American Union

Thursday Morning Oct. 14 1875

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 26th of Oct., 1875.

THE Union will not be sent to any subscriber living outside the county unless paid for in advance.

MR. E. Madison Towers is our authorized agent for the collection of bills due this office. He will present accounts to those indebted to this office in a few days and we hope those waited upon will pay him at once. His receipt will be good against us. We have not the spare time to present these claims ourself in person, hence the necessity of procuring the aid of an agent.

The Editor's Hash.

—The horse disease has made its appearance in this county.

—Our sportsmen may lawfully shoot partridges after the 20th inst.

—Our County Court adjourned on Friday last after a session of five days.

—On Wednesday week, 27th inst., Baltimore will elect municipal officers.

—The Ring Democrats are to hold a mass meeting in this place on Tuesday next.

—Hon. Henry W. Hoffman has taken the stump in Western Maryland for the Reform party.

—We had a spreading white frost on Tuesday night last. It was visible almost everywhere early on Wednesday morning.

—The State election took place in Ohio on Tuesday. We have no returns as to the result. Both parties are sanguine of success.

—Ice formed here on Tuesday night last and the cold fingers of the ice king is changing the foliage of the forest to russet hues.

—White & Dunning received an order on Saturday for 20,000 cans of peaches.—They were shipped on Monday for Philadelphia.

—Orville Grant, brother of the President, is buying large quantities of Delaware white oak timber and shipping it to Philadelphia and New York markets.

—The Baltimore Sunday Herald says, a rather sharp correspondence has recently passed between Hon. S. Teackle Wallis and Hon. John Lee Carroll.

—At the Reform meeting held at Westminster, Mr. John Smith, a prominent Democrat of Carroll county, presided and made a telling and effective speech.

—Hon. S. Teackle Wallis returned to his home at Baltimore from New York on Monday. He has been in the latter city for some time under medical treatment.

—The Middletown, Del., Fair closed on Friday last. It was a complete success and the immense outpouring of the people exceeded anything of the kind ever seen before in Middletown.

—The schooner Pandora arrived at our wharf on Sunday with 134 tons of coal on board, which is being delivered to our citizens. This quantity is not sufficient to supply the demand.

—Mr. J. W. Bradley, residing at Preston in this county, sent us on Saturday the mammoth sweet potato of the season. It is of the Poplar Chunk variety and weighs 4 pounds and 5 ounces. Beat it who can.

—A larger quantity of phosphates are being used in this county than ever known in any one season heretofore. Almost every vessel and steamer that lands at our wharves have a quantity of this fertilizer for some of our farmers.

—Tax-payers note the fact—over $55,000 were paid out of the Treasury of Maryland last year to newspapers who support the Maryland Ring Democracy, headed by Ex-Governor Whyte, Mikey Bannon and Author P. Gorman.

—A new campaign paper, bearing the title of the True Democrat, devoted to the interests of the Reform movement in Maryland has been started at Baltimore. Each number will be embellished with a cartoon representing the doings of the Ring.

—We tender our thanks to Jas. H. Webb, near Preston for a present of two mammoth Pippin apples, one weighing 17 and the other 18½ ounces. For size and weight they are hard to beat, and we have no doubt when fully ripe will be delicious to the taste.

—John Adams, a colored minister is on trial at Georgetown, Del., for the murder of his wife while in a fit of jealousy. The testimony is strongly against him and this coupled with the fact that they never fail to convict a colored man in that court, makes his conviction sure.

—The steamer George Law, running between Chestertown and Baltimore, was sunk in Chester river, near Booker's wharf, on Thursday last. The piston rod broke and punched a hole in the hull of the steamer when she filled with water and went to the bottom. No lives were lost.

—The Cumberland Times, Democrat, is hard on Mikey Bannon and Author P. Gorman. It says, "if either Mikey Bannon or Author P. Gorman had been in Jerusalem, and the betrayal of the Saviour had been let out to the lowest bidder, Judas Iscariot would not have got the job."

—It will be seen by reference to another column that Hon. J. Morrison Harris, Col. Wilkins and other distinguished speakers will address the people of this county in Denton on the 27th inst. Mr. Harris is said to be one of the finest orators in the State and everybody should hear him.

—The Democratic primaries for this county were held in the several districts on Saturday last. Four separate committee tickets were run in this district and over 300 votes polled. The anti-ring ticket elected six and the Ring men one of their delegates. The other four districts elected Ring delegates. Whiskey was freely used by the politicians and we have not seen so many drunken men on our streets since the abolition of the liquor license law.

—The Reform Democrats of Hagerstown at an organized meeting on Saturday appointed a large committee which waited on J. Morrison Harris, the Reform candidate for Governor, on his arrival at the depot on Tuesday and escorted him into town amid the rejoicing and enthusiasm of the people.

—Ezekial Jones, residing near Farmingtown, Del., was arrested and taken to Wilmington, charged with illicit distilling of brandy. Six barrels of distilled brandy was found hid away in his parlor. H. C. Harvey, of Camden, has also been fined $100 for violation of the Internal Rev. Law by illicit distilling.

—Chas. R. Hamilton, one of the Ring candidates for the Legislature in the first Legislative district of Baltimore city, has been compelled to resign his position on the ticket and give place to a better man. This is one political Jonah thrown overboard. Who'll be the next man? The load is too heavy for the Ring to carry.

—The prospects of the Reform party are growing brighter every day in Western Maryland. Prominent Democrats attended the meetings of that party last week, acted as its officers and will support the Reform ticket. Hon. J. Morrison Harris, Col. Wilkins and other distinguished speakers addressed large and enthusiastic meetings.

—We suggest that ex-State Comptrollers William Pinkney Whyte, Henry H. Goldsborough and Robert J. Jump would form a suitable committee to examine Woolford's accounts. If they accept, Governor Groome could pay them out of his "contingent fund."—Balt. Sunday Herald. A good suggestion. Will Gov. Groome act upon it? We shall see.

—The followiag resolution was prepared to be presented to the Democratic nominating convention which met in this place on Tuesday last, but from some cause failed to be presented for their action.

Resolved, That inasmuch as Local Option by its name imports the decision of the people at option, we are opposed to the repeal of the Local Option law by a direct vote of the Legislature, but are in favor of its reference to a vote of the people, a majority petitioning for the same.

—The colums of our Maryland Democratic exchanges are filled with the Democratic defaulters list and will be for weeks to come. Some of them apologize to their readers for the paucity of reading matter. After a critical examination of the list, so far as it relates to our county, there is not a defaulter named, now living, who is a Republican, and we believe the same may be said of every county in the State. The Republicans in Maryland show a pretty clean record.

Circuit Court.

October term of the Circuit Court for this county closed on Friday last. The following cases were tried after our paper went to press last week.

State of Maryland vs. John W. Clarke. Presentment for neglect of duty as overseer of public road. Jury trial. Verdict not guilty. Russum for State—Bryant for traverser.

Thomas F. Garey vs. Thomas W. Fisher. Debt $125. Jury trial. Verdict for plaintiff for $122.50. Bryant for plaintiff—Russum and Keating for defendents.

Traders National Bank of Baltimore vs. Alexander Hardcastle. Case. Jury trial. Judgment of non pros. Jump for plaintiff—Russum for defendant.

State vs. Harry Smith alias Henry Clendaniel. Indictment for larceny. Verdict not guilty. Russum for State—Kemp and Hignutt for traverser.

George W. Spurry administer of William Williams vs. George W. Taylor and P. O. Cherbonnier. Jury trial. Verdict for plaintiff for $4500.00. Jump for plaintiff—Bryant and Brown for defendant.

State vs. Taylor Robinson. Indicted for larceny. Jury trial. Verdict Guilty.—Judgment of the Court to be confined five years in the Penitentiary. Russum for State—Kemp and Hignutt for traverser.

John Nichols' administrator vs. James L. Payne and wife. Opinion of the Court filed and Decree granted for $1140. Jump and Brown for complainant—Gov. Thomas, Russum and Bryant for respondent.

The Grand Jury found seven presentments.

The Work of the Canneries.

There were but three canning houses in operation in this county the past season, and the total amount of fruit canned by them amounts to 450,000 cans, or 18,750 cases. A part of this fruit has already found sale at $4 and $4.50 per case. If the stock yet on hand, and what has been already sold, should average $4, the total amount of canned fruit put up in this county the past season, will aggregate $75,000—quite a snug little sum to go into the pockets of our people. The number of cans put up by each of the packers are as follows:—Roe & West, at Geernsborough, 170,000—Bernard & Culbreth, at Greensborough, 170,000—White & Dunning, at Denton, 80,000.

For the Union.

Make Home Happy.

BY J. R. LEE.

Parents and children, do we give to this subject the attention it merits? Are we not Janus like; one face for the world, perhaps beaming with smiles, and another for our homes and home-circles, upon which is written legibly the frowns of discontent, peevishness and ill-humor?

Go if you will to the homes of many of your neighbors, (and perhaps you may find the same thing in your own,) even as an uninvited and perhaps unwelcome guest; will you hear the tongue of complaint, the growl of anger, or that almost daily and hourly censure and scolding for some trivial omission or short coming. No, you will not. Why? because we want the world to think well of us; and we would be ashamed for any decent man or woman outside of our own family to witness our silly freaks of childishness and pettishness. But wait until your friend or guest has gone. He hardly passes your door before the sunlight of your countenance is overcast with frowns; the little storm cloud within you bursts forth in harsh unkind and unloving words, you seem to take a grim delight in finding fault; nothing is done to suit you—everything is at cross purposes. You make yourself unhappy, and all around you pro tempore miserable. And what do we gain by this course? Is your own existence made more tolerable? Is your family never happy, and are you not sining in the sight of God? Society has a claim upon you, and its law that claim partly enforces, and we submit to its mandates. But is there not a moral and natural law implanted, (or supposed to be,) in our bosoms that is equally imperative, and should be observed by the whole human family. Does not the brute creation by their care, kindness and attention to their own little families, put to shame the boasted wisdom, humanity and greatness of peevish, fretful ignoable man? Our old spelling books teach us that "Birds in their little nests agree," and many of us Lords and Ladies of Creation, cannot agree from breakfast until noon-day. Where is our boasted reason, our christian meekness and forbearance—that fellow feeling "that makes one wonwondrous kind," away with it—"it is but sounding brass, and tinkling cymbole,"—we act a living lie. Parents and children, if I ask you if you love each other, you will doubtless question my sanity or sincerity, but judging from your words and actions, am I not justified in saying they evidence no such feeling. Love is a natural law and incites only the purest, kindest, and holiest feeling, and where true love exists you will never see the frown of dissatisfaction or listen to unkind words of censure and reproof. We all have faults; but cannot we teach others how to correct them, and at the same time speak and act in a charitable, christian manner. "A friend will tell another of his faults," but does he do it in a harsh, unfeeling way? No, I think not. I know that God has permitted thorns as well as flowers to grow beside the pathway of life. That the cup of pleasure is sometimes dashed from our unwilling hands—that the cares and trials of life at times seem almost too grievous to be bourne, but has he not, perhaps, permitted these trials to test our moral or religious strength, and how do we stand the test? By repining it may be at his behest—by questioning his divine wisdom or murmuring at his decree. Foolish man, have you forgotten that you are but a worm? That the part you may play on life's stage is insignificant—that you will soon pass away and will scarcely be missed from that multitude—that like us, will soon be marching to that shadowy land—that a few more short years will only be given you and then must you render up your stewardship for the deeds done in the body.—Then why growl, grumble, scold and repine. That cross tongue will have to answer for its earthly utterances. This is a fault that makes many homes unhappy and God will hold you responsible for it and the misery and unhappiness it may cause others.

A word to the wise. If you are troubled with a cough or cold, procure a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at once. Its use may save you from a severe sickness. Your druggists keeps it. Price, 25 cents.

Collosal Gold Sheaf Seed Wheat

THE ATTENTION of Farmers is specially invited to this new cereal, which for its prolific qualities, hardiness and freedom from disease, put rivals all other acclimated varieties. Its perfect adaption to every variety of soil and climate makes it a peculiar favorite with both American and British Farmers.

It matures in about twenty days less time than oats.

It is a remarkable grain to stand severe drought.

It yields form 40 to 90 bushels per acre.

The heads will average ten inches in length (We will send sample specimen heads to Farmers on receipt of ten cents, by mail, which will be a life evidence of the enormous growth of the wheat. Agents to whom we have sent specimen-heads are making enormous profits, showing the heads to their neighbors, and taking orders.)

The stalk is sufficiently strong to support the head and prevent its lodging The grain for stock food is equal if not superior, to Indian corn. It ripens while the stalk is yet green. We have tested its superiority as far North as Ontario and Quebec, and as for South as New Mexico, providing its perfect adoption to every variety of soil and climate in North America.
