Thursday Morning Dec. 9, 1875.

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 14th of Dec., 1875.

The Editor's Hash.

—Augustus Moore and Jerry Irwin have opened an oyster saloon at Cambridge.

—We will be thankful to our readers for news items from all parts of the county.

—Pork is selling in this market at $10 per hundred weight—$2 more than last year.

—All kinds of job printing done at this office in a neat and expiditious manner and at the lowest prices.

—Crisfield wants a jail. We have one that will suit. Enter into negotiations and take it. We have no use for it.

—The young ladies of Henderson are making preparation for an exhibition to come off Tuesday evening, 21st inst.

—Sixty new school houses have been erected in Dorchester county since the present school system has been put in operation.

—P. W. Downes, Esq., will offer for sale on Tuesday next the farm near Watts' Creek, known as the "Catholic Church Farm."

—Two and perhaps three more trips, should the weather continue favorable, will close the running season of the Highland Light to this place for the winter.

—Scarlet fever is very prevalent at Church Creek, Dorchester county. A Mr. Corsey, at that place, lost three children last week from the fatal effects of this disease.

For the American Union.

Mr. Editor :—In your paper of to-day is an Editorial headed "Gov. Groome's Opportunity," in which you ask, "Will Gov. Groome * * * seize this opportunity to gain the respect and confidence of the best citizens of the State, or will he * * * disregard the wishes of the people?"

From this, one that did not know what the question is which is now before the Governor, would suppose it was a question of public policy; whereas it is simply an abstract question of Constitutional Law, and, therefore, one with which "the wishes of the people" have nothing to do.

Suppose the Constitution had devolved the duty in question on the Court of Appeals, and they were now considering the preliminary question of the extent of their power in the premises, after having heard (just as Gov. Groome has heard) arguments on this prel'minary question from Mr. Wallis and Mr. Gwinn, would you head an editorial article, The Court's Opportunity, and speak of the alternative of its "disregarding the people's wishes?"

I know the Governor too well to doubt that he will decide the question as to his powers, according to his conscientious convictions as a lawyer, without regard to anybody's wishes, even his own, if he has any.

But suppose he decides that he has not the power to examine witnesses under oath, except in the single case in which the Constitution (Art. 2, Sec. 18) expressly gives it to him, and that therefore the witnesses, if they swore falsely before him, would not be legally guilty of perjury, what then?—Has Mr. Wallis no remedy? None, until the meeting of the General Assembly, when he must call on it to fulfil its duty under Art. 3, Sec. 47 of the Constitution; and meanwhile Mr. Gwinn must be commissioned, and take possession of the office, just as Mr. Harris was commissioned, and took his seat in Congress, pending the investigation of his right to it. The House of Delegates will also have to investigate the question of the election of Governor; and I, for one, hope it will sift the whole matter to the bottom. Of its powers, there can be no doubt; for while Art. 5, Sec. 3 respecting the election of Attorney General, only says of the Governor, "whose duty it shall be to decide on the election and qualification of the person returned," Art. 2, Sec. 4, says, "all questions in relation to the eligibility of Governor, and to the returns of said election, and to the number and legality of votes therein given, shall be determined by the House of Delegates," and Art. 3, Sec. 24, makes that House "the Grand Inquest of the State," and gives it power to compel witnesses to testify under oath. That it will exercise its power, we cannot doubt.—Meanwhile, let both Reformers and Democrats possess their souls in patience. Roguery is bad policy; whoever may be guilty of it; and so it will turn out to be, in the long run.

If this were a question of partizan politics, I should not have troubled you with this communication; but it is a question that rises above the passions of the hour, and should be decided on principles of law, and not according to "the wishes of the people," whatever those wishes may be.

E. J. STEARNS.

Denton, December 2, 1875.

[Communicated.]

To the Editor of the Union:

Looking over the columns of the Federalsburg Courier of last week, I see that the old pot head Bull of the old Tanyard of Federalsburg, has made a raid on our Denton Locomotive. He is a powerful fellow, and my advice to him is to keep off the track and stop his pawing and scraping and bellowing around or the cow catcher will be put out, and then there will be a smash up. Gleaning must be short in his region or he would not make a raid so early in the season. He ought to keep mum—yes, mum is the word. "A hint to the wise is sufficient." Boss.

The New York Observer.

This best of family newspapers is as fresh and interesting, now in its fifty-third year, as ever before; and, indeed, we think it more so. Its letters alone are worth more than the subscription price of the paper. It repudiates all offers of premiums pictures, &c., and sends to its patrons a splendid family newspaper of the largest dimensions, containing all the desirable news, religious, and secular, and an endless variety of reading for young and old, all of which is pure and good. Every family should have it. For specimen copies, address S. I. Prime & Co., New York.

Dwelling Burned.

The dwelling house at Gainey's, immediately on Choptank river, in the Fourth District, owned by Mr. John A. Tribbitt, was burned on Saturday night last, together with about forty or fifty bushels of corn stored therein. The building was unoccupied and the origin of the fire is unknown, but supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The building was insured in the Cecil county Mutual Fire Insurance Company for $700.

LIFE is but short, but we should do all we can to prolong it. Check a cough or cold at once and use an old reliable remedy such as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Mr. J. A. Greenwood and wife residing at Fairlee, Kent county, were severely burned, one night last week, by the upsetting of a coal oil lamp.

REMEMBER THIS.

Now is the time of the year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, Coughs Colds, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Disease Boschee's German Syrup has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you havenot used this medicine yourself, go to your Druggist, Dr. Fisher, and ask him of its wonderful success among his customers. Two doses will relieve the worst case. If you have no faith in any medicine, just buy a sample bottle of Boschee's German Syrup for 10 cents and try it. Regular size bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents.

Christ Church.

Bishop Lay has an appointment for Christ Church, Denton, next Saturday night, (Dec. 11th,) at 7 o'clock; and on Sunday at 10½ A. M., and 3½ P. M.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. Abiel Bowen, Dentist, is at Greensborough Saturdays. Office at R. Plummers residence. Persons wishing Dentristry other days can be waited on at my residence or at the above place by engagement.

YOU HAVE NO EXCUSE.

Have you any excuse for suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint? Is there any reason why you should go on from day to day complaining with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Heart burn, Waterbrash, Gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and disagreeable taste in the month, coming up of food after eating, Low spirits, &c. No! It is positively your own fault if you do.—Go to your Druggist. Dr. Fisher, and get a bottle of Green's August Flower for 75 cents your cure is certain, but if you doubt this, get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you.
