necessary to be borne in mind, the letter and the spirit of the Bible. A knowledge of the original important, but not essential to correct understanding; enlarged and accurate information as to history of nations, valuable. compare Scriptture with Scripture; converse with those who are well informed and spiritual minded; regular and careful attention to the preached word; attendance upon prayer circles, where God's word is quoted and commented upon; prayer for personal light; family reading; attendance upon Sunday School; attention to time and scenes when written; avoid preconceived notions or prejudices; compare new and old Testaments; divest ourselves of extravagant and fanatical views; have your own Bible and mark it; use concordance, and especially use all the common sense at command.

II. Lesson with Primary Class, by Mr. Cox, of Middletown.

The subject was the Fight of Faith.—The Conductor noted the following points as important in teaching primary classes, as illustrated by the lesson: simplicity, brevity, variety, unity, and activity.

III. A Model School.

The Institute was organized into a Sunday School, by the Conductor, and all the exercises of a Model School attended to, including the teaching of regular lesson.

EVENING SESSION.

I. Criticisms on the Model School.

Reports were given by the several teachers as to the manner of presenting the lesson. Some criticisms made by scholars as to methods of teaching, etc.

II. The Model Superintendent, by the Conductor.

A man of piety—this the great, strong granite foundation stone of the Superintendent's character; his piety winning the child to the cross like strings gathering up the tendrils of plants and fastening them to the post. Have executive ability—like the controller of a well adjusted piece of machinery; administer discipline without others being aware of it—like the principle of gravitation, working from Creation till Newton's day without mankind being aware of the fact. A Bible student—to be in sympathy with the teacher and scholars must be a student. Apt to teach—and his example will be contageous. Must love the children. Not forget that he was once a boy himself, and be earnest in the prosecution of his work.

At this point a resolution of thanks to the citizens of the community for their cordial welcome and generous entertainment was presented and unanimously passed; which was followed by a proposition that the members of the Institute raise the sum of $100 to be appropriated to placing memorial windows in the unfinished church building in which the session was held.—This generous proposal was heartily responded to by raising the entire amount in a few minutes.

Resolutions of thanks were tendered also to Rev. E. Stubbs and Prof. Robinson, the one as Conductor of the Institute and the other, Musical Director.

The exercises were interspersed with appropriate and excellent music, and each session opened with devotional exercises.

E. P. ALDRED, Sec'y.

The Hon. D. Fields.

The Hon. Daniel Fields, Senator from Caroline county, several years ago, obtained the passage of a law, for that county, fixing the price of county printing at about $500; and the printing was done for that sum, for one or more years. Subsequently, we believe, parties interested, found means to evade it, and ultimately, to effect its repeal.—Federalsburg Courier.

Senator Fields did obtain the passage of an act to have the public printing for this county at a price fixed by himself—that price being $200. That act also provided that if the newspapers refused to publish at that price, then the work was to be done in hand bill form and the price fixed at $50. Senator Fields was one of the Senate committee on public printing about the the same time, and that committee allowed the public printer somewhere in the neighborhood of $40,000 for doing the State printing, but when it came to pay a poor Caroline printer for his honest toil, a mere pittance; a price fixed by Senator Fields so poor and beggardly, that had his law been of any effect, the publisher would have starved and certain bankruptcy have overtaken him. If the Courier thinks it can work at such prices let it try it and it will soon discover the difference between printing and visiting the sick. The county printing was never done for that sum under Mr. Field's law, neither did any parties seek to evade it. No attention was paid to the law by the County Commissioners, for the very reason it was unconstitutional; no special law can be enacted to take precedence of a general law operating over the entire State. It was repealed, therefore, because of its unconstitutionality. The Courier should be careful of its statements and find out the truth before sending them forth to the world. There is not a single truth in the above paragraph except that Senator Fields did procure the passage of a law intended to regulate the price of county printing.

Local Option a Failure.

The Denton Journal, Caroline county, the Easton Ledger, Talbot county, and the Newtown Gazette, Worcester county, all agree that local option in those counties fails to abate drunkenness.—Towsontown Journal.

So far as Caroline county is concerned in local option we know it is not a failure but has worked to the good of this community in more ways than one. But the Journal has gone back on itself and contradicted its own statements by saying it did not mean to say that local option was a failure. Every newspaper that has copied the Journal's article has put the same construction on it that we did, viz:—that the law was a failure; still the Journal contends it said no such thing. As there appears to be some controversy on this point it should speak out, and speak in unequivocal language, that all may understand its meaning.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The advertiser, a retired physician, having providentially discovered, while a Medical Missionary in Southern Asia, a very simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all throat and lung affection,—also a positive and radical specific for Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all Nervous Complaints, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.—Actuated by this motive, he will cheerfully send [free of charge] to all who desire it, the receipe for preparing, and full directions for successfully using, this providentially discovered remedy. Those who wish to avail themselves of the benefit of this discovery without cost, can do so by return mail, by addressing DR. CHAS. P. MARSHALL, 64 Niagara St., Buffalo, N. Y.

P. S.—Those who feel disposed, will please give symptoms in full. Great benfit will be derived therefrom. C. P. M.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. Abiel Bowen, Dentist, is at Greensborough Saturdays. Office at R. Plummers residence. Persons wishing Dentristry other days can be waited on at my residence or at the above place by engagement.

Peninsular Waifs.

CECIL COUNTY.

The public school teachers of Cecil county last week presented a silver-service to Rev. John Squier, examiner and treasurer of the school board, and purchased a silver pitcher for the president, F. S. Everest, but the latter declined to accept on account of scruples about the propriety of receiving presents from those who are in some measure dependent on his volition for positions.

Government engineers have made a survey of the Elk river from the bridge to Cedar Point, preparatory to finishing dredging the channel. It is understood that the work of dredging will be renewed in a short time, and completed this fall.

On Saturday last Edwin Rowland, son of J. Harvy Rowland, Esq., of Port Deposit, fell from an oak tree on his father's farm, which he had climed to gather acorns. His right thigh bone was fractured by the fall, and his left arm badly sprained. He was also severely injured about the head, which injuries are considered most dangerous. This boy was carried in an insensible condition to his home, in which state he remained till Sunday morning, when he recoved his mental faculties so far as to give some account of the accident.

The Texas cattle disease or some complaint similar to it, has broken out in Cecil county, or has been brought into the county by Western cattle bought by farmers for the purpose of feeding.

Nathan A. Colmary, of Chesapeake City, while gunning for squirrels, last week, accidentally shot his left hand off, or so that it was amputated above the wrist.

KENT COUNTY.

Mr. Chas. A. A. Stanley, a justice of the Peace, at Chestertown, died of lockjaw on Tuesday morning last, after an illness of three days. The disease was superinduced by the mashing of a finger a week or so previously. He suffered greatly, his convulsions being extremely excruciating. He leaves a widow and four small children.

An accident occurred at Capt. Ruth's cannery at the Chestertown wharf last week which resulted in four or five persons getting more or less hurt, but none seriously. The accident occurred by the fall of tressel work on which a number were standing.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

The anti-ring Democrats of Queen Anne's have nominated the following ticket in opposition to the regular nominations.

For Senator, John C. M'Collister. For the House of Delegates, Wm. G. Temple and Wm. F. Ford. For Clerk, Jas. Wootters. For State's Attorney, Albert T. Emory. For Sheriff, T. Hopper Smith.—For County Commissioners, Saml. C. Walls, Jno. C. Hackett, Wm. C. Ringgold. For Surveyor, Justice B. Sheppard.

Messrs. Joel C. Slaughter and Joseph E. Wilson, have a canning house at Ingleside in which they employ about fifty hands and put up from one to two thousand cans per day. This makes the sixth canning house in Queen Aanne's county.

One night last week the meat house of Mr. Wm. H. Stevens, living near Crumpton, was entered and two or three hundred pounds of bacon stolen therefrom.

TALBOT COUNTY.

The Republicans of Talbot held their primaries on Saturday last.

They had a coon fight on the public Square at Easton last week which came near ending in a man fight.

The influx of Northern farmers to Talbot county increases. The Easton Gazette reports the following land sales by J. F. Mancha during the week:

Mr. Stoops' farm, in Chapel District, containing 173 acres, to Chas. F. Parker, of New York, for $5,000. Also, Phillip Hineman's farm, in Trappe District, of 112 acres, to Mr. Donald Fowler, of Scotland. Also, Mr. Holstean's farm, in Easton District, of 123 acres, to Mr. David Speedie, of New York, for $3,750.

Mr. Thos. J. Clark, land agent, has sold the beautiful residence of Mrs. Susan Dawson, on Miles River, and about three miles from Easton, containing 122 acres, to H. Hanna, Esq., of New York, for $10,000.

The application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Charles Jefferson, confined in jail on the charge of complicity in the murder of Ford and the robbery of Day, has been withdrawn by Jefferson's counsel, and will remain in jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

DORCHESTER COUNTY.

The Cambridge Democrat says:

It may not be generally known that by a combination of the fruit packers in Baltimore peaches have not been permitted to sell for more than enough to clear expenses to the grower. Yet this is the fact.—This week Colonel Wallace and Mr. Bothum, fruit packers in Cambridge, have both purchased peaches in Baltimore and shipped them to Cambridge to pack. Those purchased by Mr. Bothum were shipped to Baltimore by Mr. Reese, a Cambridge merchant.

Committed.

Harry Smith, alias Clendaniel, was committed to jail in this place on Tuesday last for receiving stolen goods, the property of Dr. Lewis, at Burrsville in this county. The accused has been in Dover (Del.) jail since about the first of August last, and was removed from that State upon the requisition of the Governor of Maryland upon the Governor of Delaware. He will be tried upon the charge alleged against him in our county Court next week.

The peach crop is about closed out for the present season. There is a few of the late varieties yet in this section, but with the close of the present week these will have disappeared. This fruit has yielded but little profit to our growers, and we believe there is quite a number who have been made poorer by the abundance of the crop.

I mean business and will sell cheap for cash and on this line I propose to do business the present season.

Country produce of all kinds taken in exchang for goods. Berries and other fruits taken in their season for goods.

Purchasers should not fail to call and see me as I will sell them bargains. My motto is, "a nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling." THOS. M. COOPER,

6-3-tf. Denton, Md.

A Nimble Sixpence is Better than A SLOW SHILLING.

Come one come all,
Come great and small,
Come young and old,
Come short and tall,
Oh! come to Field's & Co.

At their store number eight,
They will see you early and late;
Teas and Coffee you will find
Always pure and refined.

Sugars, spices, and cream of Tarter,
Are goods that all are after;
As they are pure you may see,
And also low as low can be
And we always guarantee.

Soaps and extracts are so cheap
That dirty clothes cannot keep;
Our prices are lower
And our goods better,
So come yourself or send a letter.

We buy for cash and sell cheap, giving the purchaser the benefit of the cash system.—Merchants who trust, calculate to make and do make many bad debts, which they make their cash customers pay. Come and see us as we do not contract any bad debts and will also guarantee to give you the worth of your money.
